

Local and Other Items.

A DAILY MAIL TO CRAPOUD is among the things to be agitated for.

SMALL DEBT COURT.—One capias case was disposed of this forenoon.

FRESH FISH.—Fresh codfish on Market Square to-morrow at 8 o'clock.

POLICE COURT.—One drunk—Joseph Valley—was fined $2 or 8 days this forenoon.

BAZAAR.—A novel feature at the Bazaar is that the tea will be served on the European plan. Remember the date, Dec. 13.

ISLAND HORSES.—Mr. James Keegan, of Augusta, Me., shipped twenty-four fine horses for the American market, this afternoon.

THE HALIFAX.—The Halifax Chronicle says that the steamer Halifax arrived at Boston on Saturday at 2 p. m., making the trip in 25 hours from light to light.

MATRIMONIAL.—One hundred and nine marriage licenses were granted in Chicago on Thanksgiving Day. How many divorces does that mean out of the 109?

A TREAT COMING.—We understand that the teachers and pupils of Upper Prince Street School intend giving a concert in the School Hall shortly. We trust that they will have every success.

DEAFNESS CURED.—A very interesting 132 page illustrated book on deafness. Noise in the head. How they may be cured. Post free 34—Address, Dr. Nicholson, St. John St., Montreal.

SINGING CLASS.—The singing class in connection with the Y. M. C. A. will resume practice this evening, in the Upper Parlor of the Association, at 8 o'clock. A full attendance of the young men requested.

CIVIC.—The Herald calls the Halifax City Council "The Civic Dime Museum." If the Halifax Councillors keep on improving, they will soon have achieved a reputation fully equal to that of the Charlottetown Board.

NEVER SATISFIED.—Some people are born grumblers. A man in New York picked up a tack with his bare foot the other night, and instead of being grateful he sat down on the carpet and made some very inappropriate remarks.

LAST NIGHT'S MEETING.—At the meeting in Maccaeburn's building, last evening, Councillor Morris in the chair, Mr. James Eden was selected to contest Ward One, in opposition to Councillor Small, in the approaching civic election.

WELL PAID.—The pedestrians at New York, last week, were paid off Monday as follows:—Littlewood, $3,704.40; Herty, $1,665.98; Moore, $1,111.32; Cartwright, $833.49; Norcum, $555.63; Hart, $463.05; Howarth, $370.44; Connor, $277.83; Golden, $185.22; Mason, $92.61.

CROSSINGS.—Some persons are constantly complaining about the streets, and particularly about those points at which the water pipes cross them. We have no doubt that the Water Commissioners and their contractors will do everything that can be done to make the streets as smooth as possible.

INSANE.—Daniel McKenzie, a farmer of Meadowville, Pictou County, N. S., became violently insane on Wednesday last. He went into a neighbor's house and with an axe destroyed most of the furniture, and gave the inmates a bad scare. He was secured and will be placed in the asylum.

ENTERTAINMENT.—On New Year's night a Grand Musical and Literary Entertainment will be given in the Hall at Mount Stewart. As the committee intend to procure some of the best musical and literary talent that can be obtained, this entertainment is sure to be a grand success. Look out for programme in a few days.

SCHOONER ASHORE.—A Canoe despatch says: The schooner Mary A., owned by Captain Robert Jamieson of this place, laden with produce from Georgetown for Halifax, got ashore on Charlotte Island, St. Andrew's Channel, on Saturday. Men have been at work transferring her cargo to another schooner and hopes are entertained that she will be sufficiently lightened to be floated.

Y. M. C. A.—The general annual meeting of the members of the Charlottetown Young Men's Christian Association, will be held in the Hall of the Association, Queen Square, Charlottetown, on Monday, the 17th day of December, inst., at the hour of 7:30 p. m., for the purpose of receiving the report of the work of the Association during the past year, electing an Executive or Managing Committee for the ensuing year, and the transaction of other necessary business.

MISSIONARY WORK.—Miss Palmer, of St. John, has returned home. During her stay on the Island she addressed a number of meetings in the interest of the Women's Foreign Missionary Society, and was the means of establishing auxiliaries in Little York, Murray Harbor, Montague, Vernon River, Sealtown, and other sections, besides visiting and reviving the interest in Charlottetown, Centreville and other places where branches were already in existence.

JERKIL AND HYDE.—A veritable case of Dr. Jerkyl and Mr. Hyde exists in Halifax, according to the Mail. A certain man, says our contemporary, has for some time past been in the habit of leading a sort of dual existence. While spending part of his time among his friends, by whom he is held in the highest estimation, it is his custom to visit periodically the lowest quarters in the city. While on these rounds he seeks to hide his identity by disguising himself in ragged garb and giving assumed names. This conduct does not seem to be prompted by a mere desire for sensation or novelty, but rather by some impulse which the victim seems to be unable to overcome.

Personal.—Mr. E. H. Norton left for England this morning on an interesting mission. We regret to learn that Captain Cropley, editor of the Fredericton Capital, is seriously ill. The Czar has sanctioned the marriage of the Grand Duke Alexis with Princess Helena, daughter of the Comte de Paris. Count Tolstol is likely to resign the portfolio of Minister of the Interior. It is reported that he has softened of the brain. Louise Balfie maintains that marriage with handsome men is a failure. She has tried it twice, and has just cleared herself by law from both. "And I will not give up my freedom again," she declares, "until I am wooed by a man who conceals his good qualities of mind and heart behind a very ugly surface. Male beauties are so egotistical, particularly if they are actors." Miss Ba'fe is an actress. Her ex-husbands are good-looking fellows, and each won Miss Balfie while playing the lover to her on the stage.

