

THE DAILY EXAMINER.

AUGUST 8, 1882.

England and Russia.

There is activity in Russia. Troops are ordered to Odessa, and active military preparations are being made.

It is no longer in doubt that a divergence of views exists between England and Russia, which is exercising prejudicial influence upon all attempts to harmonize English action in Egypt with legitimate right and the wishes of the powers.

Truro's Birthday.

TRURO, in its endeavour to create a stir, finds out that, sometime or the other, it had a birthday. Now Truro intends to celebrate the dim event in a round of gliding gaieties.

Parnell and the Land Corporation Company.

PARNELL has issued a circular condemning the organization known as the "Land Corporation Company."

The Newfoundland Railway.

The Railway seems to be quite a success in Newfoundland. It is doing much in the way of extending trade, and also in affording facilities for a good excursion.

The Potato Bug.

Just as we are going to press there has been shown at our office a small box containing live potato bugs gathered from the farm of Mr. John Binns of New Glasgow.

TO DAY Gladstone brings forward his motion on the "Arrears Bill." The Lords seem determined to insist on their amendment, and the Irish Party together with the Cabinet seem equally determined that the bill shall pass as it left the Commons.

The Secrets of Diplomacy.

The reason why Russia feels so sore on the Egyptian question has just transpired. The veil that shrouds diplomatic arrangements has been withdrawn, and now the Czar says that previous to the Russo-Turkish war the late Czar proposed to retire the Turks to Asia Minor and make Turkey in Europe a monarchy, with the Duke and Duchess of Edinburgh as sovereigns of a State to be protected by all the powers.

Complications by Marriage.

The Duke of Westminster, said by some to be the richest man in the world, has just married. Some queer complications have grown out of the marriage.

An Indian Critic.

"Pete" is evidently a diligent reader of THE EXAMINER. We give his original criticism on the "Fishing Idyll."

The Park for Bathers.

TO THE Editor of the Examiner. DEAR SIR,—I see in your paper of Saturday an article headed "The Park for Bathers," and signed "The Chief."

I quite agree with the first part of this letter, referring to the beauty of the Park, etc. But when he talks about men bathers (for he seems quite to ignore the fact that women wish also to bathe), I cannot help asking if women are, in this case as in many others, to give way to the men and attend themselves from the Park when he and others may wish to enjoy the salt water.

I would suggest that the city should have bathing houses for men and women and, as is the custom in watering places, costumes may be worn by all parties. This plan, it seems to me, would relieve "The Chief" from all embarrassment—whether in or out of the water—and the poor dear would escape the agitation consequent in seeing "visions of feminine figures in that vicinity."

Yours, &c., A LADY BATHER.

Personal.

SIR LEONARD TILLEX is reported much improved in health at St. Andrews. He is expected to return to St. John to-day.

REAR ADMIRAL JOHN C. BEAUMONT, U. S. N., (retired) died at Newmarket, N. H., on the 1st inst., aged 61.

SIR E. MALET, the British Consul-General and Diplomatic Agent in Egypt, who was obliged to leave his post a few weeks ago on account of illness, left for Egypt a few days ago.

At Measil is still the peasant's cottage which was purchased by Littré for $600. His books are there in the room under the roof, which he reached by a ladder. The old oak in the forest, under which he studied, is called the tree of M. Littré. The old fashioned flowers of the great scholar who never envied a rich neighbour are still blooming.

The Rev. Sylvanus Hayward, who preaches in Globe, Mass., declares bluntly that the increase in divorces in that State is not due to greater laxity in the laws, but to an enormous increase of wickedness among the people, and he holds that the remedy must be found in an improvement in their morals.
