PARKING AND TRAFFIC

The Parking and Traffic Committee is presently reviewing rules and regulations controlling vehicle use on campus. We are anxious to hear from anyone who has complaints, suggestions or any sort of comment on this problem. Please contact Ian MacQuarrie, chairman Parking and Traffic Committee, c/o Biology Dept. D-416. Phone 168.

THANKS FELLAS!

The girls from Bernadine who had the honor of accompanying the gentlemen from Marian Hall to the Co-Ed Dance, would like to take this opportunity to thank them for the reception in Marian Hall before and after the dance. It was a very nice gesture on your behalf - a fine touch of class from a fine bunch of guys. Thanks.

Agenda: Executive Year-End Reports

When it comes to going, VIA makes your travel dollars go a lot further.

A great way to go. For heading home, or holiday travel, think VIA. The train means hassle-free travel with time to enjoy the scenery. Room to stretch out, or roam around. Visit the snack bar, meet friendly people.

Pick a saving. VIA's Fare For All Plan gives you a lot for your travel dollar. Plan your trip to qualify for a Round-Trip Excursion Fare and cut the cost of the return portion by two-thirds. Group Fares are a good thing, too. Two people or more travelling together qualify as a group and you can save from 15% to 40% off regular fares, depending on the size of the group.

Go exploring. A CANRAILPASS may be just the ticket. Passes are available for 15, 22 or 30 days and enable you to travel anywhere VIA trains go as often as you want within the time limit.

As with all special fares, some restrictions may apply, but you'll find it's easy to take advantage of VIA's Fare For All Plan. Just give us a call at VIA, or contact a Travel Agent. Making tracks with us is a pretty good deal, all round.

Be good to yourself, take the train.
