

Chinese Ambassador Notes Talks With U.S. Minister

WARSAW, Poland (AP)—Red China's ambassador said here it would be a "grave historical blunder" for the United States to underestimate Chinese willingness to support North Vietnam in its conflict with the Americans.

He also sought to dispel any idea of a "U.S.-Chinese reconciliation" which might have been fostered by a Peking statement the day before.

Emerging from another in an 11-year series of ambassadorial talks with the U.S. envoy in this capital, he also said that any attempt to use the 1954 Geneva agreements as a way out of the Viet Nam war "will never succeed."

This was a repetition and a re-emphasis of recent Chinese declarations downgrading the 1954 agreements, which ended the French-Vietnamese war, as the basis for settlement of the present conflict.

Ambassador Wang Kuochun, leaving his meeting with U.S. Ambassador John A. Gronowski, broke an 11-year policy of silence on what goes on at such meetings. He called reporters and issued his long statement, in which he singled out the Soviet Union for a new attack.

The Russian leaders and the U.S., he said, "singing a duet, have spread deceptive propaganda in a vain attempt to create an impression of Chinese-U.S. reconciliation."

Tax Appeal Board Rules In Doctor-Hospital Case

OTTAWA (CP)—For tax purposes, a doctor working for a hospital is not necessarily an employee, says a judgment made public by the Tax Appeal Board.

The judgement rules that Dr. Rene Lefebvre of Montreal is entitled to claim expenses of $720 in 1962 and of $831 in 1963 for medical conventions and memberships in medical associations.

Such costs are a proper claim for a business, and within the meaning of the Income Tax Act, as Dr. Lefebvre operates a business, said board member Maurice Boisvert.

The revenue department allowed expenses of only $105 in 1962 and $120 in 1963 on grounds that as a physician-pathologist practising at the Hotel Dieu Hospital in Montreal, Dr. Lefevre was actually an employee. Although Dr. Lefebvre worked at the hospital and the hospital withheld tax out of his remuneration, the judgment says his income "was not at all in the nature of salary, wages, or any other remuneration."

FEES FORM INCOME

His income was made up of fees which were paid him for services rendered to particular patients, and his services, in view of his specialized practice, were often required by surgeons.

Dr. Lefebvre may have been a hospital employee as a pathologist, but he had not been contradicted in swearing that "he has never wished to be in the employ of the Hotel Dieu Hospital of Montreal, preferring to remain free and to accept whatever patients suited him."

A new procedure in the practice of medicine in Quebec allows a doctor to present to the hospital his accounts for services provided to patients in the hospital. The hospital files claims with the government for the fees.

"This system 'makes of the physician neither a public servant nor an employee of the hospital unless there be a contract of employment for a fixed consideration which is not the case in this appeal,'" said the judgement.

Two Veterans Change Jobs

WASHINGTON (CP)—Two Canadian veterans of an historic Second World War naval action changed jobs here.

Rear Admiral Desmond W. (Debbie) Piers, 53, a Halifaxian, signed out as head of the Canadian military mission here and from the navy after a 35-year career.

Rear Admiral Stuart E. Paddon, born at St. Thomas, Ont., 48 years ago, took over after nine years at Ottawa's defence headquarters.

Piers had been here four years—one beyond normal—in his capacity as contact with the chairman of the U.S. Joint Chiefs, NATO representative and senior military adviser to the Canadian ambassador.

At a brief ceremony Friday attended by all ranks for his 150-mission, he recalled that he and Paddon probably hooked up together for the first time in the 1941 successful pursuit and kill of the German battleship Bismarck.

Piers was commanding the Opening lead—king of diamonds.

This extraordinary hand occurred in the Masters Pair event in San Francisco in 1954. The final contract at nearly all tables was four spades.

The results, however, were far from uniform. West led two high diamonds and continued the suit after East had played high-low. At most tables declarer ruffed with the six and East overruffed with the nine.

Afraid to lead a club away from the king (which would have been fatal), the East players generally returned a spade to dummy's king. Declarer then went down two at these tables, eventually losing two club tricks. Dummy's hearts could not be reached for discards.

Several Souths played the

Rowboat Pair Unreported

LONDON (AP)—Lloyds of London said here they have heard nothing since Aug. 11 from two British newspapermen who are rowing across the Atlantic.

Paddon was aboard the British battleship Prince of Wales which interrupted trial runs to deal the Bismarck's first damage, taking some in return, and setting up the eventual sinking of the German raider.

Paddon subsequently survived the Far East sinking of the Prince of Wales by Japanese bombers.

Piers and his wife Janet, active socially here, left immediately by car for retirement at Chester, N.S.

Two other British oarsmen, Capt. John Ridgway, 27, and Sgt. Shay Blyth, 26, reached Galway, Ireland, last Saturday after rowing across from Orleans, Mass., in 92 days.

The oarsmen—David Johnstone, 34, and John Hoare, 29—left Virginia Beach, Va., May 26 in their 16-foot boat Puffin with St. Ives, Cornwall, as their goal.
