INDIANS 'HOUSING' IS INADEQUATE

A social and economic study of 45,000 indians and halfbreeds in Manitoba showed that the groups lived under conditions that would be considered inadequate by other Canadians. This is a decrepit tent set up by an indian family for summer shelter. However, shelter ranges in quality up to solid frame houses used by some indians and people of indian ancestry.

IN MEMORIAM

MRS. EDNA VICKERSON

The many friends of Mrs. Edna Vickerson, widow of the late Charles Vickerson, were saddened by her death which occurred at the Kings County Memorial Hospital, Montague, on April 9th, 1959, after a short illness. She was in her 91st year and was the last surviving member of a family of thirteen. She was quite active up to the time of her passing and only a few weeks ago enjoyed her ninetieth birthday party with her family and a few friends.

Formerly Miss Edna MacMillan, she was born in Vernon River and after her marriage resided in Hermitage, Roseneath, Cardigan and Montague, where she has lived since 1916. She endeared herself to all who knew her and her kind deeds, her lovely personality and pleasant disposition, and will be sadly missed by her family and a large circle of friends. She took a great interest in Community and Church affairs and was always a regular church attendant singing in church choirs since she was a young girl. Until a few years was a faithful member of Trinity Church choir in Montague, and also of the Women's Missionary society and Women's Auxiliary.

The last year of her life was saddened by the death of two sons, Rev. Harry J. Vickerson, Somerville, Mass., who passed away January 7th, 1959.

She leaves to mourn one daughter, Edith, Mrs. Harry MacGregor, Montague; two sons, Howard of Montague with whom she resided, and William of Charlottetown. Also left to mourn are a number of grandchildren and great grandchildren.

A largely attended funeral was held from Trinity United Church, on April 11th with Rev. J.M. Fraser conducting the service. The choir, with Mrs. L.A. Johnston as organist sang "Safe in the Bye and Bye" and the Brooklyn trio beautifully rendered "The Beautiful Land".

Rev. J.M. Fraser chose his text from Romans, 8:37, "We are more than conquerors through Christ who loved us". In paying tribute to the late Mrs. Vickerson, he spoke of her triumphant faith and her ability to rise above trials and sorrows.

The Pallbearers were her nephews Henry MacLaren, Irving Tweedy, Judge George Tweedy, Fred Shaw, J.J. Stewart and Malcolm MacLean.

Flower bearers were Harold Brothers, Gavin Hicken, William Steele, A. F. Campbell, William Annear, C.A. Shaw, John Annear and Malcom Martin.

Interment took place in the Montague Community Cemetery.

Montague Men Conduct Service

MONTAGUE — The Men's Association was in charge of the evening service at St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, Montague, Sunday.

H. C. Johnstone conducted the service and the speaker was Harry Miller who chose as the theme of his address "Adventures In Life."

The male choir was under the direction of Malcolm Munroe, with Mrs. A. F. Campbell as organist. The hymn "Shall You, Shall I?" was sung by the Brooklyn Trio and the and then by the choir was "Take the Name of Jesus With You." The congregational hymns were "O God Give Ear Unto My Cry," "Pass Me Not, O Gentle Saviour," Work for the Night is Coming" and "O Safe to the Rock."

The Scripture lesson was read by Mr. Johnston who also pronounced the benediction.

GEORGETOWN

Recent guests at the home of Mrs. Annie Gardiner were her daughter, Mrs. T.A. Harris and Mr. Harris, and their daughters Donna of Elmira; her daughter, Mrs. Leiws, Cantello, Mr. Cantello f Bridgetown and her daugher Mrs. Neil MacDonald of Seven Mile Road.

Miss Dorothy Jenkins of Charlottetown accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Florence Jenkins, motored to Georgetosn on Sunday and were guests at the home of Mrs. Jenkins' brother, Mr. J. F. Johnson.

Friends of Mrs. Charles Fraser, who is a member of the teaching staff of Georgetown High School, are sorry to hear that she has entered the Kings County Memorial Hospital in Montague and all wish her an early return to good health.

Mr. Bennie Watts of Tracadie, was a recent visitor to Georgetown, where he visited at the homes of many friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Murphy, were visitors to the City early in the week. A.C.
