Gleaned by the Guardian Reporters

OATS on brisk demand to-day at 34c. Rev. GREGORY McDONALD, of Summerside, is in the city.

Rev. S. C. F. Lowe and H. Dickie of Summerside are registered at the Davies.

Sailed from Falmouth, April 15th, barque Charbel, Walsh, for Ch'town.

FRESH herring could be bought for 8 cents per doz in the market yesterday.

Mr. JAMES ROBERTS had dandelions and sweet peas in bloom in the market Tuesday.

Mr. H. Heber Haslam returned to the city last evening, and is registered at the Davies.

MR. SAMUEL J. RICHIEY, representing A. Isaacs, manufacturer of Havana cigars, St. John, N. B., is in the city.

By cable to Messrs. Richards of Bideford, barque Flora arrived at Buenos Ayres from Cardiff, Wales, on the 30th ult.

REV. W. P. ARCHIBALD, who has been visiting friends in Nova Scotia for some weeks past, returned to the city last evening.

DR. C. A. MACPHEE, of Hampton, arrived in the city, Monday evening, from Toronto, and will spend a few months on the island, previous to leaving for Edinburgh.

We opened last Saturday some very beautiful Smyrna rugs. We also opened a sample Smyrna stripe on purpose for a hall, very pretty.—Jas Paton & Co. Market Sq.

VICTORIA Lodge, A. F. and A. M. presented their Chaplain, Rev. James Carruthers, with an address and a gold headed walking cane, previous to his departure for New Glasgow.

The quarterly meeting of the Presbytery of P. E. Island will be held in Summerside Wednesday, May 11th, at 11 a. m. Elders and commissioners will get the usual reduction on the railway.

GUARD and Infantry.—The artillery, engineers and infantry to compose the guard of honor for the closing of the 10th Legislature, will assemble at the Drill Shed on Thursday afternoon, next, at 3 o'clock.

We are glad to see the violators of the Sunday Observance Law receive no quarter before our Stipendiary Magistrate.

Two saloon keepers having owned up to their offence, Tuesday morning, were fined, and another charged with the same offence appears this morning.

HON. D. FARQUHARSON'S new Steamer made a trial trip outside the harbor Monday afternoon, with satisfactory results.

She left for Canoe Cove Tuesday morning, when she will be more thoroughly tested in connection with the extensive lobster business of Messrs Farquharson and Stewart, along that coast. We wish them success.

COL. MCKIE, travelling commissioner of the Salvation Army, and the General's representative for foreign lands, is expected in Charlottetown on the 14th inst. He will conduct special meetings in this city. The Col. is one of the mightiest men in the Salvation Army, and outside the General's own family has been the most successful worker, thousands of souls having been converted in his meetings.

We wish to thank our friend, Captain Ronald McKinnon, who is now in the Old Country, for copies of the Edinburgh Scotsman, Glasgow Herald, and the City of Paris Gazette. This last is a lively little sheet published on board the City of Paris. It provides interesting reading during spare moments by collecting the various incidents of the voyage and selections of general reading matter. It serves admirably as a souvenir of the voyage to friends at home.

THE HATTIE LOUISE.—The brig, Hattie Louise, Captain Sanderson, which arrived here on Monday evening from Antigua and Trinidad, brought a full cargo of molasses and sugar for Carvell Bros. The cargo is said to be of the very choicest, having been selected by Capt. W. H. Bernard, who went out ahead of the vessel.

The Hattie Louise had a pleasant passage, with the exception of some gales experienced between Bermuda and the Gulf Stream. She left Antigua on April 9th.

THE young people in connection with the Baptist congregation of the city met in the vestry Monday evening to spend an hour or two in social conversation and literary entertainment. Quite a number were present. The usual conventionalities were thrown aside. Everyone appeared happy, and anxious to make others feel so, and the moments passed pleasantly away. The program had but one fault—its brevity; but it was thoroughly enjoyed as far as it went. Ice cream and cake contributed materially to the enjoyment of the occasion, and a warm way feeling that a very pleasant evening had been spent.

