Supreme Court.

On Tuesday last the Supreme Court was opened at St. Eleanor's, Judge Peters presiding. The following were the gentlemen composing the Grand Jury:—

Wm. G. Strong, Foreman; John Cairns, James Hall, Donald McMillan, Hugh Massey, Benjamin S. Mills, Harry C. Green, John L. Muttart, John Lord, Archd. McMurdo, Arma Hooper, John Gillis, Alexander Hooper, Finlay McNeill, Richard Dawson, James Reid, Stephen McNeill, Thomas Hockins, Jesse Wright, Archd. Ramsay, James Wright, Thomas Sims, Peter McNutt.

We will endeavor next week to give a list of all the cases and how they terminate.

At a meeting of the Fire Engine Co., held in Strong's Hall, on Tuesday evening, it was voted that the funds in the hands of the Co. be appropriated for uniform caps. It having appeared that some of the men were dissatisfied at serving without pay, the meeting on motion divided, when it appeared that only six members desired to withdraw at the end of their term. We are glad to see the interest manifested by the members to keep up their organization, which would be a credit to the town. An effort to get up a complete uniform for the company should be made, and we feel that our citizens would heartily second such a move.—Pro.

We are compelled this week to omit the advertisement of the Canadian Dominion Directory, and also a number of other advertisements.

We received the other day one of the New England Self-Acting Hand Looms. It is certainly a neat piece of machinery. We expect the owner to arrive here in a few days, and then those who wish to see it in operation will have an opportunity of doing so. In the meantime it can be seen at the JOURNAL Office.
