

THE DAILY EXAMINER.

SEPTEMBER 2, 1889.

Studies at Prince of Wales College.

The Pioneer dilates upon "the vacant professorship in Prince of Wales College. If the Pioneer were wise it would have at first ascertained whether or not there is a vacant professorship."

But if no other reason existed for delay in the acceptance of Mr. Lepage's resignation, that which is involved in the question whether or not a Professor should be appointed who is competent to give lectures upon scientific agriculture, is quite sufficient.

The Pioneer deprecates the idea of appointing to Prince of Wales College "one of the inspectors of schools for this Province." If either of these gentlemen be ambitious of promotion he may now congratulate himself.

But the whole matter is one to be carefully considered; and it is, from every point of view, expedient that hasty action be not taken.

Notes and Clippings.

The fine poem entitled "Albemarle" Cushing, which we have clipped from the September number of the Century Magazine and publish to-day on the last page of THE EXAMINER, will be particularly interesting to our readers.

It is a very noticeable fact that steel is fast superseding iron in all manner of structures. As recently as 1878, with the exception of one per cent., all the steamers built in England were of iron.

A movement is on foot in the States towards the abolition of the "caucus system." The Century Magazine for September says: "Possibly the greatest gain of all will be found in time to be that secured through independent nominations."

have them distributed at the polls on equal terms with those of the regular parties. Every caucus will thus have hanging over its deliberations the threat of a formidable and easily organized independent movement in case its own nominations are not satisfactory.

The September Century contains a paper on Napoleon Bonaparte of unusual interest and importance, being contemporary accounts, by British officers, of the Emperor's exile in Elba; his voyage to St. Helena and life on that island. Not the least valuable part of this record consists of the conversations here preserved with Napoleon on some of the most prominent passages of his career.

Attempt to Assassinate

THE MAN WHO IDENTIFIED MARTIN BURKE ASSAULTED BY A DOZEN YOUNG MEN - PURSUED ALMOST TO HIS OWN DOOR.

A desperate attempt was made a few nights ago, in Chicago, to assassinate Gus Klahere, the tinsmith, who, last week, identified Martin Burke as the man for whom he soldered together a tin box, on May 6, which it is supposed contained the clothing of Dr. Cronin.

When the names of the six prisoners charged with the murder of Dr. Cronin were called in court last week, the accused entered in single file. Burke was the first. Then came Woodruff, Coughlin, Beggs, Sullivan, and Kunze, in the order named.

He wore a neat-fitting suit, with a white lawn tie. His face is ruddy and full. He thinks he will not be convicted, but there is good reason for believing that the evidence against him is stronger than that against any of his companions.

Little John Kunze, who, it is alleged, drove Coughlin to the slaughter house in Ashland Avenue before the murder was committed, looked like one of the Anarchists during the last days of the famous trial of 1886.

ALL EXHIBITS OF LIVE STOCK must be entered on the Secretary's books on or before Friday, Sept. 27th, at 6 o'clock, p. m., and will be received on the Show Grounds on TUESDAY, October 1st, from 2 till 9 o'clock, p. m., and on WEDNESDAY morning, October 2nd, at 9 o'clock, and no later.

These magnificent steamers are amongst the largest and fastest in the world, and are well known for the regularity and rapidity of their passages across the Atlantic.

A TARIFF HORRIBLE EXAMPLE.—The New York Herald says: All true lovers ought to be tariff reformers after this. A broken-hearted young Englishman, whose fiancée has jilted him, had to pay $10 duty on a returned engagement ring at the custom house in this city yesterday.

Boston Markets.

AUGUST 29.

EGGS.—There has been a steady fair demand for choice fresh stock with prices a little firmer on most kinds. Genuine eastern extras, all new laid, bring 20 cents without difficulty.

POULTRY.—The market has been generally well supplied this week and there has been but little variation in prices. Choice large chickens are in most demand just at present.

POTATOES.—Receipts have been very heavy this week, altogether too large for the trade and as much of the stock is green and needs quick handling, there has been great pressure to sell.

FISH.—The market holds about steady with a fair trade in most lines. Cod are still in light supply and firm. Receipts of mackerel light and prices still ruling high.

IMPORTANT.—The sale by R. Beirsto of Hon. A. A. Macdonald's effects will take place on Monday, 9th inst., instead of on Saturday, the 7th, as at first advertised.

A PERFECT complexion, free from pimple or blemish, is very rarely seen, because few people have perfectly pure blood. And yet all disfiguring eruptions are easily removed by the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Try it and surprise your friends with the result.

AN OLD TREE.—On the farm of Mr. J. Oscar Harris, of Lower Wolfville, there is said to be a willow tree which measures four feet from the ground 21 feet around. The tree is an old one, probably one of those planted by the old French settlers.
