March 16, 1882—ood

Irish National Land League.

The Charlottetown Land League met last evening, at eight o'clock, in St.
Patrick's Hall. M. P. Hogan, Esq., in the chair. After the disposal of the routine business of the meeting, the President stated that since our last meeting the sum of $125 had been remitted to the Central organization of the I. N. L. L., making a total remittance since our formation, six months ago, of $325.

The Treasurer reported the receipt of the following sums: From the Fort Augustus Branch of the Land League $23.75; from the Mill Cove Branch, $16.41; and from John A. MacDonnell, Esq., the sum of $5.00. The above acknowledgments were received with much applause.

The Treasurer submitted his report for the past six months. The Auditing Committee stated they had examined the books of the several officers, and found them correct. Their report was, on motion, adopted.

The following resolution was moved and seconded by Messrs. James J. Hughes and P. C. Kelly, and carried unanimously:—

Whereas, The crime of assassination is, in itself, always atrocious and abhorrent in the sight of christianity; and whereas that crime so lately committed in Dublin is, under the surrounding and existing circumstances, the more to be deplored, inasmuch as the consequences are calculated to entail additional misery on the long-suffering people of unlucky Ireland, and at a period when the hearts of her friends were being elated with hopes of an early termination of her political difficulties;

Resolved, That the Charlottetown Branch of the Irish National Land League hereby expresses its strongest detestation of the murder of Lord Cavendish and of Mr. Burke, and that it most earnestly expresses the hope that the perpetrators of the finch act will be speedily overtaken by retributive justice; and Resolved Further, That while we abhor the dead, we feel justified in expressing the belief that the Irish Land League will prove itself guiltless of complicity therewith, and that the disgrace attached to the offence will not sully a people whose patience, under gross persecution, had already been so long-tried and praiseworthy.

Mr. James W. Mullally introduced the following resolution, which was unanimously agreed to:—

Whereas, The series of Resolutions have been lately passed in the Dominion Legislature —impressing on the Imperial Government the desirability of settling the Irish Land Question amicably by the creation of a peasant proprietary, and other measures tending to permanency of tenure and general improvement in the administration of local affairs in Ireland;

Resolved, That—as one of the organizations in Canada, laboring towards the establishment of means conducive to the amelioration of the condition of the Irish people—we hereby declare to John Costigan, Esq., M. P., our most grateful thanks for the earnest and effective manner in which he introduced said Resolutions, and that our further thanks are due, and are hereby most cordially tendered to the other gentlemen of the Commons and Senate of Canada who, by their advocacy aided in the successful passage of the Resolutions.

The half-yearly election of officers was proceeded with, resulting as follows:—

President—M. P. Hogan.
First Vice-President—John Kelly.
Second Vice-President—Michael Hickey.
Recording Secretary—Richard Walsh.
Financial Secretary—James W. Mullally.

Corresponding Secretary—James J.
Hughes.
Treasurer—P. C. Kelly.
Executive Committee—F. P. McCarron, John Hygan, James A. McMahon, James Egan, and P. H. Trainor.

The following resolution was moved by Mr. P. D. Cox, seconded by Mr. James W.
Mullally, and unanimously adopted:—

Resolved, That the best thanks of this League be tendered to THE EXAMINER and Patriot newspapers for their readiness in kindly publishing, at all times, the reports of our proceedings.

It was agreed that the future meetings of this Branch be held fortnightly instead of weekly, as heretofore.

Meeting adjourned.

RICHARD WALSH,
Secretary.

Sale of Jersey Cattle.

The third annual combination sale of Jersey cattle began yesterday at the American Institute Building. The cattle were selected from the herds of well-known breeders of New York, New Jersey and the New England States, and the sale attracted a large number of buyers. Sixty-three cattle that were sold brought $20,- 000. Nancy Lee, 2d, a twenty months old heifer, bred and owned by S. M. Burnham, of Saugatuck, Conn., after a spirited contest was knocked down to F. T. Walton, who bid $1,550 for her, the highest price that was obtained at the sale. Mr. Walton also bought Susie Price, $410, and My Queen, $440; from J. V. N. Willis, of Marlboro, N. J.; Frolic, $575, from S. M.
Burnham; Bertha Dove, $610, from John D. Wing, Dutchess County; and Trudeauux, $540, from W. R. McCready, of Saugatuck.

