Bald Eagle's Win Is A Reversal Of Usual Form

By ALAN HARVEY
LONDON (CP) — Victory for Cain Hoy Stable's Bald Eagle in Laurel's $100,000 International race comes as a puzzling reversal of form to British students of racing. When raced in Britain, Bald Eagle was a morning glory, fast in workouts but extremely disappointing on the racecourse.

Children's Lives Are Saved Through Fund Contributions

If the pile of rags at the top of the clinic stairs had not moved, a janitor would have lost his job and a small boy would have died. For it was the janitor's job to see that all refuse was cleared away—and this particular heap of rubbish was a small child. The clinic where the child was found is in Korea. It is one of several health centres supported there by the Canadian Save the Children Fund, and every day its staff tend the thousands of sick and hungry children who manage, one way or another, to seek the clinic out.

CFA Proud Of Premier

OTTAWA — (Special) — The Canadian Federation of Agriculture in its latest monthly magazine records with pride Premier W. R. Shaw's connection both with the federation and with agriculture in general. It states: "In 1942 Mr. Shaw was instrumental in the organization of the Prince Edward Island federation and became the first secretary, holding that position for some years. In this capacity he served on the national executive and in 1950 went overseas as part of the CFA delegation to the IFAP. "Mr. Shaw has been active in agriculture all his life, working in the field service from 1914 to 1917. He spent some time in the army in the First World War and returned to the provincial department of agriculture. "He then entered farm journalism at Gardenville, Que., and returned to the Island in 1942 as livestock superintendent and as

Car - Truck Collision At S'side Sends Airman To Hospital

SUMMERSIDE — A car-truck collision at the intersection of Notre Dame and Water Streets at the western entrance to Summerside about 11 p.m. last evening resulted in hospitalization of Marvin Joseph White RCAF Station, Summerside. White was said to have been driver of the 1957 Meteor car which had been proceeding into Summerside. Three other RCAF members, passengers in the same car, R. L. Burns, Gary Stroh, and William O'Rourke, were shaken up badly in the accident but did not require hospitalization. The driver of the car will probably have x-ray examination to determine possible fracture of an arm.

Car Hits Man At N. Glasgow

It is reported the driver of the large truck, Fred Alfred Gaudet of Summerside, was proceeding west. The car, driven by White, apparently went out of control after the collision with the truck, and knocked down a street sign at the intersection, ending up with a badly damaged left side of the vehicle which came to rest facing west on Notre Dame Street. The truck continued on for some distance and came to a stop with its right front wheel over the edge of the ditch off the shoulder on the north side of the highway at a point west of the brook which forms the town line.
