INTRAMURALS

By Phillip Brown

NEWS BULLETIN: The Mean Machine Dynasty has fallen. It is probably hard for many of us to believe the news, but the fall has occurred.

There have already been several submissions sent to the Board of Directors of the M and M from professors and authors for a chance to get interviews and background info for their books. A senior aide of the team said it is highly likely Dr. Leo Haiynski would receive all these rights due to his vast knowledge of the Rise and Fall of the Roman Empire.

Symptoms of the fall began to show last Wednesday when the M and M lost their first game of the playoffs to Captain Highliner's Business Vets, 9-1. It was a blow that Dave Connolly and Doug Abbott will not hear the end of for many months to come. Apparently, the two exuberant chaps decided that Island weather was not suited for them and so they left, secretly for sunny Florida. Their teammates were furious on receiving the news, but it took only a few minutes for their anger to diminish. The team's psychiatrist, Dr. Shrink, hinted that bottled up anger may have caused mild confusion, especially for the goalie Jim McInnis, which hampered their concentration to win.

The final collapse of the Empire and the last breath of its noblemen occurred the night of St Patrick's Day. The M and M's opponent was the Freshies led by Tony the Terrible Carroll. I tell ya the luck of the Irish was not with us, for they defeated the M and M by a score of 6-4.

Turning to the other teams, Marion Hall was knocked off in their third game. Blanchard Hall experienced the end when Jim Revell -JR (not JR in Dallas, but here at UPEI) and his Softies performed the slaughter. Freshmen went for three games and that was it, ha ha. So now it's down to three teams - Brand X, Business Vets, and Sophomores - who are fighting for the IHL crown. There is rumor about the Athletic Department that the IHL Crown will receive an official name. After Tuesday night's roast for John Vincent Mullighan, which was a fun and entertaining night, there was reason to grant the name JV Mullighan Memorial Cup.

Thanks to everyone who assisted me with this column and to all my readers. I'll send postcards when I get to Sports Illustrated.
