God's Call to Do.

"Thy will be done" means more than "Thy will be borne." No matter what sorrow invades your life, we are still to do God's will. We may see afterwards that the sorrow rightly accepted fitted us to do some new duty, or to do our old duty more effectively. "Speak, Lord, for thy servant heareth," is a right cry for the hour of bewildering grief. Lord what wilt thou have me to learn and to do? It is how we learn the new lesson, not how we like it, that is of the highest importance. It is not the loss of a tool that should chiefly concern us, but the more faithful and fruitful use of the tools that are left. Instead of a resignation that passionately or passively, definitely or despairingly, lets go the prized possession, let there be the heroism of renunciation, which says: Now that I know Thy will I lay this down of myself, to live a better life without it than I could have lived with it." Let there be a better doing of God's will, and there will be a braver bearing of God's will.—Canadian Churchman.

Can We Learn the Lesson?

How much we all need to learn the lesson of self-control. Of course when everything is calm and sweet about us, moving exactly as we would wish, it requires neither art, nor is it very worthy of praise, that we possess our souls in patience, and are calm and sweet, too. But that soul which can be calm amidst the rising tempests of opposition, which can be still when the thousand vexations of daily life continually cross it, which can smother down into the deepest depths the rising anger and bid it disappear forever, has learned a lesson which many do not learn in a whole long life time. To the quickly-angered and violent-passioned people such self-control is almost beyond their comprehension, but while they wonder, the lesson is not always lost upon them, and may be an example and an inspiration in years that are to come.—Exchange.

A lady who knows what it is to possess the soul in patience under great trials relates this incident in her early life: "One day, when I was a very little girl, I was watching my mother making strawberry preserves. I can see the great kettle of boiling liquid now, clear as rubies. Beside the stove stood a large milk-pan containing some squash for 'company' pies with plenty of milk and eggs in it. 'Now Bridget,' said my mother, at last in a satisfied tone, it is done; take the kettle off.' This was accomplished, and then, with almost incredible stupidity, the 'help' actually emptied the strawberries into the squash! Mother turned her head just too late. She was quick and impulsive, but there escaped from her mouth only a despairing "Oh Bridget!" Then, as she saw the girl's instantly regretful face, she uttered no useless lamentations. No doubt, when my tired mother, who was not strong—I lost her at fifteen—when upstairs to rest she felt disheartened and thought that her preserves and squash, her time and labor, had all been wasted but probably she never did for me a more valuable morning's work than when

MR. SHARAM'S CASE.

His Terrible Struggle With Kidney Disease.

Was Thought to be Hopeless till he began to use Dodd's Kidney Pills—Then he began to Improve Immediately and Steadily Grew Better.

Murray Harbor South, P. E. I., Feb. 24.—There is no more robust, healthy man in this part of the province to-day, than is Mr. William Sharam, the popular general merchant, who does a rushing business at this place. Yet, a few months ago, he was one of the greatest sufferers from Kidney Disease. Day and night, from week to month, from month to year his suffering continued, and grew greater, in spite of medicines, till he began to use Dodd's Kidney Pills.

From the day the sufferer commenced the use of the preparation, he began to mend. Now he doesn't know what Kidney Disease means, except from memory.

Telling his own story, Mr. Sharam says: "Three years ago I hurt my back by lifting heavy weights. That was the beginning of Urinary and Kidney Disease. I at last got so weak that I would faint after the least physical effort.

"Dodd's Kidney Pills—ten boxes of them cured me. I have used other medicines but they didn't give relief even. Dodd's Kidney Pills gave me health, made me sleep soundly, eat heartily, and gave me back my strength and vigor."

Dodd's Kidney Pills are the greatest specific for the cure of Kidney Disease, Bright's Disease, Diabetes, Gout, Rheumatism, Lumbago, Sciatica, Neuralgia, Urinary Diseases, Bladder Complaints, Female Troubles, Heart Disease and Paralysis.

Dodd's Kidney Pills are sold by all druggists, at fifty cents a box, $2.50 for six boxes, or sent, on receipt of price, by The Dodd's Medicine Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

REV. J. N. VANATTER, OF ALBION, WIS., WRITES A LETTER ON DR. CHASE'S OINTMENT.

Sufferers are at Liberty to Correspond with the Above Address and will Obtain Full Particulars Regarding the Great Cure.

HERE IS WHAT HE SAYS:

Gentlemen,—My wife was most terribly afflicted with protruding piles, and contemplated a surgical operation. A friend of ours recommended the use of Dr. Chase's Ointment, and less than one box effected a complete cure. We were so pleased with the ointment that I tried it myself, as I have been troubled with an unsightly skin affliction which covered the lower part of my face.

For 25 years I suffered untold agony, and was treated by the best medical skill in the United States. I consider Dr. Chase's Ointment worth its weight in gold for piles and skin disease.
