Comrades!

A spectre is haunting UPEI – the spectre of the Cadre. Replaced instead with the much inferior Panther Post voted in by either the ironic or the illiterate, we need to reconsider the democratic system. How is it that 4% of the UPEI population changed the name to one that would be voted down in any local high school? And with the reconsideration of democracy, we should AS WELL question the failing capitalist system. Once upon a time, we could afford to eat. Now we cannot. We Marxist Correctives have finally found some time in the light. You know what's better than being hungry? Communism! You know what newspaper knew that 30 years ago? The Cadre! Let us embrace our roots. Let us change our name back.

Our incredibly supportive boss, Mazen 'Z' Ellaz, VP Finance (give him a high-five if you see him, courtesy of the student paper), understands our plight and has agreed to put the name to a vote, yet again. Though we prefer to seize power and give it to the proletariat, we agree that a vote is the best idea while we're all still full time students. Please, please vote for The Cadre. Other, bigger newspapers will stop picking on us if we have a slightly tougher, more ideologically driven name.

So basically, what I'm saying, is quit Stalin' and change our name to something less awful. Change it back to our rightful name. Embrace our history, don't deny it. We are and always will be The Cadre.
