—There passed away at the home of Mrs. Gertrude Brown, Stanley Bridge, Mrs. Davina A. Desrosiers, wife of Mr. Archibald Brand of Lexington, Mass., on Tuesday morning, August 23, after a few hours illness.

The deceased was born in Dumblang, Scotland in 1890 and came to the United States in 1923. She was a registered nurse. She, with her husband, spent the past four summers at Stanley Bridge and had a cottage erected on the property of Mrs. Gertrude Brown.

MacKenzie-MacCaull Wedding

—Standards of gladioli, hollyhocks, phlox and potted plants formed the setting for the marriage of Dorothy Irene, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Guy MacCaull, North Bedeque, to John Gordon, son of Mr. and Mrs. John W. MacKenzie, Rose Valley, in the North Bedeque United Church on Saturday, August 8 at 6:30 o'clock.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. K. Campbell. Mrs. Ralph B. MacCaull was in charge of the wedding music and accompanied Mrs. Leigh Warren, cousin of the bride, as she rendered very beautifully, "When Song Is Sweet" prior to the ceremony, and "I'll Walk Beside You" during the signing of the register.

The bride entered the church on the arm of her uncle, Mr. Edwin Lord, by whom she was given in marriage. Her attendants were her sister, Miss Marion MacCaull, as maid of honor and Miss Margaret MacCaull and Miss Beulah Jardine as bridesmaids.

Miss Arlene Docherty, niece of the groom was the flower girl. Mr. Harry Robbins acted as best man, and Messrs. Lorne MacCaull, cousin of the bride, and Lorne Docherty, brother-in-law of the groom were the ushers.

The bride was lovely in her floor-length gown of white net over satin with full skirt. The bodice was topped with a lace jacket featuring lily point sleeves and Peter Pan collar trimmed with seed pearls. Her finger-tip veil of embroidered net was arranged from a tiara encrusted with seed pearls and she carried a cascade bouquet of red roses. Her only ornaments were pearl earrings, a gift of the groom.

The maid of honor wore a floor-length gown of orchid nylon net over taffeta. Her headdress was a bandeau of yellow flowers and she carried a bouquet of yellow baby mums.

The bridesmaids wore similar gowns of sky blue and shell pink net over taffeta with matching headdress and mitts, and carried bouquets of pink gladioli and yellow baby mums.

The winsome flower girl wore a floor-length gown of yellow organza with matching bandeau of flowers and carried a basket of "Dorothy Perkins" roses.

The bride's mother chose for her daughter's wedding a dress of coral crepe with white accessories and a corsage of white carnations.

The groom's mother was attired in a dress of rose crepe with navy accessories and a corsage of white carnations.

White ribbon and sweet peas marked the guest pews.

Following the ceremony a reception for 50 guests was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Lord, Central Bedeque.
