Millionaires in England.

Millionaires continue to form an exclusive body, although they are slightly on the increase. In the ten years between 1862 and 1872 there died in Great Britain ten persons who left more than a million pounds; fifty-three left over a million; and a hundred and sixty-one more than a quarter of a million. The decade (according to an elaborate return just published by the Spectator) shows an advance in the number of those who have "gone over to the majority" leaving more than a million each; but the list is confined to the following round dozen:—

1873—Sir David Baxter, ironmaster, Dundee.....£1,098,000
1873—Mr. T. Baring, banker, city.....£1,500,000
1874—Mr. E. R. Langworthy, Manchester.....£1,200,000
1876—Mr. J. Baird, Cambusdoon, Aryshire.....£1,190,000
1877—Mr. J. Pemberton, Haywood, Liverpool.....£1,900,000
1877—Earl of Dysart, 34 Norfolk st., Strand.....£1,700,000
1878—Mr. Crawshay, Glamorgan.....£1,200,000
1778—Baron L. N. de Rothschild, Picadily.....£2,700,000
1878—Mr. J. R. Mills, Tunbridge.....£1,200,000
1880—Duke of Portland, Cavendish square.....£1,500,000
1880—Mr. J. Williams, Cornwall.....£1,600,000
1880—Mr. Thos. Wigley, Lancashire.....£1,300,000

Only two noblemen, it will be seen, appear among the number, and after going through the names of fifty-six who left more than half a million pounds and a hundred and ninty-five who died leaving over a quarter of a million pounds, the Spectator points out that they were for the most part quiet traders, bankers, manufacturers, ironmasters, and the like. The fact that between them however, they had accumulated upwards of eighteen and a half millions of money invests the record with considerable interst.

CURRENT NOTES.

Nearly all the Mormon missionaries in Ohio have been driven out of the State by the threatening warnings they had received.

Correspondents returned from the Moscow coronation complain bitterly of the manner in which the press censor mutilated their despatches.

The Czar has expressed his great gratification at the courtesy shown him by the United States in sending an accredited representative to the coronation ceremonies.

Some excitement has been caused by a British vessel flying a large green flag in the harbor of Corunna. The British Consul was compelled to resort to force in order to haul down the objectionable silk.

An Irish paper informs its readers that the members of the British Association will meet in Montreal next year, and that they will be treated to excursions to the Rocky Mountains "and other points within easy reach.

A Scotchman employed to build in London used steam crans to hoist the bricks up to the required height; and, as the English workman refused to have anything to do with a job where steam supplanted men, workmen had to be brought from Edinburg to finish the hotel.

Among the sncecessful competitors for free scholarships in the Royal College of music, lately established under the special patronage of the Prince of Wales, are a mill-girl, the daughter of a brickmaker, the son of a blacksmith, who took high rank in singing, and the son of a farm laborer, who excelled in violin playing.

In seven years the consumption of wine in England has fallen from 18,500,000 gallons to 14,000,000. The advance in the science of adulteration may have something to do with the showings made by the official returns, and it undoubtly had much to do with the decrease in the consumption of drink. But there is abundant evidence that the advance of temperance in England is genuine. Mineral waters, lemonade, and tea are pushing out drink from its stronghold among the wealthy.

Experiments are soon to be made on the submarine cable between Marseilles and Algiers, to test the invention of a French scientist, by which ships in the open sea can telegraph to the shore. The submarine cable is to be supplied with several short perpendicular branches connected each by a wire with a floating buoy. When the ship meets with one of these buoys direct communication with the land battery can be obtained by propping a wire from the ship's battery to the buoy.

The following letter, which recently appeared in a Liverpool paper, relates to Rev. Mr. Tucker's attempt to draw out Mr. John Bright on the subject of marriage with a diseased wife's sister:—"Sir: I see these two gentlemen (Mr. Bright and Mr. Tucker) have got no loggerheads about the question of marrying his diseased wife's sister. I entirely agree with the right honorable gentleman, and entirely differ with my relative tho reverend one. The Society of Friends, to which John Bright and I both belong, do not object to a man marrying his deceased wife's sister (personally, I think it the very best thing he can do), because there is no blood relationship; but they do object and positively forbid first cousins marrying, because there is a very close blood relationship, and to my mind very properly. Marry a first cousin! I would sooner marry my grandmother! I am yours &c., THE REV. MR. TUCKER'S FATHER-IN LAW."

The Great French Remedy, Dr. LeDuc's Periodical Pills.

For the cure of Leucorrhœa or White's Excessive or painful Menstruation, Green Sickness, Falling of the Womb, Catarrh of the Uterus or Vagnia, Hysteria, pain in the Back, or Piles, or for the purpose of invigorating and giving tone to the Generative Organs, two pills should be taken twice daily, or in very enfebled conditions, one pill three times a day. To effect cures in chronic cases it will be necessary to continue the use of the remedy for some months. A reasonable trial will create sufficient confidence in the remedy to insure its being taken until a permanent cure is effected.

REPORT on the LORNE HIGHLAND WHISKEY:

"We have visited the bottling stores of Greenlees Brothers, and have selected from the vats, samples of their Lorne Highland Whisky, and have subjected them to careful examination and analysis. The samples were very fragrant, mellow, and of pleasant flavor, and possessed all the characteristics of pure and well-matured Scotch Whisky of the first quality."

MONTREAL, May 14, 1883.

Dr. Bennet, Halifax.

DEAR DOCTOR,—Just a few lines as promised by me. I am more than pleased with the "Liver Pad" I got from you when in Charlottetown, and can conscientiously say that it is the best thing I ever saw or heard of. It has done for me what all kinds of medicine and different physicians could not do for me—i. e., removed a very nasty body erupt on, which had given me a great deal of annoyance for more than two years; and, more than that, I have not been troubled with a single headache since I have used it. Before wearing the Pad I was troubled with severe headaches continually; and that very objectionable feeling of sluggishness and dullness has entirely left me—in fact I am a new man, to what I was before wearing it. I am truly thankful to you for what you have done for me, and I hope that you may be long spared to the benefit of the public.

Believe me,
Yours sincerely,
FRANK ELLIOTT.
