IN MEMORIAM

MR. WILFRED MCNALLY

Friends at home and abroad were saddened indeed to learn of the death of the City Hospital on August 15, of Mr. Wilfred McNally, well known C. N. R. employee of Charlottetown.

Mr. McNally was the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Thomas McNally, both of Tracadie, N. S. R. for over twenty years at Borden, Summerside and Charlottetown.

Mr. McNally was enjoying his holidays in the latter part of July and early August when he was stricken with paralysis. This together with an attack of pneumonia, caused his death after an illness of two weeks.

The remains rested at the A. A. Hennessy Funeral Parlors until Friday morning. The large cortege which followed the remains to St. Bonaventure's Church, Tracadie, as well as numerous mass cards, messages of sympathy, and beautiful flowers, spoke silently yet eloquently of one dearly loved and remembered by a host of friends.

He leaves to mourn his wife (nee Josephine DesRoches of Miscouche), one daughter Claire aged 13 years and one son Ian aged 9 years as well as two brothers, Joe at home and Pat in Somerville, Mass. and four sisters, Lena, Mrs. James Smith of Fort Augustus; Gertrude, Mrs. Henry McGillivray and Jennie of Somerville, Mass. and Katie at home.

The casket was draped with the Union Jack at the Funeral Parlors and during church service. Legion members were in attendance and laid a wreath of poppies on the grave, while a bugler sounded the Last Post.

The pallbearers were: Messrs. Frank McNally, John Fitzpatrick, James Smith, Martin DesRoches, Hilary DesRoches, L. O. Kelly.

Island Odds And Ends

Bill DeCoste of Charlottetown, wounded three times in Italy, has joined the Princess Patricia's for service in Korea. The "Pats" are paratroopers now. Bill is — as can be guessed — a son of the efficient supervisor of the Registration branch of Charlottetown Post Office, Bill DeCoste Sr. Bill Sr. is a veteran of the First World War and at the present time, as well as being a popular public official, a very adept trout fisherman with fly or the humble but efficient barn yard hackle.

Bill Jr. apparently has what it takes to make a soldier. Anybody who has stopped flying steel three times and goes back for more deserves a cheer.

Perhaps the first Islander to land in Korea with the Army will be "Scotty" MacKay son of William MacKay, Greater public official, an American unit after crossing the border a few years ago and last reports have him as headed for the Eastern battlefield. Unless some Island — and this is quite possible — is serving with the U.S. marines or other Yank outfits already in Korea, Scotty will be the first Islander fighting the Communists.

Mr. Larry Trainor, Inspector of Weights and Measures for the Province for the past thirty years, is retiring from that post in the near future. Mr. Trainor has been troubled with an old ailment incurred during the First World War, and although he has recovered from a most recent attack, he thought it advisable to go on the retirement list. For thirty years he has travelled to all parts of the Province, carrying out his duties as Inspector and making many friends. He was efficient and fair as an official of the Government, and his genial good nature earned him a welcome everywhere he went.

A lover of horse racing, hockey and all other sports, he will probably spend more time at these events than he has been able to do in the past. "Old soldiers never die."

The Colt Futurities will take the spotlight at the Exhibition grounds next month, and Bill Gillespie to whose hard work the breeders of Island colts owe much, has had much to do with the organization of the meet.

Every horse lover likes to see records go by the board whether the horse is foreign bred or raised on the Island, but there is extra satisfaction to the owner who raises and trains his own winner.

Nothing can give more complete satisfaction than to raise a colt, educate him for the track, and then see him hold his own against the best imported stock. The colt 33 knots.

Tenants of the block on which the new Federal Building is to be erected have now been told, that it will not be necessary for them to move until December 31st of this year. Since it is quite likely that the time will be further extended on that date, there is no possibility of a start being made on the building until the summer of 1951.

The "whims" of women-buyers are only a small part of the trouble; and apparently not much of the fault lies with the shopkeeper himself. It goes further back. It is, in major degree, a matter of size labels which don't mean what they say. A half-dozen size in dresses, for instance, may in fact be six different sizes.

So the women who orders by size, as is the case certainly in mail orders, often gets something that doesn't fit and she sends it back. Several things are being done to solve the problem. Canadian knit-goods manufacturers have worked for a year on standardization of sizes of undergarments—men, women and children—and this fall, for the first time, you may order an undergarment by size with confidence, once you know your proper size.

It may be said, that practically any seat in the Forum is a very good point from which to view a game. Some people prefer centre of the Forum seats; others will fancy a position somewhere near the Blue Line, but the seats at either end of the Forum are just about as good as any in the house.

The Executive of the Club are having organizational difficulties and the incidental financial worries. They know, however, that people who are not blowing very hot now, will be clamouring approval of the Big Team later on. They have faith that Islanders want good hockey, and will support it, and building on that faith, they are going forward aggressively.

At the same time, it would be appreciated if the people who talk in support of the idea, would translate this support into action, and buy seats on the plan devised by the Club management. The scheme could stand a shot in its financial arm from every well wisher; for some years. Restored to good health as he now is, he will not disappear from the every day life of the city.

People from outside points if they write, telephone or call the Rogers Agency, Queen Street, Charlottetown, will have their wants attended to without delay. There are plenty of tickets available, now but there is no saying how long this situation will continue.

Business Spotlight

By Forbes Rhude Canadian Press Business Editor

People take back a lot of the things that they buy in stores, and this is a headache to the storekeeper.

With The Kids On The Playgrounds

The economy of Canada is being threatened seriously and the railways strike holds precedence over all else. Apart from this, however, there is another financial crisis which is affecting directly the youngsters from the playgrounds.

"Chocolate bars are again selling at 7c's. It isn't the bother of counting change which troubles the kids; it's the problem of asking Mom or Dad for the extra 2c's. And to top it all the bars seem to be, and quite likely are, growing smaller and smaller."

On the other hand the 7c's might be an asset in one way, when you consider that parents might say as the paper boys usually say "no change" and do as you usually have to do with the boys in question "Flip them a dime."

Your writer has been frequently reminded last week and this, that if you haven't experienced the thrill of riding on the ponies out at the fair, or sailing around on the boats then you haven't lived as yet. It seems there is another exhibition grounds this week and by what we are told about others of their kind, if you have ridden one you are lucky to be alive.

The moral of this little story is that you better make sure kids just what kind of ears these animals have before you mount them in case you have any notion of repeating last week's thrills.

Hollywood has its movie producers. So has Charlottetown. On Tuesday night of this week over 300 children and adults gathered on King Square to witness three enjoyable films which were shown by Messrs Forbes Kennedy and Hamm MacCannell.
