P. E. I. Art Society Monthly Meeting

It was "Modern Art" night when members of the Prince Edward Island Art Society met on Tuesday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Wright, Green Street, for their regular monthly meeting.

Rev. Father Adrien Arsenault, popular instructor at St. Dunstan's gave a most interesting talk, "Modern Art in Modern Times", and outlined briefly the history of the movement beginning with the English painters Constable and Turner, through the French and throughout the world. Different phases such as Impressionism, Cubism, Fauvism, Modern Religious Art, the Mexican School, Surrealism and Poetic Impressionism were touched upon. The speaker went on to illustrate how modern art styles influence many things around us whether we are aware of it and whether we like it or not.

The response to the evening's talk was such that a hope was expressed that it may again be presented, this time to the general public. The possibilities are being studied by the Society.

During the business period reports of committees were heard, Mr. James Harris for the Art Gallery renovation and Mrs. Jack Fraser for Library Art Books. Mention was made of the coming 14th annual exhibition of Island paintings, to be considered in detail at the next meeting. President Vic Runtz presided.

While tea was served paintings brought in by members were shown. In keeping with the evening each member submitted a painting or two modern in style. Some very pleasing, some thought-provoking and some quite amusing pictures were seen.

St. Veronica's Guild Meeting

The regular meeting of St. Veronica's Guild was held in the Charlottetown Hospital Monday evening, Feb. 9. Rev. Father MacLellan, C.Ss.R., chaplain, celebrated Benediction prior to the meeting.

The president, Mrs. Joseph Callaghan, presided at the business meeting. Reports were read by the treasurer, Mrs. J. E. Corrigan, and by the secretary, Miss Alice Trainor, who also read considerable correspondence. This included a letter from Sister Superior thanking the Guild members for donating a record player and album to the children's ward.

Mrs. St. Clair Trainor was asked to present the Guild at the annual Red Cross meeting on Monday, Feb. 16th.

The following conveners gave brief reports of work done since the last meeting: Religious activities, Miss Phyllis Hughes; sick, Mrs. J. E. Corrigan; membership, Mrs. Cletus Murphy.

A membership drive is being organized with the co-operation of the C. W. L. sub-divisions in an effort to contact all Catholic nurses residing on Prince Edward Island. Mrs. Murphy reported that six nurses from out of town have become members within the last two weeks.

Miss Margaret Campbell outlined a program wherein each member could give an hour a week of nursing care to any person in the city requiring such service. This program is in keeping with a suggestion for voluntary nursing service made at the annual convention of Guilds in Antigonish last June.

A day of recollection, and a short course in medical and nursing ethics will be carried out during Lent by Rev. Father MacLellan.

Guest speaker for the evening was Professor Brendon O'Grady of St. Dunstan's University, who spoke on "Gospel Action". Professor O'Grady speaks authoritatively on this subject since he has been keenly interested in this particular Apostolic work from the time of his student days at Notre Dame University, Indiana.

A vote of thanks was presented to Professor O'Grady on behalf of the Guild by Miss Phyllis Hughes. The president extended her personal thanks, and commended Father MacLellan and the Religious Activities Committee for arranging such an excellent program.

A social hour followed during which refreshments were served by Mrs. G. Maddigan, Mrs. I. O. Kelly, Mrs. Alf Kelly, Mrs. Daniel MacKenzie, Mrs. R. S. MacDonald and Mrs. Linus Smith.

The shrine of King Edward the Confessor at Westminster Abbey in London dates from A. D. 1269.
