

ROSES AND THORNS

Well the snow is finally on the ground--looks like winter is here!

Winter means many things here at UPEI, one of the most important being Christmas exams. Presently, many students are beginning to prepare for exams, however, many other students are still in the midst of writing mid-term exams, term papers, or take-home exams.

It is true, there were mid-term exams being written as late as last week, rather late in the semester by my estimation. And what about those famous term papers and take-home exams which are due during the last week of classes or during the last week of classes or during exam period.

If there is an exam in one of these courses, isn't it rather late for a paper to be due, and if there isn't an exam; is the term paper or take-home exam meant to take the place of an exam?

Perhaps I'm flogging the out of a dead turtle here, but I believe we need a strict policy here at UPEI concerning what the professors can or cannot do to us during these last few crucial weeks. It's your education -- your decision!

BOUQUET OF THORNS:

The "Guardian" for making sure they have the last word always. When Glenn Hynes rebutted Bill McGuire's column last week, they had to get their 2¢ worth in at the end of it.

BOUQUET OF ROSES

Glenn Hynes for taking the time and initiative to write the above mentioned rebuttel. Somebody's got to stick up for the UPEI Student Union and HE did it.

PANTHER NOTES

- Hit the books -- exams are here.
- Razorboy is tonight -- good luck to the Freshman Class.
- The Engineers had a very successful event last week.
- Sort of a dismal weekend for the Panther teams -- Oh well, maybe after X-mas.
- The Library is now operating with extended hours; another sign of exams.

Have an enormous week and study hard!!
