THE VICE-REGAL VISIT

THEIR EXCELLENCIES AT GEORGETOWN.

A Right Royal Welcome Accorded the Distinguished Visitors.

The loyal men and women of Georgetown have made highly creditable preparations for the reception of Lord and Lady Aberdeen. An arch of welcome and lines of flags from all the principal buildings make the town look gay. For a time it seemed that rain would spoil the success of the occasion, but the clouds rolled by. The games are proceeding with all the enthusiasm and energy for which the Scotch are noted. Thousands of spectators are in attendance, and the Governor-General is presiding over all.

The vice-regal train arrived at half-past twelve, half an hour earlier than anticipated. Besides their Excellencies themselves there were on board His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor and Mrs. Howlan, Lieutenant-Colonel Moore, A. D. C., and Mrs. Moore, Mr. Doran, Private Secretary to His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor, David Small, Esq., President of the Caledonian Club, and Archibald McNeill, Esq., Vice-President, F L Haszard, Esq., S. M., Recorder of the City of Charlottetown.

Their Excellencies were given a right royal welcome, and were immediately driven to the Exhibition grounds where the games are being held. Here again they were cheered and welcomed, and the band played "God Save the Queen." Never in its history has Georgetown been so full of visitors.

Hon. A. A. Macdonald, on behalf of the Caledonian Club, then read and presented the following address :—

To His Excellency the Right Honorable Sir John Campbell Hamilton-Gordon, Earl of Aberdeen, Viscount Formantine, Lord Haddo, Methlic, Tarves and Kellie, in the Peerage of Scotland; Viscount Gordon of Aberdeen, County of Aberdeen, in the Peerage of the United Kingdom; Baronet of Nova Scotia, Governor General of Canada :

May it Please Your Excellency :—

The Caledonian Club of Prince Edward Island, composed of natives of Scotland and their descendants, extends to Your Excellency and Lady Aberdeen a cordial and enthusiastic welcome on your visit to this Province.

As sons of Caledonia we have not forgotten the honorable and distinguished part which the noble Chiefs of your illustrious line have borne in the Kingdom of Scotland from the days of Robert the Bruce; nor are we unmindful that in more recent times, in the field and in the forum, as warriors, as statesmen, and as administrators, they have ever been prominent among the eminent men who have controlled the affairs of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

Hence, as loyal Canadians and dutiful subjects, loving the land of our adoption while still fondly cherishing the memory of that of our forefathers, we rejoice that Her Most Gracious Majesty has sent as her representative to this Dominion one of the same historic race, and a statesman who won the hearts of Her Majesty's Irish subjects while occupying the high position of Viceroy in Ireland.

From the warm interest Your Excellency takes in the progress of this Dominion, and from your knowledge of its resources and capabilities, acquired by your extended travels through the larger provinces, as well as by residence there for a considerable period prior to your appointment as Governor General of Canada, we believe we may rest assured that your administration here will be equally successful, and attended with a like happy result.

Her Excellency Lady Aberdeen, by the encouragement she has given to female industries, whereby working women have been made more independent and self-reliant, has won our highest admiration and esteem, and made her name beloved, not only throughout this wide Dominion, but wherever she is known beyond its bounds.

In conclusion, we respectfully invite Your Excellencies to witness some of the athletic sports and games at this gathering of the Caledonian Club.

A. A. Macdonald, Chief.
David Small, President.
John S. Macdonald,
James Paton,
John M. Campbell, Sec'y.

Charlottetown, P. E. I., Aug. 11, 1894.

Hon. Daniel Gordon, on behalf of the citizens of Georgetown, read and presented the following address :—

To His Excellency the Right Honorable Sir John Campbell Hamilton Gordon, Earl of Aberdeen, Viscount Formantine, Lord Haddo, Methlie, Tarves and Kellie, in the Peerage of Scotland; Viscount Gordon of Aberdeen, County of Aberdeen, in the Peerage of the United Kingdom; Baronet of Nova Scotia, Governor-General of Canada.

May it please Your Excellency :—

On behalf of the citizens of Georgetown, and of the people living in the eastern parts of Prince Edward Island, we beg leave to avail ourselves of this the first opportunity afforded us, to tender a most cordial welcome to our Governor-General and to Her Excellency the Countess of Aberdeen.

We also desire to express our devoted loyalty and warm attachment to the person and crown of Her Majesty the Queen, and to offer yourself the tribute of respect and esteem due to her honored representative.

We rejoice that a statesman of such high lineage, and one so distinguished in the political history of Britain, should have been appointed to the vice-regal office, and we entertain the hope that Your Excellency's term of office in the Dominion of Canada will tend to promote the prosperity of the country, and conduce to the welfare and happiness of the people.

At a time when a spirit of unrest and disquietude obtains among the nations, it must be gratifying to Your Excellency to witness the degree of contentment which prevails, and the steady advance being made in every department by the people of this Dominion. Let our aspirations be for a continuance of this state of peace and prosperity within our bounds.

We appreciate the warm interest which Your Excellency takes in agricultural affairs. This province being largely dependent on the products of the farm and the labors of the husbandman, we look for the best results from your active sympathy with, and valued counsel to, the farming community.

