

THE CITY'S CANDIDATES.

HON. NEIL McLEOD

-AND-

PATRICK BLAKE, ESQUIRE.

THE DAILY EXAMINER.

MAY 5, 1882.

Supplementary Estimates.

THE supplementary estimates of expenditures to be made in this Province by the Dominion Government amount to $273,600!

The Cape Traverse Railway will be a great advantage to a large and wealthy farming settlement, will be the means by which a large amount of capital will be circulated throughout the Province, will afford employment to many of our people, and will point the way towards the fulfilment of the terms of Union with respect to continuous winter communication.

The improvement to be made in the rolling stock of the P. E. Island Railway, shows that the representations of our men at Ottawa have not been in vain.

Several other improvements have been provided for; and both our representatives and the Government deserve credit.

An End to Gain.

THE Oppositionists are making a desperate effort to secure their elections on Monday next. They do not hesitate to resort to the most dishonest tactics, to the most scurrilous abuse, and to the vilest slanders in order that their ends may be gained.

Mr. W. D. Stewart, the former Commissioner of Public Works, announces himself to be not only the exponent, but the leader of the Grit faction, which, at the present time desires so much to occupy the Treasury benches. Against the Government, regardless of truth, and having no wish to be correct, he leaves nothing unsaid by which they may be successfully injured.

What object has this man in view that he should be so zealous in his hostility to the Government? Is he capable of acting consistently or in a disinterested manner? Can he satisfy the people of this country that it is for their welfare and not his own he seeks re-election? For the credit of the Province, as well as for his financial interests, it is to be hoped not. What has been his past career either privately or publicly? Is it one which commends itself to the good sense of an honest community? By no means! Failure after failure characterizes the conduct of his private business.

The most reckless extravagance and carelessness comprise the history of his official life. Demagogues such as he who, to exist at all, must live at the expense of the public, are not the men to be trusted with the management of their affairs.

Before pledging support to these men, let the electors ask themselves these questions: "Have not the Government, in so far as they were able, faithfully fulfilled all the promises they made previous to their election four years ago? Has not their record been an honest one? Has not the most rigid economy been practised, so that the people may be freed from taxation? Do they not deserve the hearty support of every man who admires honest and straightforward government? If so, and every candid person must acknowledge all this, what objection can be urged against their administration?"

Mr. Davies' Letter.

WE regret that a gentleman who has, personally, been so long known and esteemed in this community as Daniel Davies, Esquire, should feel personally hurt concerning some statements regarding his utterances in the present contest, which have appeared in THE EXAMINER. It is not usual for old politicians to be very sensitive; and when a man goes into the fray, it is supposed that he is prepared to receive, as he gives, blows. But it is evident that THE EXAMINER has injured the feelings of Mr. Davies; and though we have not knowingly or intentionally wronged him, we beg to offer a most respectful apology.

The hon. gentleman will, at the same time, perhaps, permit a few remarks on some of the points raised in his letter to the Patriot. First, as to the opprobrious epithets which he has applied to THE EXAMINER's reporter. Unlike the Patriot, and a few other newspapers of the Opposition stripe, THE EXAMINER likes to give its readers the benefit of both sides of the question. Our reporter, consequently, visited the Opposition meeting, for purposes entirely affording the interests of the public; and there is, probably, no other part of the civilized world in which the undoubted right and privilege of the reporter of a public newspaper to demand admission, would, for a moment, be challenged. Our reporter did as he was directed; was freely admitted to the meeting; took a prominent seat; was known to every one present; and, so far from being informed that his presence was not wanted, or that a report would be undesirable, was informed by the prospective Leader of the Opposition—the ruling, moving spirit of the meeting—Mr. W. D. Stewart—that everything was "open and above board," and was asked by Mr. Henry Lawson to give a report of his (Lawson's) remarks. The day following a lengthy report of the main facts of the meeting appeared in THE EXAMINER, which was recognized by those who attended it, to be, though somewhat ridiculous, "substantially correct." Had THE EXAMINER sent surreptitiously to the meeting a person who was not known to be a reporter, and had thus secretly obtained a report, Mr. Davies might have some real cause for complaint and for applying the opprobrious epithet of "spy"; but, we submit, that in this case he has no such cause.