Mahale, a gray cow with small curving horns, owned by John D. Wing, was bought by S. W. Shoemaker, of Baltimore, for $865. Cretesia 2nd, a heifer calf three weeks old, brought $365. The following were some of the best prices obtained for the rest of the cattle: Fidels, $775, bought by John Q. Holly, of Plainfield, New Jersey; Alarm, of Home Farm, $710, by William Whiting, of Holyoke, Mass.; Frederica, $728, by H. W. Parker, Boston.
The lowest price paid was $40 for Young Duchess, a matronly-looking cow. The sale will be concluded to-day.—N. Y. Tribune.

Mr. Alexander Laird's Charges.

To the Editor of the Examiner.

SIR,—The Poll Books for the Third District shows very plainly how much harm the blackguardism of Henry Lawson or the falsehoods of the Lairds can do me where I am known. The frothy, sledgehammer speeches of Mr. Alexander Laird, abounding in foul abuse of absent men, and backed by the most fulsome laudations of his henchman Henry Lawson, has failed to convince the electors of Bequete that Laird is a fit man to represent them in the House of Assembly. I might have allowed Laird's charges against me to rest here. The people of the District in which I reside have shown by their votes that they do not believe him, and the people of Bequete declare most unequivocally that he is not to be trusted.

But knowing that I have nothing to lose by discussion, I have demanded that Mr.
A. Laird should make his charge against me in a specific form. For making this demand Henry Lawson treats me with a valley of his choicest abuse. I am not going to be deterred from my course by Henry Lawson's blackguardism, nor to allow Alexander Laird to retreat under the cover of a family affliction. That affliction dates behind Saturday last, and it did not prevent him from attending meetings and making his charges against me in the most aggravated manner, and in my absence. I now demand once more that he shall state who is the disappointed Conservative to whom I made the "reduction of thirteen dollars," and who is the opponent that I made to pay "more than the uttermost cent."

I have in my hands a copy of the return asked for by Mr. Laird, and I defy him to prove his assertion from it, or in any other way. If Alexander Laird has not the papers under his hand, they will be promptly furnished him on application to the Land Office.

My statement that it was shortly after the dissolution of the House that my attention was called to Mr. Laird's charge is strictly true. My assistant, Mr. Strong, was the first to inform me of what Mr. Laird had said, and that was after the dissolution. I did not see any report of Mr. Laird's speech until I met it in the Patriot extra, containing Mr. F. W. Hyndman's letter. That letter was a reply to the speech of the Leader of the Government, made in the Market Hall, on the 26th of April.

Although Henry Lawson fills his paper with abuse of me, where I have been denied an opportunity of defence, he did not show himself at any meeting in the Third District. It is not hard to guess the reason.

I am, yours, etc.,
D. FRASERSON.

A Revolution in Book-Keeping.

The whole system of posting and balancing books in a "nut-shell." T. A.
Lyle, an expert accountant, has invented a curious and useful chart, entitled "The Book Keepers' Companion," which simplifies and shows at a glance the whole system of keeping any set of books, and tells in an instant where each account belongs. No merchant, store-keeper, book keeper or student should be without this remarkable work. It prevents mistakes, it saves time, and will prove a perfect boon to all those who are adept in the art of book-keeping.

culars, &c., address J. G. Beideman, 2028

Considerable excitement was occasioned a few days ago, among the coal miners forming the Provincial Workmen's Association, in consequence of the arrival of a batch of Scotch miners to take the place of a number of strikers at Lingan, C. B.
The strike occurred some time ago, at one of the mines of the General Mining Association, a wealthy English company. It was not in relation to wages, but arose out of difficulties between the manager and miners. Some men have been dismissed; their comrades sympathized with them and refused to work unless the others were taken back. They also demanded that several non-union men be dismissed, but this demand was subsequently withdrawn. The strike continued on the other ground, neither the manager nor the men being inclined to yield. The manager employed a batch of workmen in Scotland and brought them out. They arrived at Halifax last week, and were transhipped for Sydney.
Meanwhile the miners' union got wind of the move, and when the Scotchmen arrived at Sydney they were met by the strikers, who persuaded them to join the union, and they refused to go to work.

When a man has to neglect his work because of rheumatism, and fails to apply the Great German Remedy, we have very little patience with him; unless of course mitigating circumstances should present themselves. For years David Ainsworth suffered with rheumatism, and notwithstanding the best medical attendance, could not find relief. He came to the Scioto County Poorhouse, and had to be carried into and out of bed on account of his helpless condition. After the failure of all the remedies which had been applied, the directors of the Poorhouse resolved to use the Great German Remedy, St. Jacobs Oil, and this was a fortunate resolution; for with the trial of one bottle the patient was already better, and when four bottles had been used upon him he could again walk about without the use of a cane. The facts, as above stated, will be verified by the editor of the Portsmouth (O.) Cor.
