THE DAILY EXAMINER.

MARCH 4, 1892.

Montcalm.

No oppositionist dared to apply for election in this County. Two Conservative candidates contested the election of yesterday. Mr. Dugas, the former member, has been re-elected.

Bad Debts.

ONE of the greatest drawbacks to business is the number of bad debts that are incurred. These have, of course, to be made up in part by the higher prices charged those who pay, and in part by the loss of legitimate profits. It is pleasing to note that some of our business men are forming a protective union—a combine—against those who do not pay their debts. This movement will have the sympathy and support of all honest men. If all were forced to pay their debts, the people who buy and the men of business who sell would alike be in an improved position.

In a Tight Place.

THE Opposition is divided against itself. Reports from Ottawa state that the Quebec Liberal members are "unanimous in declaring that their party will carry the coming provincial elections by a large majority." They also declare that at the first caucus of the Liberal party they will "demand of the Ontario Liberals a complete repudiation of the utterances of the Toronto Globe towards the French-Canadians and Quebec province, otherwise they will take steps to place their protestations formally on record." According to this report, the Quebec Liberals are standing by Mercier, and have determined that the Ontario Liberals shall not repudiate him. The only credit the Globe has won for many years past has been drawn from the fact of its denunciation of Mercier; and if the Liberal members of Parliament for Ontario should repudiate the Globe's denunciation, they will deservedly forfeit the respect and confidence of their constituents. They are in a tight place. Altogether it's a pretty quarrel.

Hedges and Ditches.

THE fact that one of our clergymen has had his arm broken by reason of one of the pitches in the roads, is a striking commentary upon the inefficiency of the road service under our Grit Government. People who will have such a Government, deserve to have bad roads to travel on. But it is [illegible] would rather not, are condemned to the same punishment. A few actions at law on the part of those who are maimed while on the bad roads, would probably bring the majority who support the Government to their senses.

The Liberal Leadership.

THERE has lately been a great deal of talk about a change in the leadership of the Opposition party. This may have proceeded from the fact that changes in the Liberal leadership have taken place in recent years as a result of the defeat of the Liberal party. Thus, Mr. McKenzie was thrown overboard after the defeat of 1878, and Mr. Blake had to resign when he failed to win for the faithful the office and power which they covered. Both these men are, admittedly, honest and able. Though their ability does not, in the opinion of Liberal-Conservatives, lie in the direction of politics, there was, from the Liberal point of view, no reason why they should have been discarded, except the reason that of they failed to win success in the elections So, now that the Liberals are again defeated, it is but reasonable for men to conclude that Mr. Laurier, too, must walk the plank. Advices from Ottawa report that Mr. Laurier is much disturbed—in fact, quite ill—about the matter. One of the reports states that he has resigned. Another says that he has not resigned. In any case, Mr. Laurier is, undoubtedly, ill at ease; and it seems not unlikely that the positive assertions that the has resigned or is about to resign are true enough.

What, then, will the Liberals do about it? Sir Richard Cartwright is an impossibility—though he is, undoubtedly, the head and front of the combination. Mills, Charlton, Patterson and more of their ilk [illegible] never do. Some of the papers, in [illegible] Bella have suggested that it must be either [illegible]ers of Prince Edward Island, or Fraser [illegible] New Glasgow. The Liberals are in [illegible] great strait. Like the fox in the fable, they have tried almost a hundred different tricks and have not succeeded in one. The principal difficulty about Mr Davies is that he lives out of the way and that he is not likely to take charge of the ship while a Jonah in the person of Sir Richard Cartwright remains on board the Opposition ship. The people of this Province, of all classes, would like to see a native Islander leader of one of the great political parties of Canada. But they would not care to see even Mr. Davies at the head of the attenuated aggiomeration of entities which is now seen at the left of Mr. Speaker in Ottawa. But perhaps the grits will elect to hold by Mr. Laurier, although he is in such close alliance with Mercier, and though so many of his followers in Quebec owe their seats to the stolen boodle money!

Talk to Young Men.

THE audience assembled to hear the Master of the Rolls in the snug lecture room of the Y. M C. A., last evening was comprehensive and representative of all sorts and conditions of our people from the, boy just entering his teens to Dr. Leeming. His Honor the Stipendiary Magistrate occupied the chair. The discourse was more more like a pleasant, lively, informal chat than a formal lecture. The auditors were kept in such high good humor that the hour and a half passed quickly by. Lessons in respect to the finances of Great Britain, the political constitutions of England, Canada and the United States, mechanics and natural science were freely and easily imparted by the lecturer. At the close, one of the younger listeners was heard to express a hope that the Master of the Rolls would lecture every week.

