NEW YORK

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market moved irregularly Thursday in active trading but edged to a high for the year in the Associated Press average.

With prices at their crest for the year, considerable profit-taking was in order. This was combined, however, with some investment demand which pushed some issues ahead.

The industrial section was higher in the associated Press average. Motors, aircrafts, rubbers and tobaccos were irregular.

Drugs declined and there were losses among the non-ferrous metals and chemicals.

The AP 60-stock average was up 10 cents to $136.70, a 1958 high, with industrials up 70 cents, rails down 70 cents and utilities up 10 cents.

Among Canadian issues, Walter Gooderham gained 3/4, Aluminum Ltd. lost 1/4, International Nickel 1/4 and Granby Mining and Dome Mines 1/4 each.

Shawinigan was up 3/4 and Jupiter Oils 1/4 in the Canadian section of the American exchange.

Zureka and Molybdenite each gained 1-16. Fargo Oil lost 1/4, Sapphire Petroleum and Preston East Dome 1-16 each. Campbell-Chibigama was down also.