Again, Mr. Davies says: "The names of the editors (of THE EXAMINER) are not published"; and "it is, therefore, just in a position to slander old servants of the people, and stab them in the dark with impunity." We have noticed that when "THE EXAMINER PUBLISHING COMPANY" owes a man a dollar, the man usually finds out the person to whom to apply for payment; and if THE EXAMINER has done a wrong to Mr. Davies, or to any other man, he may easily, on application, obtain information as to the person of whom to ask reparation. True, the name of the editor of THE EXAMINER is not obtruded upon the notice of the public. But neither are those of the editors of the Toronto Mail, the Toronto Globe, the Halifax Herald, the Halifax Chronicle, the Montreal Witness, the St. John Daily Sun, the St. John Globe, the New York Herald, and dozens of other influential and responsible journals which might be named. In fact we know of no leading paper (except the Patriot) which, in these days, blazons abroad the name of its editor and proprietor; and in the instances in which this occurs, the motive is usually an aggressive egotism in the editor, or a desire on his part to obtain office or personal notoriety. The editor of THE EXAMINER is actuated by no such motives.

Now, Mr. Davies says his words have, on two occasions, been misreported by THE EXAMINER. If so, we can assure him that we regret it; and, though our reporter declares emphatically that the reports were in effect what Mr. Davies said in both instances, and had he called at THE EXAMINER office and desired corrections, they should have been made with pleasure. But Mr. Davies chose, instead, to go to a public meeting and to denounce THE EXAMINER in the strongest terms known to the English language; and he drew forth a letter from "a depositor" who has lost thousands upon thousands of dollars—the savings of a lifetime—in the Bank of which Mr. Davies is a Director, and who was not unreasonably indignant at his words and actions on that occasion. We do not, however, question the good taste of Mr. Davies in this respect; and we deeply sympathize with him in the losses to which he has made allusion.

The Opinion of Thos. Morris, Esq. "I believe that by strict economy and retrenchment in the various departments of the public service, the expenditure of the Province can be so reduced as to bring it within the revenue without resorting to direct taxation." The above is a quotation from Mr. Morris' "Card to the Electors" in 1879. Mr. Morris' opinion at that time was probably as good as it is now.

England and the Colonies.

In the House of Commons, Ottawa, on the 31st inst., Mr. Wallace, of Norfolk, gave notice that, on the 9th inst., he would move the following resolutions: (1) That, in the opinion of this House, it is most desirable that commercial relations between Great Britain and her dependencies should be regulated so as to give each in the markets of the other a preference over foreign nations.

(2) That the adoption by the Mother Country of trade regulations which would give subjects resident in her dependencies a preference in her market over the people of foreign states, which would more fully recognize that they are subjects, would create a great community of interests between the inhabitants of the several portions of the Empire, would bind them more strongly together and would tend to the strengthening and consolidating of the Empire. (3) That Her Majesty's loyal subjects residing in Canada being most anxious that the connection with the Mother Country should be perfected, will give their dutiful consideration to any proposition emanating from Her Majesty's Imperial Government having in view the adoption of trade relations which would provide for admitting the productions of their fellow-subjects in the other portions of the Empire into the markets of the Dominion on terms more favorable than are accorded to foreigners.

Meeting of the Presbytery.

The Presbytery of P. E. Island met in Charlottetown on the 3rd inst. There were present: Rev. Dr. Murray, Wm. Scott, J. McLeod, Wm. R. Frame, S. C. Gunn, Wm. Grant, A. E. Carr, George McMillan, Wm. A. Mason and Messrs. Lestock, Anderson and Alexander Robertson, Elders.

In accordance with a request from the congregations of Georgetown, Cardigan, Montague and Dundas, the Presbytery decided Montague and Georgetown to be a separate and distinct charge, and the acting elders in these two places, with Rev. Mr. Frame as their Moderator, to be the session of that congregation. Cardigan, Piquet and Dundas were also united and declared to be a separate and distinct charge, and the acting elders in these sections, with Rev. Mr. Gunn as their Moderator, to constitute the session of said congregation. Rev. Dr. Murray was appointed to preach on Sabbath, 21st inst., at Cardigan, at eleven o'clock, and announce the above act of Presbytery. Rev. Mr. McLeod was appointed to preach on the same day at Montague Bridge, at eleven o'clock; at Lower Montague at three o'clock, and in Georgetown, at seven o'clock, and to declare them a separate charge.

