

Former Dean Of Harvard College Dies

CAMBRIDGE, Mass. (AP)— Delmar Leighton, 69, former dean of Harvard College, died Thursday of a heart attack at his summer home in St. Andrew's-by-the-Sea, N.B. It was announced Friday by Harvard University.
Leighton, who was dean from 1952 to 1958, was credited with strengthening the tutorial system at Harvard, under which faculty and students meet informally in the residential houses.
Born in Tunkhannock, Pa., Leighton was a marine corps pilot during the First World War. He earned a bachelor of arts degree at Harvard in 1919, a master of business administration degree in 1922, and was appointed an instructor in economics in 1926.
Leighton was dean of freshmen from 1931 to 1952. After serving as college dean, he was master of Dudley House, a centre for non-residential students.
He retired in 1963.

Policeman Gets Huge Estate From Spinster

(CHICAGO (AP))—An estate estimated worth several million dollars has been left to a Chicago policeman by a spinster granddaughter of Capt. Richard King, Texas cattle baron.
The will of Alice B. Atwood, virtually unnoticed when it was admitted to probate April 1, has become a focus of interest in the probate branch of circuit court.
Miss Atwood, who died Dec.
11, 1965, at 85, left her estate to Michael J. de Bella, 34, a patrolman assigned to the Grand Crossing district on Chicago's south side.
De Bella and his wife, Joyce, are the parents of five children.
Miss Atwood's typewritten will, made Dec. 2, 1964, specifically disinherited two brothers and a sister, who had shared inheritance of 14 percent of the King ranch interests from their grandmother, Henrietta M. King, who died in 1925.

No inventory of the estate was filed with Miss Atwood's will, but court records show she had a checking account of $2,327 and an undetermined interest in $474,396 on deposit with the Northern Trust Co., Chicago, and in the ranch in southeastern Texas. The King ranch once consisted of 1,400,000 acres.
A hearing to determine assets has been set for May 20 before Magistrate Anthony J.
Kogut.

Quebec Schools Ignore May 23

QUEBEC (CP)—Victoria Day, May 23, will not be a regular school holiday in Quebec, the education department has announced. The department said in a statement May 23, 1966, conforming with the school-calendar standards set up by the education department, is a school day."

FLOODS HIT PORT

MOSCOW (AP)—Flood waters from the ice-swollen Dvina River have forced evacuation of residents in the region of Arkhangelsk, a major northern Soviet port, Tass said Wednesday. The official Soviet news agency made no mention of casualties. Arkhangelsk, on the White Sea, is the country's major port centre for exporting timber.

NAMED CO-RESPONDENT

LONDON (Reuters)—Israel film star Dahlia Lavi was cited Wednesday as co-respondent in a divorce case involving John Sullivan, 42, action director of the film Lord Jim in which she starred. Miss Lavi did not contest a petition brought by Peggy Mary Sullivan, alleging adultery. Mrs. Sullivan was granted a decree.

GRANTS CREDIT

BOON (Reuters)—West Germany will supply Israel with 160,000,000 marks ($40,000,000) in credits this year under the first aid agreement between the two countries, informed West German sources said Wednesday. A foreign office spokesman said the agreement would be signed today. He declined details.
