YOUTHFUL FARMERS
EDMONTON (CP) — The University of Alberta's 33rd annual summer conference for young farm people will be held June 5-13 with competitions in grain and livestock judging, household economics, public speaking and general proficiency. Last year about 200 attended.

BONN, Germany, April 24— (AP)—France and West Germany have agreed in principle to allow their nationals up to the age of 25 to enter each other's countries without visas. The spokesman said it was hoped there will be a progressive raising of the age limit until virtually all travel restrictions between the two countries are abolished.

Mrs. Mae H. Bell, Liverpool, Queens Co., Nova Scotia, attended a party a few months ago and in the course of her conversation with some other women told them how she had relieved arthritic pain by taking SARNAK after having suffered with the pain for almost three years. Two of the women suffered with arthritis themselves and when Mrs. Bell spoke of SARNAK and her own experience, they told her she should have us publish her own statement so here, in her own words, is what Mrs. Bell has to say:
"I suffered from arthritic pain for three years and last spring suffered pain so much in my shoulder, arm, fingers and ankles that I could hardly stand it. I tried different kinds of pills and medicines but nothing gave me relief. Then a friend told me to try SARNAK. I took eight bottles of SARNAK and almost from the beginning I had relief. Now I wouldn't be without SARNAK in the house and I am glad to tell everyone what SARNAK has done to bring me relief."

Try Sarnak This Spring

After a long winter resistance is often low and you have a feeling of general tiredness, lack of energy and vitality. When you feel this way old troublesome symptoms often cause suffering. SARNAK is so effective for aches and pains and general run-down condition that you usually get results within the first few days. Make up your mind to give SARNAK a chance to help you this spring as it has helped thousands of others who had gone on day after day suffering. Thousands of bottles of SARNAK are sold every day in Canada. Remember, there are no substitutes for SARNAK. Always insist on the genuine SARNAK. In some rural sections, where there are few drug stores, SARNAK may be difficult to obtain. Don't pay anyone more than $1.35 a bottle. Order by mail from your druggist or mail order house, to assure yourself not paying grey market prices. If one druggist does not have SARNAK, try another.

five o'clock; there was no reason why she should leave it unless— Suddenly he saw that there was a pink slip, such as she used for scratch paper, pinned to his pillow. He grabbed at it and read it hastily.

Dearest Drew: If you want to, you might come along to the hospital after you get back from Baton Rouge, though probably you won't be very warmly welcomed there. Why not wait until tomorrow morning? By that time Ken and I ought to be all fancied up ready for you. With all my love, Patty.

The baby, everyone said, was "all Breckenridge". This meant, primarily, that he had dark hair, fine color and a strong body, and that his eyes were not merely "kitten blue", like most babies', but that, while he was unbelievably young, they began to show the sparkling quality which had characterized Andy's and Breck's and which still characterized Drew's.

In spite of her longing for Splendida, Patty was not restless, either during her stay at the hospital or in the weeks at the shotgun house that followed. Drew said nothing about Splendida, except to remark once or twice that with his work as it was now, it was really more convenient for him to be in town, knowing that after he had told her that, Patty would say nothing more either. The commission in the Naval Reserve had come through; he had been given the rank of lieutenant commander. It was not until just before the anniversary of their marriage that he finally asked her how she would like to take another wedding trip. "Another wedding trip? Why, we didn't take one before! We just went to Splendida."

"Well, that was what I thought you might like to do this time. I bought one of those bassinets today that are built on purpose to fit in the back of cars. We can put Ken in that and start off Saturday, any time you say. I've got a free weekend, for a wonder.

We might even have this world-beater of ours christened there." "If we're going to have a christening, we must send for Raoul. Remember he wanted to be godfather."

"That's so. He did. I believe he'd come down from Washington on purpose. Whom shall we have for the other one?" "Would you like to have Gail?" "Very much. And what about a godmother?"

"Well, if Stella would come down from New York—"