Rev. Mr. Murray, of Nova Scotia, having accepted the call to Clifton and Grandville, his induction was appointed to take place on 29th May. Rev. Neil McKay to preach the induction sermon. Dr. Murray to address the minister. Rev. J. M. McLeod to address the congregation. Rev. Mr. Grant to preside, and Rev. Wm. P. Archibald to narrate the steps previously taken, and also to preach at Clifton, on Sabbath, 14th inst., at six o'clock, p. m., and serve the E. list of Induction.

Rev. Mr. Roberts was appointed to preach in Richmond Bay congregation during the month of May. Mr. J. W. McKinnon to preach in Tignish during the last three weeks of May, and Mr. Montgomery to preach in Dundas and Cardigan on the last Sabbath of May. Rev. Mr. Crawford was appointed to preach in Georgetown and Montague on the 29th May. J. M. McLeod, P. B. Clerk.

The Irish Resolutions.

THE Irish Resolutions were ably discussed in the Senate on the 3rd inst. At midnight a division was taken on Senator Haythorne's amendment, which was lost by a division of five to thirty-six. Senator Haythorne's supporters were: Alexander, Almon, Glasier, Kauback and Read.

Ferguson and Egan.

To the Editor of the Examiner. SIR,—A public meeting of the electors of Blooming Point School District, East Tracadie, was held in the school house, yesterday, at five o'clock, p. m. The meeting was unanimous for Ferguson and Egan. The electors present expressed themselves as determined to vote the Liberal-Conservative ticket—no splitting. They feel sorry that their old member, Mr. McDonald, has so far forgotten himself as to join with the Opposition.

A boy with a telescopic eye is said to be among the latest wonders of Paris. One eye is as large as a silver dollar and the other as small as a French pea. Up to a few months ago this large eye was of no use. But after an operation upon it an astonishing change occurred. The eye became telescopic in its range, and the boy could expand or contract the pupil at will. At night he could see the rings and moons of Jupiter and the newly discovered satellites of Mars. Then it was discovered that the smaller eye was microscopic, a drop of water appearing to him through it as a world of life.

Two hundredth anniversary of the birth of Froebel, the founder of the Kindergarten system of teaching children, was recently celebrated in Boston. This admirable system is making great headway in the United States. There are thirty-one of these schools in Boston; in Milwaukee the Board of Education has taken hold of the affair; eleven schools were started in Philadelphia last year; in Chicago a number have been started by private individuals.

A DESPATCH from the West Coast of Africa reports heavy fighting between the natives of New Calabar and the followers of Oko Jumbo. The slaughter is described as fearful, at least two thousand persons being killed. It was feared that Jaga would take part in the fighting, causing war which would become a wholesale carnage. There is much alarm amongst the English inhabitants. It was expected that two gunboats would be ordered to the scene.

Two more mines, evidently constructed in preparation for the approaching coronation of the Czar have been discovered in Russia, the one on the line of the St. Petersburg and Moscow railway, and the other under the imperial pavilion in the Moscow exhibition building. Eighteen arrests have been made in connection with the latter.

THE municipal authorities of Kingston are very wisely taking measures to prevent the posting on the city streets of the obscene pictures too often employed to advertise certain classes of theatrical entertainments. The Council has also passed a by-law prohibiting boys under eighteen years of age frequenting public billiard-rooms.

MR. CHAMBERLAIN, President of the British Board of Trade, announced in Parliament, on the 2nd inst., that the Government had decided to stop work on the channel tunnel until further action should be taken by the House.

MR. A. BRUNSER, M. P., has telegraphed to Mayor Shakespear, of Victoria, B. C., that His Excellency the Governor General and Princess Louise will visit that Province in September next and remain for some months.

THE North German Gazette denies the truth of the rumours of a meeting of the three Emperors. It says the agreement between the Emperors requires no personal interview to ensure its efficiency.

CANON FABER enlivened the late Charles Robert Darwin in a sermon delivered at Westminster Abbey on Sunday night last, and asserted that there was reason to believe that the attacks made upon religion in his rams were contrary to his solemn convictions.

The Dominion Government has granted a thousand dollars for the relief of Nova Scotia fishermen, who suffered by storms during the year 1881. MAY DAY was celebrated at Niagara Falls by a heavy snowstorm and cold weather, the thermometer registering 36°. MANY thousand hands are thrown out of employment by a strike among the Middle-borough, Eng., nonworkers. DAVID ROBERTS has been very ill for the last few days. He is now well, but is about again—frayed.