Board of Health Regulations.

At a meeting of the Board of Health for Lots 30 and 65, held at Bonshaw on March 2nd, 1892, the following rules and regulations were adopted:—

Rule 1.—Any householder in whose house in Lots 30 or 65, there shall occur a case of smallpox, cholera, scarlatina, scarlet fever, typhus fever, typhoid fever, or diphtheria, shall immediately notify the Board of Health, through its Health Officer or Secretary of the same.

Rule 2. When a physician knows or suspects that any person to whom he has been called is sick of, or has died of any of the diseases named in Rule 1, he shall immediately notify the Board of Health, through its Health Officer or Secretary of the same.

Rule 3.—No person residing in any house in Lots 30 and 65, in which there is now, or lately has been, any case of the diseases mentioned in Rule 1, shall enter any dwelling house or store, or attend any public meeting, church or school, until a written certificate shall have been given by the Health Officer that such house has been thoroughly and satisfactorily cleaned, and there is no longer any danger of infection

Rule 4.—No person, excepting a clergyman, medical attendant or nurse, and any such person or persons as the Board of Health or its Health Officer may so authorize, shall enter any house in which there is now or has lately been a case of any of the diseases mentioned in Rule 1, until such house has been thoroughly cleaned to the satisfaction of the Health Officer and so certified by him.

Rule 5.—No occupant of any such house shall allow any person to enter, except the persons authorized by Rule 4, and any person seeking admittance shall be promptly informed by the occupant of the dangerous nature of the disease. This Rule shall apply to the occupant of every infected house until the Health Officer's certificate has been given that no further danger exists.

Rule 6.—Should any deaths occur from diphtheria, or other infectious diseases mentioned in Rule 1, the body shall not be left unburied longer than twenty-four hours.

Rule 7.—Every person shall permit his residence to be disinfected by the Health Officer or any person directed so to do by the Board of Health.

Rule 8.—No person shall oppose any visit made at reasonable times by the Health Officer, acting under the regulations of the Board of Health.

Rule 9.—The Health Officer shall promptly verify the reports of contagious diseases, and investigate all suspected cases which are reported to him and immediately take such action in each case as by him shall be deemed proper and necessary to provide for the care of the sick and to prevent the spread of this infection.

Rule 10.—The Heath Officer shall give certificates of recovery from contagious diseases and of freedom from liability to communicate the same.

Rule 11.—Any infraction of the foregoing rules and regulations shall be punishable by a fine of not less than five dollars and not exceeding forty dollars for each and every such offence.

The Board of Health also recommend that the following schools, if not already, be immediately closed, viz: Bonshaw, Argyle Shore, New Argyle, Canoe Cove, Long Creek, Appin Road, Green Road and Riverdale.

CYRUS W. CROSBY,
Chairman Board of Health
J. A. ROBERTSON, Secretary.

Political and Personal.

Mr. Bowers, the Liberal member for Digby, N. S., is a wiser man to day than he was immediately preceding his arrival at Ottawa. Mr. Bowers expected to be able to take his seat, but found that he could not do so, as Mr. Speaker had not received the certificate of his election from the Clerk of the Crown in Chancery, consequent upon the returning officer having neglected to return the writ to Major Chapleau.

Count Mercier is evidently hard up, and the following letter, which has just come to light, places the "big push" production of George Brown considerably in the background:

[Strictly confidential.]

CLUB NATIONAL,
Montreal, February 18 1892.

DEAR MR CHARLESON.—Go at once and see Mr Hurdman, of Ottawa, lumber merchant, about personal subscriptions he promised me See also for same purpose one of the sons-in-law of Mr. McLaren. I forget his name, but Mr. Hurdman will be able to give it to you See them at once for me. Must have money. Cost what it may, we must be victorious.

Yours,
HONORE MERCIER.

Mr. J. B. Charleson, it may be remarked, is a public official, but his duties seems to be more in the way of collecting political subscriptions than in superintending forest rangers.

UNDER ONE ROOF.—The largest, cheapest and best stock of carpets and children's clothing to be found under one roof is at James Paton & Co., Market Square

WOMAN KILLED.—As Mrs. Daniel Read, of Gulf Shore, was driving into Pugwash, N. S., on Monday, and when opposite the farm of Malcolm McLeod, the sleigh took a slew, she was thrown out, struck on her head and died before the doctor arrived.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Social Wreckage.

"The mountain labored and brought forth a mouse."

