

PERSONAL.

Mr. Alex. Horne left this morning for Sydney.

Mr. Walter Simpson, of Bay View, returned from St. John last evening.

Senator Prowse is among the latest arrivals at the Hotel Davies.

Mr. Neil McQuarrie, barrister-at-law, Summerside, was in the city today.

Mr. P. P. O'herly, of the Hotel Davies, is expected home from Halifax tonight.

Dr. Darrach, of Kensington, is in the city. He is registered at the Hotel Davies.

Conductor Cox, of the P. E. I. R., was a passenger by the Princess today.

Mr. C. W. Blenkhorn, of the Plant Steamship line, is among the guests at the Hotel Davies.

Mr. John Aylward, jr., was a passenger by the Bonavista the other day en route to St. John's, Nfld.

Senator Ferguson was a passenger by the Princess last night returning from the Halifax exhibition.

Mrs. J. R. McKee and Miss Ida Tennant went to St. John today where the latter's home is.

Rev. Ronald B. Macdonald, of Rustico, and Rev. Allan J. Macdonald, of Fort Augustus, have returned from an extended trip to Europe.

Miss Josie Peebles, who has been spending the summer with her sister, Mrs. Geo. A. B. Macdonald, returned to Jersey City this morning.

Mrs. Richard Johnson, of Charlottetown, P. E. I., arrived in town on the 13th and is the guest of her father, Mr. John Sterling.—Hants County Journal.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Mahon crossed today to Point du Chene en route to New York and other parts of the United States.

Mrs. McKenna left last week for Harbor Grace, Nfld., on a visit to her brother Bishop McDonald. She expects to remain several weeks in the hope a change of climate may benefit her health.—Picton Standard.

Mr. Walter Simpson, President of the Prince Edward Island Association, is here writing up the show for the Co-operative Farmer of Sussex. He acted as one of the judges of field and garden produce.—St. John Sun.

Mr. Thomas Curran, of St. John's, Nfld., is a guest at the Hotel Davies. Mr. Curran will remain until after the exhibition, and during his stay will purchase fifty horses for the Miller Lumbering Company, a concern recently started in Newfoundland.

Mrs. W. K. Bearsto (formerly Miss Leah Munn) was a passenger by the Princess this morning en route to Sydney where she joins her husband, who is now doing business there. On the eve of her departure a number of the lady employees and Mr. James Stewart, of Paton & Co's establishment, waited upon and presented her with a silver pudding dish. Mrs. Bearsto was for a number of years in the employ of Messrs. Paton & Co., and was well and favorably known for her kind and obliging disposition.

STRETCH OF PATERNALISM.—An Ottawa despatch says:—A militia order to-day says non-commissioned officers and men of the permanent force returning from South Africa, and found fit for further military service, are to be provided with a complete issue of clothing upon rejoining. This great stretch of paternalism will surely be appreciated by the men.

SHIP DECK COMES ASHORE.—On Sunday last the deck of a ship floated into St. Peter's Island, which from its appearance presumably belonged to a passenger ship. It had a beam of 35 feet, the length of the piece being about 45 feet. It likely belonged to some ship that had suffered in the recent storm. But it now belongs to the people of St. Peter's Island, who have secured some excellent pine from it.

TEACHERS DEPART.—At Vernon River School, yesterday afternoon, the teachers, Miss Amy M. Carver and Miss S. J. McIsaac, took leave of their school. A half holiday was given the pupils, and they, with their parents and friends, assembled on the lawn, where lunch was served. The teachers were each presented with an address and gift, Miss Carver's being a beautiful writing desk, and Miss McIsaac's a purse of gold. Miss Carver leaves Monday for Boston to take a course in the Emerson School of Oratory. She is a sister of Mr. Percy Carver, lawyer, resident in that city.

SOLDIERS OF THE QUEEN.—As all the necessary and final arrangements for a finished production of the military drama, "Soldiers of the Queen" which was to open tonight, have not yet been completed, the management begs to announce that the date of opening has been changed to tomorrow night, Friday Sept. 21. The play is in ready ready for production except for a few details, but as Mr. Bewley is determined to give the people of Charlottetown a first-class performance in every respect he has decided to suffer a big financial loss rather than lose their esteem. All the tickets purchased for tonight's performance will be good for tomorrow (Friday) night.

LOST.—Small magnetized hammer on Water Street or King Street to-day. Return to Davies Hotel, where a reward will be given.

WANTED.—A competent girl in a small family. No washing. Apply to Mrs. R. C. Goff, Fitzroy Street.

RIFLE SHOOTING.—The annual competition of the Pownall Rifle Association will take place at Greenwood Range on Saturday, Sept. 29th, inst, beginning at 8 o'clock.

ARTILLERY.—No. 1 Company will meet for drill in plain clothes this evening at 8 o'clock at the drill shed. It is important that every member should be present.—A. A. Bartlett, Captain.

LADIES' AID.—The annual meeting of the Ladies' Aid of the P. E. Island Hospital will be held in the Y. M. C. A. Parlor, next Tuesday morning, Sept. 25th, at 11.30. A full attendance requested. 31

Y. M. C. A.—The adjourned meeting of the Y. M. C. A. to be held this evening in the Association parlor should be attended by every member. Matters of vital importance to the Association will have to be decided.

A SPECIAL ATTRACTION.—Mr. Blair, of the Experimental Farm, Nappan, will have an exhibit at the Charlottetown exhibition next week. The exhibit will include the grains, etc., shown at Halifax and St. John.

FALL EXCURSIONS.—The fall excursion rates by the Halifax go into effect tomorrow. The round trip rate between Charlottetown and Boston is $11. This is a splendid opportunity for those wishing to visit Boston.

FELL DOWN STAIRS.—Two men, Fred Parson, of Margate, and Patrick Murphy, of Kensington, fell down stairs on the steamer Northumberland yesterday, just as she was leaving the wharf at Point du Chene, and were badly hurt. They were insensible when picked up.

STRETCH OF PATERNALISM.—An Ottawa despatch says:—A militia order to-day says non-commissioned officers and men of the permanent force returning from South Africa, and found fit for further military service, are to be provided with a complete issue of clothing upon rejoining. GRAND : GALA : DAYS AT "MY STORE."

FURS Dress - Goods JACKETS

No such a range of Dress Goods was ever seen in our Dress Goods Department. A leaning to roughness is conspicuous. Camel Hair effects mostly in plains and pretty plaids, fuzzy, fleecy and almost lumpy, just the thing for our climate at just the price to suit your purses.

FURS No such a showing of Furs has ever been seen on Prince Edward Island.

We are the leading Fur store of P. E. Island and we have eclipsed our former reputation.

Any lady that buys a Fur Jacket without seeing our stock is not doing herself justice, over 250 Fur Jackets to select from at P. E. Island's Greatest Fur Store.

MILLINERY

We expect our London and Paris Trimmed Millinery in next week.

SILKS

See the new things in silks at My Store.

Never before was our stock more beautiful—but it's the beauty of quiet richness rather than of glaring prominence. To be brief it's a happy collection of real art wonders whose variety and elegance will surprise, and the low price delight you at
