CANADIAN FORCE FOR TRANSVAAL

Will be Offered When War Begins.

COLONEL OTTER TO COMMAND THE FORCE

The Governor General's Bodyguard has Volunteered.

[SPECIAL TO THE EXAMINER.]

OTTAWA, Oct. 11.—There have been some interesting rumors afloat during the past few days about the proposed military contingent for the Transvaal.

The government is divided as to the course it should pursue.

Some of the members would have been the first in the field in their offer to the Home authorities, could they have had the saying, but this section was a minority in the Cabinet.

Public feeling is now so strong on this matter that the more cautious ones are sorry that the offer was not made some days ago.

It is said that one difficulty which the ministry have had to face, arises from fact that General Hutton made a direct offer of the services of a Canadian contingent to the Imperial authorities.

Hon. Mr. Borden has been giving question of a Canadian contingent very serious attention since public opinion became so outspoken on the subject and immediately hostilities break out the announcement will be made that a Canadian force has been offered to the home authorities.

The force will be offered, it is reported as follows:—

Commanding Officer—Col. Otter.
Chief of Staff—Lieut.-Col. Buchan.
Artillery Contingent—Col. Drury.
Cavalry—Col. Lissard.
Infantry—Col. Hughes, M. P., and Col. Pelletier, Quebec.

TORONTO, Oct. 11.—Private advices were received from Ottawa last night to call for volunteers for the Transvaal.

A squadron of the Governor General's Body Guard drilling at the armory at once tendered their names.

The Toronto quota is to be 150 to 200 men.

Food Wanted

OTTAWA, Oct. C. E. Sontum, Canadian commissioner's agent for Norway and Sweden, asserts that owing to the scarcity of cereals caused by drought, there will be a large demand there for Canadian cereals. He adds: "The fruit crop was also a failure and Canada will find a ready market here for both fresh and evaporated apples during the coming winter."

ROYAL Baking Powder

Made from pure cream of tartar.

Safeguards the food against alum.

Alum baking powders are the greatest menaces to health of the present day.

WAR MAY HAVE COMMENCED

England's Reply Will be a Refusal

OF KRUGER'S DEMAND. PREPARATIONS STILL GO ON.

And a State of War Probably Exists at This Time.

[SPECIAL TO THE EXAMINER.]

LONDON, Oct. 11.—It cannot be doubted that England's reply will be a flat rejection of President Kruger's demands and that a quarter after three o'clock this p. m., English time, an actual state of war will exist, as the British troops continue landing in South Africa and are advancing to the front.

It is quite possible according to the terms of the Boer ultimatum that hostilities have already commenced, as Kruger has everything to gain by an instant advance.

Sharp fighting is likely to occur at Mafeking where Colonel Baden-Powell is holding his exposed position.

LONDON, Oct. 10.—A despatch to the Times from Lobatsi says:—"As a result of an incognito visit to one of the Boer camps at Malmani, I learned that there were 16,000 men on the Natal border, and that the Republic is easily able to send 6,000 men west. It does not intend to let the English notice all its force to the Natal frontier."

A despatch to the Times from Lisbon says that many large consignments of ammunition have recently passed, and are still allowed to pass, through Lorenzo Marques, East Africa, presumably for use by the Boers. It seems true that most of this ammunition comes from English makers, and is carried by English ships.

Her Majesty, in Privy Council at Balmoral this morning, assented to the calling of Parliament, the mobilization of reserves, and the continuance in the army of all soldiers now serving who in ordinary circumstances would be entitled to discharge or transfer to the reserves.

It is rumored at Portsmouth that the Admiralty may organize a flying squadron for the Cape.

Although the impending army corps is a matter of prominent military interest, the troops already on the scene of probable action constitute no insignificant body. The original Cape garrison was 9,000 men, and this has been increased by 4,500. There are 12,000 men at sea, on the way to the Cape, and their arrival will make the approximate total of British troops in South Africa, prior to the arrival of the army corps, 25,500. These troops do not include the irregular forces, the Cape Mounted Rifles, the Port Elizabeth and Grahamstown Volunteers, the Natal police, the Durban Light Infantry, the Australian force, nor the regular naval brigade.

The Cape squadron now includes ten warships, all heavily manned; and the British first-class protected cruisers Terrible and Powerful will soon arrive, enabling the navy to land a brigade of about two thousand men.

CAPE TOWN, Oct. 10.—Mr. Langham, secretary of the South African League at Krugersdorp, has been kicked to death by Boers.

The newspapers here continue to publish stories of brutality told by refugees from the Transvaal. They declare that the Boers spat in the faces of the women, shouted obscenities, and defiled the water at the railway stations.

A despatch from Cape Town to the Central News says that Mr. James G. Stowe, the American Consul-General, has forwarded a strong despatch to Washington concerning the brutal treatment by Boers of an American, who was leaving the land.

STANSTEAD JUNCTION, P. Q., 12th Aug. 1893.

MESSRS C C RICHARDS & Co.

