Blair Retains Boxing Title

GLACE BAY, N.S. (CP) — Blair Richardson made an easy defence of his Canadian Middleweight Boxing Title here Saturday night by stopping a game but outgunned Ron Brothers of Saint John, N.B., at two minutes and 15 seconds of the fourth round of a scheduled 12- rounder.

After an even first round Richardson took command in the second, hurt Brothers several times with lefts and rights in the third and pounded the challenger at will in the fourth.

Brothers, a noted puncher himself, was helpless and bleeding from the nose when his corner threw in the towel to end the fight.

The champion, weighing 160, said later he would be interested in a crack at the British Empire Crown "if it can be arranged."

Meanwhile, Brothers, 158¾, said right after the fight he would like a return match with the blond divinity student from South Bar, N.S., but only after one or two warm up fights with other boxers.

Brothers had made two major bids to win the crown by a knockout. One vicious straight right landed too high on the head to do much damage and another was picked off by Richardson's glove.

The Cape Bretoner said he threw everything he had at Brothers but couldn't knock him down. "I threw a lot of punches. He's a tough, game guy," he said.

Referee Bobby Beaton said he didn't call the fight — before nearly 4,000 fans — because Brothers appeared to be in possession of all his faculties and was defending himself.

"Blair just couldn't get the finishing shot away," Beaton said.

The bout took a gross gate of $10,373.

In a semi-final bout Tyrone Gardiner of Sydney River, N. S., carried too much weight and hit too hard for veteran Buddy Daye of Halifax. The fight was stopped at 2:55 of the fourth of a scheduled eight-rounder. Gardiner, 139½, decked Daye, 132½ in both the first and secon rouns.

Minor League Braves Win

In Little League action Saturday the Braves downed the Yanks 8-2 behind the strong pitching of Dave MacInnis. George Curly was charged with the loss. Bob MacKenna, MacInnis, Delbert Jewel, Jim O'Hanley and Charlie MacDonald each had two hits in this contest.

In other Little League action the Cards edged the Red Sox 11-9. Wayne Newson was the winning pitcher while Sput MacDonald garnered the loss. Newson, Don Dowling, Hutchinson and Bill Doherty each blasted two hits one by each being a homer.

In the final Little League game the Angels edged the Mets 6-5 when Gary Campbell singled in the winning run in the second extra inning. John Dunn picked up the win in relief while Ed Power went all the way for the losers. Bill Acorn and Lewis Butler were the only two players to get two hits. Blair MacDonald blasted a circuit slant for the losers.

Juniors Decision Ch'town Juveniles

The Summerside Junior baseball team defeated the Charlottetown Juveniles 7-4 in an exhibition game at Queen Elizabeth Park in Summerside on Saturday afternoon. The visitors outhit the home team eleven to eight but Paul MacWilliams, Junior pitcher, managed to keep them from bunching their bingles until the ninth inning when they scored three runs on five hits to pull up from a 7-1 deficit. Mike Kelly worked five innings for Charlottetown, allowing only 3 hits, and striking out 11 batters. But Summerside managed to score 3 runs off him in the second inning on two hits, a walk, and an error. They teed off on relief pitcher Billy Weatherbie for four hits which scored four runs in the sixth frame.

Kelly had 3 for 5, for the visitors, Freddie MacDonald next with 2 for 4. George Dalton led the Summerside attack with 3 hits in 4 trips, Malcolm Matheson getting a double and single in four appearances.

Liston Doubts Fight Will Go

SUNNYLAND, Ill. (AP)— Sonny Liston, world heavyweight boxing champion, says he doubts he will meet contender Cassius Clay next month "unless we can figure some way to get the government to let us keep some of the money."

Liston, who now is in a high income tax bracket, made this comment to reporters Saturday night during an unscheduled stopover at Sunnyland, a community near Peoria.

Craig Loses 20th Contest As Mets Beaten By Braves

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Roger Craig added another entry to the New York Mets' long log of negative achievements when he came up a 20-game loser in a 2-1 defeat at Milwaukee Sunday and tied a half - century - old National League record with his 18 consecutive defeats.

The 32-year-old right-hander tied the record of successive setbacks, set by Cliff Curtis of Boston in 1910, and added another mark of dubious distinction by becoming the 13th major league pitcher to put 20-loss campaigns back to back. Paul Derringer last did it in 1933 and 1934.

Willie Mays hit his 27th homer in the 10th inning for a 2-1 triumpth over Chicago Cubs that put San Francisco Giants back into second place. Philadelphia Phillies dropped St. Louis to third, upending the Cardinals 7-3 and 5-2. Cincinnati Reds swept Pittsburgh Priates 5-2 and 4-1.

In a night game, the first-place Los Angeles Dodgers were at Houston Colts.

In the American League, the second-place Chicago White Sox walloped Los Angeles Angels 8-1 and trimmed the first-place New York Yankees' edge to 7½ games. The Yankees split, losing to Baltimore Orioles 7-2 before winning 11-10 in 10 innings.

Washington Senators made it three in a row over Boston Red Sox, 7-5, Kansas City Athletics defeated Minnesota Twins 6-2 and Detroit Tigers beat Cleveland 2-0 behind Hank Aguirre's two-hitter before the Indians won the nightcap 3-2.

Craig, who had a 10-24 record last season and currently is 2-20, gave up a homer to Eddie Mathews in the first inning, then let the Braves score the decisive run in the sixth on a wild pickoff throw.

The Giants scored an unearned fourth inning run but the Cubs tied the score in the eighth on Ron Santo's homer. It stayed in a knot until Mays connected off Lindy McDaniel.

Ray Culp won the opener for the Phillies and drove in two runs with a pair of singles while Johnny Callison and Clay Dalrymple homered. The Cards led the nightcap 2-1, but the Phillies came up with three in the eighth as Tony Gonzalez doubled home the tie-breaker.

Scantlebury Wins Title

Tom Scantlebury regained his horseshoe championship in the weekly tournament at the Rosebank Horseshoe Club on Sunday, with a sudden-death victory over Tony Kelly.

Scantlebury tossed a ringer to emerge on top 25-17 after Kelly came from behind to tie the game 16-all.

George Scantlebury and Jack Sark played to the semi-finals before losing out.

Close play featured the matches with George Scantlebury tossing an almost perfect game in the semi-finals with ringers all down the line. He finally defaulted to Kelly who had won the second game of their best of three match 22-20.

Next week the play will feature sudden-death play when Tom Scantlebury lays his championship on the line to all comers.

Entries will be accepted at the Holiday Canteen, Rosebank Beach up until starting time.
