First Codfish of Season At Alberton

Silas Matthews' boat at Alberton South brought in the first codfish of the season on Saturday. This would appear to be a forerunner of an early season for this popular variety of sea food.

A goodly number of articles were contributed for the auction by business men of the town and other friends. The library, Auctioneer Don Campbell was in his usual good form and the auction got away to a good start. Total proceeds for the evening amounted to $65.25.

Hon. Mr. Matheson
Principal Speaker At
Hospital Meeting

Hon. A. W. Matheson, Minister of Health and Welfare for Prince Edward Island, will be the principal speaker at a dinner meeting of the citizens' committee of the Prince County Hospital comple-

More than one hundred and fifty civic leaders representing all districts of Prince County and parts of Queen's are members of this citizens' committee which has endorsed the basic need of adequate plans for completion of the facilities and equipment at Prince County Hospital and the propos-

William Hayward, general chairman of the fund, who will preside, explained that each member of the citizens' committee has been personally enrolled in the last two weeks by members of the central committee and doctors' advisory committee of the fund under the chairmanship respectively of Austin Scales of Freetown, and Dr. J. C. Simpson of Summerside.

The enthusiastic endorsement of this completion program by these community-minded men and women," he declared, "and especially their interest in helping to complete the job needed to round out the county's major hospital and nurse-training centre, augurs well for full success of this acutely needed project."

In addition to Mr. Matheson, other speakers tomorrow night will include: J. F. Arnett, president of the hospital; Donald Baker, chairman of the building committee; Dr. J. C. Simpson, member of the medical staff; Mrs.
Heath Strong, president of the Ladies Aid; E. L. Morris, Kin-korat; Hon. Walter E. Darby, a former president of the hospital; Dr. W. J. P. MacMillan of the Charlottetown Hospital medical staff and Nell D. MacLean, president of the board of trustees of the P. E. I. Hospital, who will extend greetings. Guests will be welcomed by Mayor Henry W.
Wedge.

Fine Program
At Alberton

A very fine program was presented at the Alberton Institute Hall Friday evening when a concert and auction sale were held under auspices of the library committee. Arrangements were in charge of Mrs. A. C. Green, Mrs.
Joseph Callaghan and Mr. H. W.
Matthews. Rev. J. R. McMahon was chairman for the evening and Mr. J. W. Don Campbell, M.L.A., was auctioneer.

School pupils from Alberton and surrounding districts were invited to participate in the program.
Those who took part displayed much potential talent which was very pleasing to the audience who responded with warm applause.
Equally will receive were vocal numbers by a male quartette composed of Messrs. Roy Leard, Perley Hardy, Gordon Coffin and Cyril Leard, and violin music by Mr. Alfred Gillis.