MR. RODRICK McNEILL, B. A. one of Dalhousie's most successful graduates returned home yesterday evening. Mr. McNeill deserves credit for the manner in which he has worked his way through, and the standing taken by him in the recent examination. Starting with a Prince of Wales Scholarship, he secured exhibitions at Dalhousie which have enabled him to make his complete course of six years self sustaining. Mr. McNeill is a son of James McNeill, Esq., of St. Catharines, Lot 65, who is well known as one of the most experienced and successful teachers on the island. Three other sons are also students, whom, we expect yet to see distinguishing themselves.

WEDDING BELLS.—Says the Boston Globe: Beesley Grove, the residence of Mr. Henry Gooderham, 180 Wesley Crescent, was the scene of a quiet but very pretty wedding yesterday afternoon. It was the marriage of Archibald Morrison Huestis, son of Rev. S. F. Huestis of Halifax, to Miss Florence Gooderham Hamilton, niece of Mr. Henry Gooderham. The Rev. Dr. Briggs, assisted by Rev. Thos. Manning, B. A., performed the ceremony. Miss Dora Gooderham, cousin of the bride, gracefully performed the duties of bridesmaid, while Mr. Walter H. Clomes supported the groom. Mr. and Mrs. Huestis left by the 4.55 train for Boston and the Maritime Provinces, taking with them the hearty well-wishes of their many friends.

FROM THE WEST

SUMMERSIDE NEWS

Branch Office, Central St.

THE members of the Hand Engine Co will be summoned for their monthly call Thursday afternoon.

SEASON tickets for the S'ide driving park are now on sale and can be had from the Secretary, Mr. R. Hunt.

MR. George Leard of Alberton, who has been spending a few days in S'ide went west on the noon train yesterday.

THE Northumberland arrived here at about 6 p. m. last Monday evening with 15 passengers and 7 carloads of mixed freight.

THE F. C. Batt towed another con- signment of lobster traps to the fishing ground yesterday. It is thought a catch will be effected today.

Mrs. James B. Higin, daughter of Mr. R. Hunt, of this town, arrived home, via the Northumberland, Monday evening, on a visit to her relatives and friends.

MR. John McCall commenced his duties as night policeman at 10 p. m. last Saturday night. Mr. A. McFarlane, resigned, is engaged with Messrs Schurman & Clarke as a carpenter.

ACCORDING to telegraphic advices received Monday evening by the agent, Mr. W. G. Schurman, the Miramichi left Quebec for S'ide and intermediate ports, May 2nd, and will probably arrive here on the 6th inst.

NO. 1 train from Charlottetown was one hour and twenty-five minutes late yesterday. This is owing to the increased work which the train men had along the line, caused by the withdrawal of train No. 4—a new feature of the inconveniences caused by the railway changes.

THE exports by the Steer. Northumberland, yesterday, as to the U. S., 1300 cases eggs, $338; 1 horse, $85; 1 box game, $7; 3 barrels potatoes, $2; 10 bags potatoes, $5. To the Dominion, 5 bushels oats, $2; 46 barrels oysters, $92; 450 bushels potatoes, $90. Total, $621.

BEAVER Co. had their monthly roll call and a practice at 7 o'clock on Monday evening. The engine was hauled to the scene, Queen's Wharf, by Mr. C. Arsenault's team of horses. The practice was a creditable one to the company, a sufficient head of steam being attained in seven minutes.

POTATOES are only worth from 16 to 18 cents in S'ide at present. These are very low figures, as the shrinkage which this article of commerce undergoes during the winter in cellars and other places of storage renders the profit to the farmer very small, and we learn that in some cases they are being fed to cattle and other stock profusely.

HOTEL ARRIVALS.—Hotel Russ: Miss Jennie Smith, Miss Addie Smith, Bloomfield; Henry Black, Philadelphia; Rev. J. A. Cahill, Redegus, Clifton House; J. Friedman, Montreal; William Harris, St. Thomas; T. W. W. Atwood, Portland, Maine; G. Noxon, Ingersoll, Ont.; H. C. Creighton, St. John; W. Wright, Montreal; E. W. Barlow, Montreal; W. A. Pugsley, Toronto; E. J. Todd, St. John.