SPECIAL DESPATCHES TO THE EXAMINER.

English Politics.

LONDON, Dec. 5.

The Conservative papers infer that Lord Randolph Churchill informed the Gladstonians of his intention to move an adjournment. The Conservatives were ignorant of Lord Randolph's proposed action, and when they learned of his intention, they summoned Lord Hartington from Devonshire House and sent urgent whips to various clubs in order to rally the Liberal Unionists.

The Standard says: "The Government do not owe their victory to an excess of consideration on the part of their late colleague. His sense of public duty must be morbidly acute when it blunts common-place instincts of courtesy and fair play. The disloyalty of the escapade is only exceeded by its childish conception of military state craft."

The Times thinks there was a deal of justification for protest. It must not be supposed that the majority obtained indicates general approval of the Government's policy. It was, however, inexcusable to spring the motion without the usual motion.

The Post says it is glad Parliament voted against assuming responsibility properly belonging to the Executive Government.

Cleveland's Message Considered.

OTTAWA, Dec. 5.

Hon. Mr. Foster, referring to President Cleveland's Message, said to-day as far as his reference to wrecked and stranded vessels was concerned, the Canadian Government had never refused the fullest liberty of rescue or assistance where life or property was in danger. Hon. Mr. Foster also considered that the President's reiteration of the fairness of the rejected treaty, together with his statement that since March last no cause of complaint has arisen on the fishing grounds, very effectively discounts his menace of retaliation held out a few weeks ago.

A Narrow Escape.

MONTREAL, Nov. 5.

J. Francoeur, a butcher boy, had a narrow escape from being cut to pieces by a 300 pound sausage chopper in Blanche's sausage establishment. The boy was sitting on the edge of the chopping block when the double-bladed knife came down on him, one of the blades burying itself deeply in the boy's back and cutting off a slice of flesh about one and a half feet long and one foot broad. Medical aid was at once called and it is believed that he will recover.

Favoring a Pibescite.

WINNIPEG, Dec. 5.

The Northwest Assembly has passed a resolution favoring a pibescite on the liquor question to be taken at once, and requesting the Dominion Government to arrange for the same, failing which they demand that the Assembly be given the powers as possessed by the Provincial legislatures under the B. N. A. Act.

A Collision.

DETROIT, Mich., Dec. 5.

At noon a Lake Shore and Michigan Southern switching engine, on its way to the junction, collided with a street car at Crogan street crossing, demolishing the car and injuring ten persons, five of whom will probably die.

A Reward Offered.

CHICAGO, Dec. 5.

Mrs. Henriette L. Snell, widow of the murdered millionaire, to-night announced that she will pay $50,000 for the capture of William B. Tascott, the supposed murderer, in any part of the world.

The Federation Controversy.

TORONTO, Dec. 5.

The Federation controversy in the Methodist Churches becomes daily more acrimonious and more personal. The net result seems to be injurious to the Federation movement.

Weather Bulletin.

TORONTO, Dec. 6.—10 a. m.

Moderate to fresh winds; partially cloudy to cloudy weather, with local falls of sleet or rain; not much change in temperature.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR.

A Witness in the Strophe Case Heard From.

SIR,—I see by a late number of the Patriot that my character has been attacked by a correspondent of that paper, who has been writing all the fall about that poor man Strophe, who met his death in Souris. I think he might have left me alone. I never did him any harm in my life. All "Vidette" can have against me in the Strophe affair is that I happened to be a witness at the inquest and told the truth, and he knows it. All I have to say to this is that I was brought to the court against my will; and it is, perhaps, fortunate for those who are hurt at my evidence that I wasn't asked more questions. "Vidette" thinks it very mean to live on a corner. I do live on a corner, but I do not sell whiskey; and even if I should, I would be no worse than some of "Vidette's" bosom friends. A corner is a good place sometimes to see what is going on. I remember seeing another man, a stranger, chased over the bank, a few years ago, within a few yards of my corner. He was a small, weak man, and was kicked and cuffed unmercifully when overtaken by his pursuer. His only offence was that he crossed James R. McLean's back yard. After being kicked almost to jelly he was handcuffed and sent to jail, where he remained until the Supreme Court met, and then, as his assailant dared not appear against him, he was let out.

In conclusion, I may tell "Vidette" that I am just as respectable as he is; and he need not try to put me down by abuse and misrepresentation.

Whelan Monument.

SIR.—Your correspondent may not be able to find oboles (a three cent coin) enough to pay for erecting the above; but, certainly there is a kindly spirit testifying to the memory of Whelan, when, as we are told, over a thousand copies of his life, "Speeches of Whelan," have been sold within a few weeks. So many demands are made on breadwinners now-a-days for subscriptions to all kinds of laudable and deserving objects, that it cannot be a matter of wonder that now and then, especially towards the year's end, a halt is called. Let the monument remain a little longer in embryo, and in the coming year it will arise.
