

Mrs. E. ... left on Friday for Boston, Mass., to spend the Easter holidays with her mother and other members of her family, the Fogarty's. Mrs. ... was Mary Fogarty in single life. She will spend about two weeks in the big city.

Friends of Mr. Raymond Hughes were shocked on Thursday to learn of his sudden passing in the city following a heart attack at his work. The sincere sympathy of this vicinity is extended to his widow who also suffered the loss of her father only a few weeks ago.

Mrs. Gus MacDonald left on Saturday morning for Ottawa and other parts of Ontario to visit members of her family. Mrs. MacDonald will travel to Montreal by car and from there by train. She expects to be away for some time.

Friends of Mrs. Herb Kenny will regret to learn she has been a patient in the Charlottetown Hospital for ten days now. It is believed that she will be home again for Easter as she is reported as somewhat better now.

Mrs. Leonard Kane is a patient in the Charlottetown Hospital at present where she underwent a serious operation last week. Mr. and Mrs. Kane will be celebrating their thirty-second wedding anniversary on April 3rd and it is unfortunate that Mrs. Kane will not be home for the event that will be celebrated later. They reside in the city now and most of their well educated family are in different parts of the land.

Miss Muriel Villard, has taken a position in the city and has already taken up her duties there. She will be missed in the village by her young friends.

Several children from here have entered the hospital in the city for tonsil operations.

Friends of Mr. Louis Byrne will regret to learn he has re-entered the Charlottetown Hospital where, we are informed, he will undergo an operation.

The sad news that the last lobster packing plant here will be permanently closed this spring has been reported to us. The plant is owned by the Co-Op and was in operation last spring. Looking back, it's only a few years since three factories close together here were turning at top speed canning lob-

Dr. A. E. Ings, Montague, made a number of business calls in this vicinity recently.

Mr. John Drake, Hazelbrook, was a visitor to Lorne Valley on March 30.

Mrs. Daniel Shaw spent the past week visiting at the home of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Myers, Cardigan.

The Busy Valley Bees held their Red Cross meeting in the School on Friday. A large number answered the roll call with the name of "My favorite Song."

Mr. Heath MacGrath, Mr. Lloyd MacDonald and Mr. Francis MacIntyre were visitors to Millton on March 30. They also attended an Auction Sale at the farm of the late Willard Kelley at Southport.

A number of Lorne Valley School girls meet each Saturday.

Some of those who found employment right at their door for most of the summer must look to other parts for their living.

Some of the children here are still absent from school as the severe cold or flu is still going around. Several other mild illnesses are reported among the grown-ups. None of the sickness is reported as serious.

Some of the men who had full employment in the city on big jobs all fall and winter have to leave the jobs now to go back to their fishing. Those who follow the sea say that when the time comes it's like a bugle call or the dinner bell in their ears. That they can't resist; they must go back to it.

"The Messiah" is unquestionably one of the greatest works of its kind ever conceived by the mind of man. In its pages will be found music of both the simplest and most complex nature, but all of it is of the highest plane of inspirational beauty. It was composed by George Frederick Handel in 1741. Handel used as his text certain passages selected from the Bible.