GENTLEMEN,—I fell from the bridge leading from a platform to a loaded car while assisting my men in unloading a load of grain. The bridge went down as well as the load on my back, and I struck on the ends of the sleepers, causing a serious injury to my leg. Only for its being very fleshy, would have broken it. In an hour could not walk a step. Commenced using MINARD'S LINIMENT, and the third day went to Montreal on business and got about well by the use of a cane. I can sincerely recommend it as the best liniment that I know of in use.

Yours truly,
C. H. GORDON.

NO DANGER OF COMPLICATIONS

With the Other Powers of Europe.

PRESIDENT KRUGER HAS MADE A MISTAKE

Alienates Sympathy by Forcing Hostile Action.

[SPECIAL TO THE EXAMINER.]

LONDON, Oct. 11.—Admiralty are concentrating transports, twenty-four of which are already in readiness at Liverpool alone.

There is considered to be no longer any question that the Government fears complications.

The ultimatum is the absorbing topic of conversation.

At the clubs and in political circles the general feeling is expressed that the Boers had made a mistake, as their forcing matters would tend to alienate any sympathy which might have been extended to them, had they thrown the stepma of declaring war on Great Britain.

LONDON, Oct. 9.—The most important news from South Africa comes from Mafeking, where twice on Saturday the British camp was aroused. The men stood to their arms, guns were limbered, and patrols were despatched in the direction of the border. No hostilities have occurred as yet, but the enemy has moved practically to the border, eight miles from Mafeking, in force estimated at least 6,000, comprising five commands.

The garrisoning and fortifying of the town are practically completed. The streets are barricaded, and a perfect system of mines have been laid. Two armoured trains have arrived at Mafeking, consisting of three bullet-proof cars, the first of which carries a search light, while the sides of the cars are loopholed. Experiments with lyddite in the mines prove that it is an extremely powerful explosive.

Col. Robert Stephenson Smith Baden-Powell, commanding the Fifth Dragoon Guards, has issued a notice that the Boers who are massed on the Natal and Bechuanaland frontiers, have orders not to fire until the British forces begin, and that the town is well prepared for eventualities. But as the Boers may shell the place every endeavor should be made to safeguard the women and children.

An armoured train was inspected at Kimberley on Saturday. A signal station has been erected with a conning tower at the top 130 feet above the tracks. Communication by telephone is had with a central office, and signals are given to the troops by flag. By this means manoeuvres were successfully conducted on Saturday. The troops number 3,000 including the bicycle corps. A train was also successfully tested at Mafeking. It patrolled to the north and practised firing at targets.

A despatch from Kimberley to the Cape Town Argus says that 3,000 Boers are encamped between Boshof and Kimberley. They are well armed, and great religious fervor is shown in the camp. The Boers, however, are chafing under the delay. They patrol the border nightly, and have been ordered not to permit a British uniform to approach the frontier.

LONDON, Oct. 10.—Lord Salisbury's whip to the lords, issued last night, says parliament will deal with matters of grave moment.

The latest despatch from Lorenzo Marques relating to the chasing of the steamer Guelph by the cruiser Philomel, caused some stir, especially as it was announced that the Guelph had landed at Durban 414 cases of ammunition for the Boers. There is a pretty general feeling that ammunition ought not to be allowed to be forwarded. The Pall Mall Gazette, referring to the matter says: "There is some hope that the ammunition would be seized at Durban, as Natal possesses a ministry whose loyalty is unquestioned. Had not the Filipinos been given arms by the Americans with which to fight Spain, General Otis would long ago have been enjoying his ease at home. Similarly with the Boers, we may have to pay heavily in blood for the apathy the Cape government has exhibited in this matter."

GREAT EXCITEMENT IN ENGLAND

When the Boer Ultimatum Was Received

THE DESPATCH WAS SENT TO THE PRINCE OF WALES

Which is Only Done on Very Urgent Occasions.

[SPECIAL TO THE EXAMINER.]

LONDON, Oct. 11.—The Boer ultimatum on its arrival, was sent with all speed to Lord Salisbury, who came to town at once and the despatch box was sent to the Prince of Wales, which is only done in cases of special urgency.

Tremendous excitement reigns in London and all over Great Britain.

Every department is as busy as if hostilities had begun. The electric dash which announced the mobilization of the reserves and the assembling of Parliament followed by President Kruger's ultimatum, set every wheel of the Government machinery in motion.

An hour after the gazette appeared executive orders were being despatched from the War Office to every section of the Kingdom and the 19,000 bulletins which appeared as if by magic posted throughout the country are said to be identical with the proclamation prepared for use had the Fashoda incident required such steps.

King's County Conservatives Unanimously Nominated Mr. A. C. McDonald, M. P.

[SPECIAL BY TELEPHONE.]

At the Liberal Conservative Convention held at Dundas today, Mr. A. C. McDonald, M. P., was unanimously nominated as a candidate to oppose the Government's candidate, Mr. Hughes. The attendance was very large.

A Short Story

Last winter we sold a package] of our

Island Condition powder

to a woman for her hens.

Very little made the hens lay—the balance she gave the cow—shortly after the cow got so gay it chased the woman around the yard and would not let her in the house. The woman thinks possibly 2 or 3 packages would keep away tramps. However there's a moral here. The Island Condition Powder is possibly the best on the market. Try it.

As a blood purifier and tonic it has no equal.
