There is Nothing

like pleasing customers. That's what we are doing all the time, we give them such value for their money that they come back again and bring others with them. This is the keynote of our success. We strive to please everyone who leaves an order with us. Why not give us your next order and be thoroughly convinced what we say is true.

We solicit your valued orders.

Local and Other Items

OPERATIC.—The Robin-on Company played in Truro last week.

FOOTBALL MONEY.—Cornell made $10,060 on football last season while the University of Pennsylvania netted $32,000 from the same source.

RAILWAY EXCURSIONS.—The Prince Edward Island railway people are advertising special excursion rates for the Christmas and New Year holidays. The conditions set forth in the advertisements.

FIRST SKATE OF THE SEASON.—A beautiful sheet of ice in the St Dunstan's College rink. Skating for the public on Wednesday evening next. College band in attendance. Admission 15 cents. Special train between City and College.

WHAT IT COST.—The snowstorm of November 26th cost New York city $128,228 in extra labor and teams to clean the streets, and it took eleven days to do it. The railways all lost large sums, and great personal inconvenience was caused to individuals.

THE ROPED ARENA.—George Byers, the colored middleweight, and Jack Bonner, the husky Pennsylvania miter, went 20 rounds to a draw at the Lennox A C a few nights ago. At the conclusion of the bout both men were strong and Byers had no marks. Bonner had a badly swollen eye.

TOO MUCH OF A GOOD THING.—The London Daily Mail mentions an Englishman who has forty-two children. If they hang no more than one socking apiece they will not show a proper appreciation of the gravity of the situation.—Rochester Union.

SALE OF RAW FURNITURE.—The collection of the oak furniture belonging to the late Sir William Frazer, lately at Edinburgh, realized the highest prices on record for that class of furniture. One high back elbow chair brought 670 guineas, and a small footstool 100 guineas, the fact being that the market is so flooded with skillful imitations that undoubtedly genuine pieces are rarely to be had.

Her Ready Wit.

Though he had long adored her in secret—worshiped, in fact, the ground she pressed beneath the soles of her dainty little No. 3's—he had never yet been able to screw up sufficient courage to put his fate to the test. Poor fellow! He was one of those shy, modest, self depreciating sort of chaps that are growing rapidly scarcer, or he would have tumbled months ago to the fact that he had only to go in and win. Gertrude Alicia knew the state of his feelings right enough, but it had pleased her hitherto to keep him dangling in attendance. At last, however, she made up her mind to land her fish as soon as a favorable chance presented itself.

And the opportunity came at the Smythingtons' little soiree, when the bashful swain, entering the conservatory, discovered his innamorata looking her loveliest amid the palms and flowers.

"Are—you alone?" he questioned timidly.

In a moment the fair and ready witted girl saw her chance and took it then and there. "A loan, Hen—er—Mr. Finnikin," she said, with lowered eyelids, "a loan? Certainly not—I'm a gift."

And 15 minutes later, when they emerged from their retreat, Henry was asking himself how he could have been such a Juggins as to postpone his happiness so long.

How Miniatures Are Destroyed.

The chief agent in the destruction of a miniature is perhaps sunlight. The direct rays of the sun should never be permitted to fall upon the portrait, and especially should it be remembered that the glass (or crystal) covers to the miniatures, and the glass of the cabinet in which they are kept, all help to increase the powers of the sunlight and to give to its feeblest rays ability to exercise destructive force. Very many lovely old miniatures have been practically ruined by light.

Hung upon a wall or in a case, they are exposed to full sunlight, and the carnations quickly fade, the value of all the colors is reduced and whitened and the paler and more delicate tints vanish altogether. If the exigencies of space demand that a wall opposite a window (the worst position in a room for miniatures) must be used, then a blind or curtain should be supplied to the cabinet containing the treasures, and as often as possible the window opposite the cabinet should be shrouded, so as to prevent the light falling upon the cabinet and its contents.—"Portrait Miniature" by G. C. Williamson.

A LITTLE REMINDER.

I'm watching and longing for Christmas. Do you think Santa Claus will be late? And what will you do, And what will you do, If you're not ready, too. Hurry up! there is no time to wait.

And say, have you read all this paper! It's enough to make Santa Claus frown. For it tells where to buy, And the price isn't high. At the very best store in town.

Of course you have friends to remember, And are anxious their gifts should be nice.

If you listen to me, They will suit to a T, While you will be pleased at the price.

So make up a list of your dear ones, Be sure you have every name down. And this paper will show, The right place to go, For the very best presents in town.

DOCTORS FAIL WHEN THE GREAT PHYSICIAN CURES.

THREE YEARS IN BED

From Kidney Disease—Although a Man of Three-Score and Ten, Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills Gave Him Back Perfect Health.

This is to certify that I was sick in bed the most of the time for three years with kidney disease. I took several boxes of pills—different kinds—and a great many other kinds of patent medicines; besides that I was under treatment by four different doctors during the time and not able to work. I began to take Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, and since that time have been working every day although a man nearly 70 years of age. Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills have cured me.

JAMES SIMPSON, Newcomb Mills, Ont.

If the Kidneys are not in a perfectly clean and healthy condition, the blood becomes impregnated with impurities and a decay of the Kidneys soon takes place. Bright's Disease, Diabetes, Gravel, Stone in the Bladder, Inflammation of the Bladder, and a long list of Kidney diseases become seated, and sooner or later in so many instances end fatally. Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills cure all Kidney troubles. Sold by all dealers, price 1 cent per box.
