WORDS FOR THE WORLD

"Know, verily, that the soul is a sign of God, a heavenly gem whose reality the most learned of men have failed to grasp, and whose mystery no mind, however acute, can ever hope to unravel. It is the first among all created things to declare the excellence of its Creator . . . If it be faithful to God, it will reflect His light, and will, eventually, return unto Him."

From the sacred writings of the Baha'i World Faith

THE BIBLE GOES FORWARD

In Uganda where they have possessed the Bible in their own language since 1896, over eighty per cent of the people are Christian. It is a thrilling experience for religious leaders to preach in the churches of Uganda and to speak in the Christian schools and colleges in that area. The Uganda Christians experienced a difficult persecution during the early days of Christianity in that country but they survived and very shortly began to send native missionaries to tribes round about. One is greatly impressed by the results of the missionary societies and the Bible Society labouring together in that land.

By your prayers and gifts share in the great cause of the British and Foreign Bible Society.

St. Dunstan's---One Hundred Years

ALUMNI ASSOCIATION, 1928.

To many alumni the Alumni Association was a thing unknown before 1928. They had grown up and had left the College in blissful ignorance of the very existence of such an organization. They had existed without it, and so had the College, so why bring it back? In spite of this, however, response to the appeal for membership was not discouraging.

The original intention of the Founders of the St. Dunstan's Alumni Association was twofold: to continue the band of fellowship among the Alumni and to promote the interests of the College. And though the scope of Alumni Association has widened in recent years, still students of St. Dunstan's must be content for the present, if they but attain this double and proposed by the Founders.

The ties of friendships formed in College days must be continued and strengthened. Classmates and college friends should keep in touch with one another. Reunions for individual classes and for the whole body of Alumni should be held from time to time to cement these bonds of friendship, and to give to all the privilege of meeting their friends once more.

Moreover, the Institution itself can derive great benefit from such an Association. The Alumni can do much in a practical way to help their Alma Mater, and at the present time St. Dunstan's Alumni can aid in the improvement of their College by giving financial assistance.

In her first seventy-five years St. Dunstan's had received from her Alumni as a body only seven thousand dollars. The late Dr.
Cunningham, of Boston, bequeathed for the erection of a chapel the magnificent sum of $25,000 payable on the final winding up of his estate. Senator J.
J. Hughes of Souris contributed stock to the amount of $5,000, the interest of which was payable to the College annually, and, no doubt, many of the Island Alumni must be credited with a share of the $30,000 subscribed in the drive of 1919.

But in 1929 the crying need of the College was an Endowment Fund. St. Dunstan's had struggled on for seventy-five years in spite of every difficulty without it; but she was to continue her good work, if she was to compete with other institutions, and if she was to give to the youth who came to her, the best physical, intellectual, moral and religious training that may be given, then she must have financial assistance. Equipment must be bought, the library must be furnished, professors must be educated. All these were and are still necessary for the advancement, indeed for the very life of the College, and all these require money — money which she cannot hope to obtain wholly from the fees paid by the students. This is where the Alumni must come to her aid and endow her sufficiently to procure at least these necessary items.

The Alumni Reunion, commemorating the 75th Anniversary of the College was held during the first week of August in 1929. Several hundred alumni, many of whom had not been back to the College for many years, returned and attended the different functions. Under the admirably capable leadership of Bishop Kelly of Oklahoma City and Tulsa, and Bishop Morrison of Antigonish, the alumni present laid plans for the formation and development of an Alumni Endowment Fund. Over $30,000.00 was subscribed on the spot, and during the fall and winter of that autumn along with the depression years which followed, seriously interfered with the success of this endowment fund.

Notwithstanding these difficulties, over $30,000.00 had accumulated to the Endowment Fund by 1950 and provided the Alumni Association of this later date with a considerable capital sum to invest in the new Gymnasium-Auditorium which they had undertaken to build. Respecting the wishes of their forebears the alumni have pledged themselves to completely reimburse this fund before they consider their project completed.

The Alumni Reunion in 1929 was a decided success. Credit for this is due in particular to J.
Augustine MacDonald, President at that time, and Reverend (later Monsignor) Gavin P. Monaghan.
The inspiration provided in 1929 served to stimulate sufficient interest in the Association to keep it progressing steadily ever since.

In 1948 the question of a Gymnasium-Auditorium for the College was raised again. It had been mentioned as a suitable "project" for alumni initiative as far back as 1911, for we read in the June issue of that year's "Red and White":

"During the collegiate year (1910-1911) St. Dunstan's has maintained its usual good standard in athletics. In football, hockey, basketball, handball and baseball, we did good work. But perhaps our most crying need is a gymnasium. As matters are now the students are deprived of many facilities for training, if they had which, there would be marked improvement in our athletic work

Thoughts For Our Time

By His Eminence Cardinal McGuigan (Copyright)

FAR SHORT OF PERFECTION

We have all, at one time or another, met someone whose whole life was permeated with a reverence for God. This reverence expresses for their self-sacrifice and would make us think that we can never be satisfied with ourselves until we attain to that level of virtue.

As we shall see, however, if there is anything which can prevent us from reaching this goal which attracts us, it is the thought that we might be tempted to be satisfied with ourselves if we did attain it. It is for this reason, we are told, that even when we have fulfilled all the commands of the Gospel, we are to consider ourselves as "profit-less servants" who have only done what has been commanded of us.

In a way it is somewhat discouraging to hear these words, which seem to rob our best actions of that element of generosity which we thought set them apart from our other action. However, it would seem that the saying is not directed against our real generosity, but that other men appreciate his efforts. The happiness of such people, even in the midst of sufferings, strikes us as fitting rewards for their self-sacrifice and would make us think that we can never be satisfied with ourselves until

we attain to that level of virtue.