In concluding, we request that Your Excellency will be pleased to convey to Lady Aberdeen our highest expressions of esteem and regard.

Her Ladyship's name has been a household word in all Canadian homes, her special efforts to promote the industrial habits of the women of the old country have not been unnoticed, and her words of encouragement to the women of Canada to make their influence felt in all that relates to the moral and social improvement of our people, will not be unheeded nor forgotten.

Again Your Excellency, we bid you welcome, and we trust that your visit to the Province may prove agreeable and leave so favorable an impression that Your Excellency and Lady Aberdeen may be induced at some future day to revisit this, not the least loyal of the Provinces.

Signed at Georgetown, Prince Edward Island, on the 11th day of August, 1894.

D. Gordon,
J. A. Mathieson,
D. A. McKinnon,
Committee.

To both addresses His Excellency responded in eloquent and felicitous terms, and was frequently and warmly applauded.

Up to three o'clock the following events had been decided, being—

Putting Light Stone—D. Stewart, Georgetown, 40 ft. 3 inches; 2nd, D J McDonald, 39 ft. 4½ in.; 3rd, W. A. McDonald, Pamure Island, 38 ft. 6 in.

Running High Leap—1st, D M McDonald Charlottetown, 5 ft.; 2nd, N. Banks, Grand River; 3rd, N. McKay, Head St. Peter's Bay.

Vaulting with Pole—1st, D M McDonald, Charlottetown, 9 feet 1 inch; 2nd and 3rd, equal, A McPherson, Dundas, W A McDonald, Glenaladale.

During the course of the afternoon their Excellencies and party were entertained at luncheon in the Court House, which was beautifully decorated with flowers and plants.

NOTES.

The Blake left this port this morning.

Lord and Lady Aberdeen will attend Divine service in St. James Church to-morrow.

Their Excellencies will return from Georgetown this evening and leave on Monday morning by the steamer Northumberland for pictou.

The saluting detachment at Fort Edward yesterday morning was in charge of Lieutenant F. Parker Carvell, No. 1 Battery.

Everyone "saw the elephant" last night. He didn't have his trunk "checked" either.

At the invitation of the Admiral Mr. L. H. Davies, M. P., left this morning in H. M. S. Blake for Quebec. We regret that Mr. Davies' health is not good, and trust that it may be greatly improved as a result of his trip.

The address from the City, presented at Pownal wharf yesterday forenoon, was signed by His Worship Mayor Dawson, His Honor the Stipendiary Magistrate, the City Clerk and all the members of the City Council.

The arches looked well last evening, illuminated as they were with many electric lights. The arch at the City building was erected by William Harper from a plan made by Mr. H. Lowe. The decorating was done by Mr. William C. Whitlock.

The Charlottetown Engineers are requested to meet at the Drill Shed on Monday morning at 6 o'clock, to take part in the Guard of Honor for the Governor-General.

The Artillery Band will play at Mr Hamlyn's lecture Monday evening.

To-night the Lindley Co. appears in the fashionable society play entitled "Divorce."

Philharmonic Hall.—Mr. Hamlyn's lecture on the "Starry Heavens" will be the attraction for Monday evening. Fifteen minutes will be allowed at the close for questions or remarks.

The Fastnet.—The steamer Fastnet arrived here this morning at 9 o'clock with a general cargo and three passengers. She left for Summerside and Halifax at 3 p. m. to-day.

Gospel Meeting.—Remember the Gospel Meeting in the Athenæum on Sunday afternoon, at 4 o'clock, conducted by the Railway men. Strangers always welcome. Lesson, Psalm 1, 1—"Blessed is the man that walketh not in the counsel of the ungodly."

Something Wrong With the Vigilant.

London, Aug. 11.

Pall Mall Gazette suggests that Vigilant is guilty of irregularities under yacht racing Association's rules by not fitting out her interior. The Pall Mall Gazette says she has avoided being rated with tons of weight which should be hers. The Cowes match arranged between the Brittania and Vigilant for Monday is off. Gould wished to have the conditions regulated so that the yachts might have run out from the Needles and beat back. The Prince of Wales declined to take part in such a match. The Brittania sailed over the course yesterday and took the prize. The Vigilant did not start.

PERSONAL.

Miss MacCallum, head milliner at Jas. Paton & Co's., left this morning to visit the fashionable millinery houses in New York and Boston. Miss MacCallum will be absent about five weeks. On her return her many customers can rely on getting the most fashionable millinery for fall and winter attainable.

A Bold Pickpocket.—At Pownal wharf, whilst waiting the landing of the Governor-General, yesterday morning, the pockets of High Sheriff Horne were quietly rifled of a pair of kid gloves by some bold thief. There is no clue to the robber, but the Sheriff has placed the matter in the hands of Marshal Cameron, who in turn has instructed his men to lose no time in finding the culprit, for fear he may next try his fine work on some of the police force.

Mr. Cloud Hill, photographer, Queen St, photographed the SS. Orinoco and visitors previous to its departure yesterday, by order of Mr. E. Stokes the gentleman in charge of the tourists; also this morning received an order to photograph the engine and car that was to convey their excellencies the Earl and Countess of Aberdeen to Georgetown. Specimens will be on view in a few days.
