LET'S EAT

Rosemary Spinach Loaf Perfect Luncheon Dish

By IDA BAILEY ALLEN
"Regardez, Madame," the Chef whispered, "the diners near us in this restaurant. What vegetable do you see they are enjoying most?"

"Evidently the fresh spinach loaf with lemon cheese sauce featured on the menu, Chef." I replied. "It's a specialty of this restaurant. Let's taste-test."

One whiff of the aromatic sliced spinach loaf and we discovered the reason for its popularity—the rosemary seasoning. "And the cheese sauce served with it is most refreshing," commented the Chef. "It is spiked with a little fresh lemon juice, which brings out a new high in the flavor of a cheese sauce."

"This loaf and sauce combination would be a perfect main dish for luncheon or in an otherwise light dinner."

Rosemary Spinach Loaf: Wash 2 lbs. fresh spinach. Cook, without adding water, in a covered saucepan about 7 min. or until tender.

Drain. Save the liquid to use in making a sauce.

Chop the spinach medium-fine. Mix in ¼ c. soft enriched bread crumbs.

Saute 2 tbsp. minced onion in 3 tbsp. butter or margarine. Gradually blend in 1-3 c. enriched flour.

Measure the spinach liquid. Add enough milk to make 1½ c. Blend into butter-flour mixture.

Stir-cook until boiling and thick. Add to the spinach.

Stir in 2 beaten egg yolks, 1 tsp. each salt and sugar, ½ tsp. crumbled whole rosemary leaves and ¼ tsp. ground black pepper.

Beat the remaining 2 egg whites until stiff and fold in.

Turn into an oiled 9"x5"x3" loaf pan. Set in a pan of hot water. Bake 1 hr. in a moderate oven, 375 degrees F., or until firm enough to unmold.

Let stand 10 min. Then unmold on a serving platter.

Garnish with hard-cooked eggs and lemon slices. Serve plain or with the Chef's lemon cheese sauce given below.

MONDAY DINNER
Citrus Fruit Cup
Casserole of Omdments of Capon with Potatoes
Rosemary Spinach Loaf
Radish-Celery-Lettuce Salad
Old-Fashioned Strawberry Shortcake

Coffee Tea Milk
All measurements are level; recipes proportioned to serve 4-6.

Old-Fashioned Strawberry Shortcake: Real strawberry shortcake as traditionally made in New England is served warm.

It has a baking powder biscuit dough base made into good-sized, rather thin biscuits. Sometimes it is baked in a single layer in an 8" square or round pan.

The biscuits or layer are split, spread while hot with butter or margarine and put together when served with warm, juicy, sliced, sweetened strawberries.

The top layer should be placed upside down to hold the strawberries, otherwise they tend to slide off.

Accompany with light cream, whipped cream, or any whipped topping.

LEMON CHEESE SAUCE
Melt 1½ tbsp. butter or margarine. Blend in 2 tbsp. flour.

MORNING SMILE

A Paris hotel requires that after midnight all guests give their name to the doorkeeper. One night a Spanish nobleman entered and announced proudly: "Señor de Gonzales le Varaque de Miraflore de Martinez de..."

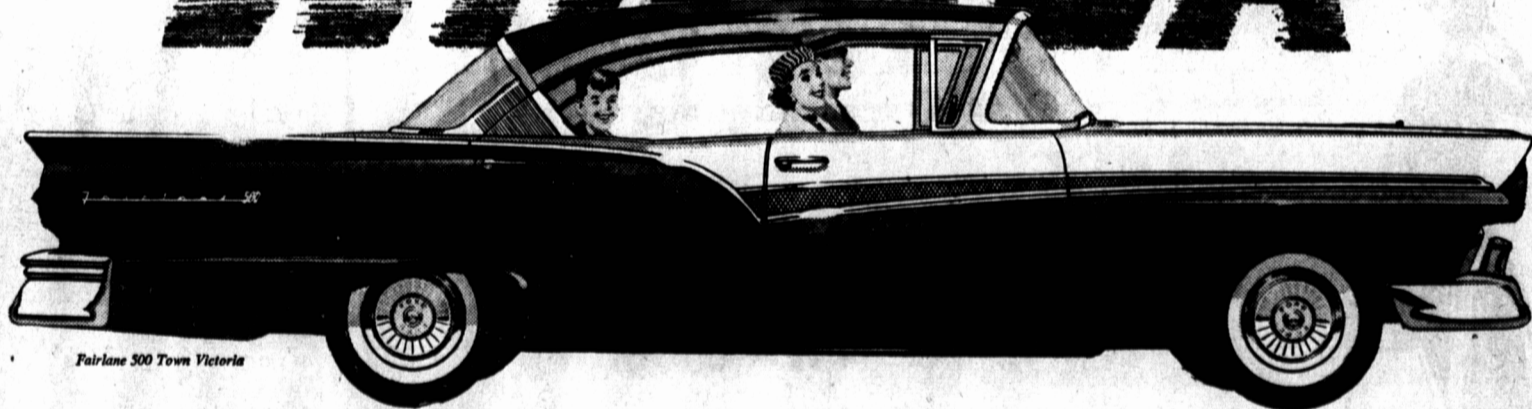

"Right," said the doorman: "let the last one in close the door."

Drive FORD - you'll drive a

WINNER

It's North America's fastest seller!

Right from the start, Ford has set the 1957 sales pace. Since the new cars were first introduced Ford has consistently outsold every other car in North America. Sales figures quoted in leading automotive newspapers and journals give conclusive evidence of Ford's leadership.

No wonder the new kind of Ford is setting new records. Ford leads in styling—the kind of styling that's designed to last, because its long, low, "sculptured look" expresses elegance and good taste. Even standing still, the new kind of Ford looks as though it's going places in a hurry. And while we're talking about GO, we'd like to remind you that Ford set 458 speed and endurance records at Bonneville Flats—a classic demonstration, unequalled in automotive history. Indeed, Ford leads in the kind of performance (SIX or V-8) that takes nothin' from nobody and the kind of ride (Even-Keel Ride) that makes every road feel airstrip smooth!

You owe it to yourself to take ten exciting minutes to experience the sheer fun of driving the car that's new all the way through... the car that's the undisputed leader in style—in performance—in motorists' preference... the things Canadian motorists want most... the winner... the new kind of Ford.

Come in, drive a winner...