SIR,—It is pleasing to find that Marshal Cameron has something to say on the matter of "Social Wreckage" in yesterday's EXAMINER. This is his duty. He has submitted what appears to be an official report of the manner of living among those who occupy what he calls he "Monaghan Barracks." There is no reasoning with slang, and I shall therefore let the last epithet pass This official statement, be it remembered, was carefully, diligently and truthfully prepared by Marshal Cameron to be applied to the uses and purposes which Rev. W W. Brewer might deem fit. Now, what does this statement show? It shows that out of sixty-seven poor hard-working people who live in a crowded house on Pownal Street, three have been convicted of unchaste conduct and one bears an "unsavory character." The conduct of the remaining sixty three is unimpeachable! On the strength of the above report the Pastor of the First Methodist Church has hurled his wholesale and slanderous distribes, knowing, as he certainly did, that there were but three or four whose characters bore the least stain of moral turpitude. The only crime against the remaining sixty-three, it would seem, is that they are poor and hard-working; although it is not clear why their poverty and hardship should excite so much anger and malevolence in the breast of one who is "going about doing good."

"Tantane animis coelestibus irae?"

Now, I put it to Mr. Brewer frankly, can he, out of his own congregation, indiscriminately number sixty-seven of his adherents, sixty three of whom shall be free from stigma or reproach? I will go further and ask, if, judging from the number of ministerial delinquencies reported from time to time in the public press, he can find out of an equal number of brethren of his own calling a like proportion, who should be like Caesar's wife "above suspicion."

I had hoped that Mr. Brewer would have personally substantiated by credible or even by tangible evidence his serious charges. Not having done so, it remains for me to examine into the merits of this person who undertakes to traduce our citizens. Who is this Mr. Brewer? Whence has he come? What are his credentials? What qualifications does he bring to the discharge of his self-appointed task? He talks loudly of "Social Wreckage." Is he aware that there is not a city on this continent of the same size as Charlottetown where the moral atmosphere is purer or where there is a higher premium placed on the virtue of chastity?

Sir, I feel as strongly as Mr. Brewer does the baneful effects of immorality and licentiousness upon the character of a people, and my purpose in writing these letters is not to condone or minimize the evils of libertinism. But I also feel as much detestation for the man who will wantonly and openly, and mercilessly, and without discrimination condemn people who are compelled through poverty to huddle together in dark hovels, and many of whom are as chaste and as pure as the Rev. Mr. Brewer

Instead of giving ear to such slanderous tales he should rather do as his Master did when the Pharisees brought to Him the woman taken in adultery and our Lord said: "He that is without sin among you, let him first cast a stone at her." But they hearing this went out one by one beginning from the eldest. MARCUS.

News Notes.

Calgary is negotiating for the building of an electric street railway.

The gold exports from New York for Europe last week amounted to $2,892,000.

Our Seed Catalogue for 1892.

IN making up our Thirteenth Annual Seed Catalogue, we have had in mind the all important fact that our customers' interests are ours. We can in no way so well advance our own interest as to look after and protect that of our customers. Our business will not grow unless our customers are pleased, and to please them we must in every case guide them to select the best varieties by offering no poor ones, furnish a superior grade of stock and at a reasonable price, and deal in such a manner that all who purchase once will remain permanent customers and influence others. We do not wish an order unless we can please the sender of it. It would ruin our business to take money without giving a satisfactory return. That we have been successful in our efforts to please our patrons is shown by the fact that our business has grown until it is the largest in our line which has ever existed in this Province.

Our Catalogue for 1892 is the finest we have yet issued. All who wish to have it will please send us their name and address at once.

Personal.

Mr. W. S. Lawson, representing H. A. Nelson & Sons, fancy goods, etc., Montreal, is in the city, taking orders.

Bishop Lewis, of the diocese of Ontario, now in Egypt, is much improved in health. He will return to Canada shortly

Dr. George Muttart, of Souris, has been appointed resident physician of St Timothy's Hospital (Episcopalian), Roxborough, Philadelphia, by the board of directors of that institution.

We understand that at the meeting of the new Board of Directors of the Merchants' Bank of Prince Edward Island, held yesterday afternoon, Mr. L. H. Davies, M. P., was re elected president.

Hon. Senator Macdonald, P. E. I., seconded the address in reply to the Governor-General's speech, referring at length to the trade of Canada during the past few years, which showed a most satisfactory increase with Great Britain.

We regret to learn that Rev. Mr Dutcher, of Vernon River, while driving to his preaching appointment on Sunday evening last, and attempting to avoid a very deep ditch in the road, was thrown from his sleigh, breaking his right arm just below the shoulder. The reverend gentleman was taken home and a doctor called in. He is now doing nicely under the circumstances, but it will probably be over a month before he willl be able to resume his duties.
