

On the evening of the 9th inst. when the result of the contest was made known, a motley crowd of tax-gatherers, appraisers, supervisors, jobbing superintendents, and a curious fry of small potato bugs of less notoriety might be seen closely huddled together in a little out-of-the-way nook adjoining the Crapaud news office. The darkness partly hid them from view, but a gentleman passing overheard the following wail. Thinking publication might have a soothing effect on their lacerated feelings, I take the liberty of sending it to you for insertion:—

Ye faithful Grits who've gathered near Impatient all good news to hear,
You came in trembling and fear,
And it is well
For, O, the news, my comrades dear, I grieve to tell.

Ye who have roamed the country through And strove most nobly to rescue
The luckless Davies shipwrecked crew
From their sad fate, By spreading falsehoods old and new Early and late;

And ye zealous little band—
Who have in secret slyly fanned
The all devouring quenchless brand Of bigotry—
Vain were the schemes so fondly planned All's gang a glee

Sad is the end of this campaign,
Our youthful chief's ignobly slain,
He rashly dared his foes to aim At George and Neil;
He's fallen peer to rise again,
Pierced by their steel.

Poor W. D. whom once we found Corrupt, dishonest, and "unsound,"
He too lies bleeding on the ground Without a tear;
Yet O he gave us many a pound
The last two year.

Our western friend of doubtful fame, O'Callaghan—that vulgar name,
He strove to fan with might and main
The fire of bigotry;
But ah! he perished in the flame Longside of Lea

The writhings of the noble pair
The "N. K.'s" look of blank despair
The wild, the wild, the savage stare
Of J. Calhoun,
As shouts of triumph rent the air,
Won't be forgotten soon.

The bravest of our ranks have fell, E'en Speaker Beer, I grieve to tell,
And he who tells us there's no hell, Oh! sweet delusion!
If Grits be spared all is well
From dire confusion.

This may alloy our present fear
And God may spare us many a year, But while this thought poor Grits will cheer, A voice within Cries punishment just and severe Is due to sin.

If backward we dare cast our eyes,
What spectres would before us rise?
Corruption, bigotry, and lies—
A hideous sight
While justice for our bodies cries Both day and night.

Ah! what a change! two years ago
With one well aimed decisive blow Our enemies we did overthrow.
Oh! glorious day!
Vaunted o'er our vanquished foe
In proud array.

On the advent to power of Loo
The canons boomed and trumpets blew, High in the air our caps we threw.
With deafening cheer,
Oh! vain display, now I and you Weep o'er his bier.

Flushed with success, he in his pride,
The people's voice and will defied
On some he smiled, he more proscribed.
Impudent act,
Prescription he should ne'er have tried However backed.

Twelve months had scarcely sped
When honest men from Davies fled Corruption showed its hydra head
In every place.
So ruled the men whom Louis led Steeped in disgrace.

The Press rang out a warning note Poor Davies begged and Lawson wrote,
But at them came Willie's crushing vote
And in an hour
The luckless crew were all aloft, Stripped of their power.

We saw their tearful upturned eyes,
And heard the their piteous drowing cries
But all the schemes we could devise Naught did avail.
Now we may know their sad demise
And loss bewail—

We spared no time or means to save The Steward from a watery grave;
We played the bigot, fool, and knave.
This we'd conceal;
And scornful words and jeers did brave
With noble zeal—

Then hither Dan why silent brood, You who have in the front ranks stood With uncouth mien and language rude E'er met the foe.
The cause and men who have eschewed Now's fallen low—

Alas! poor James is on the track, Poor Donald to and William Mac.
Be careful Nat, Will's on your track.
He can't be bought;
He'll lay the stripes upon our back
If we are caught.

Hark, listen to that shout you hear,
The sound falls heavily on the ear,
My fellow sinners, O, I fear
Our end is nigh;
Potatoe Bugs away, O dear, Hear the cry.

Our deeds, also, can't be effaced, Too visibly our ways are traced,
Our Party's free from power, disgraced A thieving don;
The pirate crew is now replaced By honest men.

Farewell to power and public plunder, Twice we've been beaten, and no wonder,
The Grits are one continual blunder,
And so they've died;
Our doom's announced in voice of thunder, Pon every side.

CAPSICUM POROUS PLASTERS.

The Greatest Medical Discovery since the Creation of Man, or since the Commencement of the Christian Era.

There never has been a time when the healing of so many different diseases has been caused by outward application as the present.
It is an undisputed fact that over half of the entire population of the globe resort to the use of ordinary plasters.

DR. MELVIN'S CAPSICUM POROUS PLASTERS are acknowledged by all who use them, to act quicker than any other plaster they ever before tried, and that one of these plasters will do more real service than a hundred of the ordinary kind. All other plasters are slow of action, and require to be worn continually to effect a cure; but with these it is entirely different: the instant one is applied the patient will feel its effect.

Physicians in all ages have thoroughly tested and well known the effect of Capsicum; and it has always been more or less used as a medical agent for an outward application; but it is only of very recent date that its advantages in a porous plaster have been discovered.
Being, however, convinced of the wonderful cures effected by DR. MELVIN'S CAPSICUM POROUS PLASTERS, and their superiority over all other plasters, they now actually prescribe them, in their practice, for such diseases as rheumatism, pain in the side and back, and all such cases as have required the use of plasters or liniment. After you have tried other plasters and liniments, and they have failed, and you want a certain cure, ask your druggist for DR. MELVIN'S CAPSICUM POROUS PLASTER.
You can hardly believe your own convictions of its wonderful effects. Although powerful and quick in its action, you can rely on its safety for the most delicate person to wear, as it is free from lead and other poisonous material commonly used in the manufacture of ordinary plasters. One trial is a sufficient guarantee of its merits, and one plaster will cost hundreds to your friends.

Ask your druggist for DR. MELVIN'S CAPSICUM POROUS PLASTER, and take no other; or, on receipt of 25 cents for one, $1 for five, or $2 for a dozen, they will be mailed, post paid, to any address in the United States or Canada.

CATARRH.

Constitutional Catarrh Remedy

CURES CATARRH.

Hear what a Reverend Gentleman says of the Constitutional Remedy.

T. J. B. HARDING, Esq., Brockville, Ont.:

"DEAR SIR—It is now two years since your "Constitutional Catarrh Remedy" was introduced to me. I have waited this long to see if the cure would remain permanent before doing this, my duty, to you, as at first the happy effects seemed to me to be "too good to be true."

I was afflicted in my head for years before I suspected it to be Catarrh. In reading in your Circular I saw my case described in many particulars. The inward "drop" from the head had become very disagreeable, and a choking sensation often preventing me from lying long, I would feel like smothering and be compelled to sit up in the bed. My health and spirits were seriously affected. When your agent came to Walkertown in August, 1876, I secured three bottles. Before I had used a quarter of the contents of one bottle I found decided relief, and when I had used two bottles and a third, I quit taking it, feeling quite cured of that ailment, and have not used any since until of late I have taken some for a cold in my head.

A sense of duty to sufferers from that loath-some disease, Catarrh, prompts me to send you this Certificate, unsolicited, with leave to make what use of it you may see proper.

Yours truly,

W. TINDALL, Methodist Minister.
