PRACTICE—The Y. M. C. A. male chorus will practice to-night at 7.15 sharp in the Parlour.

THE STANLEY arrived at Pictou at four o'clock yesterday afternoon, and will leave on return to-morrow morning at six o'clock.

LECTURE POSTPONED.—Mr. Ferguson's lecture in Stanhope Hall, announced last week, has been postponed until Saturday evening at 7 o'clock.

CITY ASSESSORS.—The two new City Assessors, Edward Davy and Angus D. Martin, were sworn yesterday afternoon by His Worship Mayor Haviland.

I. O. O. F.—Kingston Lodge, No. 65, I. O. O. F., was instituted at Kingston, N. S., last Friday evening. It starts out with a membership of over fifty.

AT THE CAPES.—The boats arrived at Cape Tormentine this forenoon; they left Cape Tormentine at 9.25, but up to 3 o'clock no word of their landing at Cape Traverse had been received.

THEY DON'T WANT IT.—The Women's Christian Temperance Union of Detroit, Mich., has formally resolved that they will not in any way encourage the proposed introduction of the hoop skirt.

HOCKEY.—The Charlottetown Hockey Club have decided to hold another Match game of this exciting and popular sport on Friday 10th March—Militiamen vs Civilians. This will be the most interesting game held. Secure your tickets early.

THE SCOTCH WIN.—In the hockey match at Souris last night, the Scotch won by two goals, the score at the close standing: Scotch 2, English 1. There was a good attendance, and the Scotch band played well during the evening. The two teams and their friends returned to the city this forenoon.

MAKING GOOD PROGRESS.—Mr. J. C. Clark, of Bay View, is making good progress towards getting his house out of the river where it dropped in while hauling it from Stanley to Bay View. He is drawing it across the river with pulleys, and it intends to haul it up the bank on 1 inchways.

LIKE ANANIAS.—On Friday last, in the Criminal Court at Nashville, Tenn., a man named Harvey Weakley, on trial for murder, fell dead in the witness stand. When asked if he killed the victim, Weakley said he hoped God would strike him dead if he had. Hardly had he spoken when he fell to the floor.

THE HARD WORKED COUNTRY PASTOR.—A Muskoka pastor has wisely declined an addition of one hundred dollars a year to his salary on the ground that the hardest part of his labors heretofore has been the collection of his salary, and it would kill him to undertake the collection of one hundred dollars more. We are aware that this story has been told before, but history repeats itself.

FOR THE NORTHWEST.—About three hundred immigrants arrived here about 2 o'clock yesterday, most of them going to the Northwest. A special train of eight cars left about three o'clock containing about two hundred and fifty bound for the Northwest, and the remainder left on the C. P. R. last night for the Northwest. They were a very intelligent lot of people.—St. John Sun.

OR WITH A MILLINER.—There is a sensation in Royalton, Minn., over the fact that Rev. J. J. Waymer, the former Methodist Minister at that place, has run off with Mrs. A. M. White, the leading milliner. Mrs. White was a leader in the church and the chief Sunday school worker and ought to have behaved better particularly as she is forty years of age and has five thousand dollars. Waymer who is fifty, left a wife and four grown-up sons.

OLD POSTAGE STAMPS.—A strange business is that of buying old postage stamps, but quite profitable to those who can find the right kind of stamps to sell. Nearly every business house has packages of old letters, and it would pay some one to look them over and pick out the stamps, as some of the early issues of Canada, Nova Scotia, New Brunswick, and United States, are very scarce and sell for $25 each and even more if they are on the original covers.

SUPREME COURT.—The Supreme Court at Georgetown adjourned sine die last evening. Before adjournment a verdict for the plaintiff was given in the case of Malcolm McMillan vs. Lemuel Martin, and the case of Richard Smith and another vs. Leo McCormack was settled. Judge Hensley, Attorney General Peters and the other lawyers in attendance returned to the city this forenoon.

Chief Justice Sullivan this morning delivered judgment in the case of Patrick M. Nathan vs. Arthur B. Mitchell, of Halifax, an application by the defendant to set aside a judgment and for a rehearing of the case before the Prothonotary. His Lordship refused the application, dismissed the summons, and ordered the judgment to stand.

THE SOUTHPORT FIRE.—The fire at Southport yesterday afternoon destroyed the shop of Mr. Morgan and a warehouse and barn in the rear, as well as a dwelling house adjoining, owned by Mr. Robert Boyer and occupied by a man named Hannan. The origin of the fire is not known. It started in a sleeping room over the store on Mr. Morgan's premises, and was so far advanced before being discovered that nothing could be saved. From Morgan's the fire spread to the property of Mr. Boyer adjoining, and soon it also was destroyed. The fire burnt rapidly and at one time it looked as if the property of Mr. Sprague, just south of Morgan's, would be burnt or badly damaged. But, fortunately, it escaped unscathed. A goodly number of firemen and others from Charlottetown went over to the scene of the fire and did all in their power to help stay the progress of the flames. A blacksmith's shop in the rear of Mr. Boyer's premises narrowly escaped being destroyed. Mr. Morgan had insurance amounting to $1,700 in the Commercial Union, represented by Mr. Brown. The store was insured for $500, and the stock therein for $1000; his outbuildings were insured for $100. He estimates his loss at about $1200 over and above the insurance. Mr. Boyer's building was insured for $400 in the North British and Mercantile, represented by Mr. Hyndman.

THE FOOL AND THE MINISTER—Jock's scow, a half-witted lad, had been employed by the minister to cart some firewood. Finding he had got the worst of the bargain, the reverend gentleman remarked severely: "Jock, when I came here they told me you were a fool."

"Ay, sir," replied Jock; "an' they tauld me ye wis a gran' preacher; but," he added, in a lower tone, "it's never safe to believe a' that ye hear!"—Scottish American.
