

Ethan Garrett Elected President Jr. Farmers

Ethan Garrett of East Baltic was elected president of the Prince Edward Island Junior Farmers' Federation at a meeting of directors last night. Mr. Garrett succeeds Douglas Profit of Freetown. Isabel Stead of North River was named vice-president. The annual meeting was held a couple of weeks ago and this was the first meeting of the board of directors. It was held in the department of agriculture board room. The meeting discussed plans for the winter, including group debates. Also discussed was a dairy province contest, to be held in conjunction with the Dairy Farmers' association and a centennial agricultural contest, in co-operation with the hope of having a part in the Old Home Week observance.

MEMORIAL BOOKCASE PRESENTED

Mrs. W. A. McMurtry, regent of the Earl of Hillsboro Chapter of the IOOE yesterday afternoon presented a memorial bookcase and books to the children's ward at the Rehabilitation Center. The library was presented in memory of the late Mrs. Frank Johnson, Dr. Todor Gencheff, accepted the keys to the bookcase on behalf of the Rehabilitation Center. Left to right are Ray Heckbert, 8, and Debbie Gallant, a former "Timmy", Dr. Gencheff and Mrs. McMurtry.

Borden Reports $18,000 Surplus

BORDEN — At last night's regular meeting of the Borden Town Council, finance chairman, Jack McIsaac, reported that the town for November the financial picture of the town shows a surplus of $18,000. The surplus is due to a healthy situation as it has been in for a long time. The council gave final approval on three major points, one of them being the unanimous decision by the council for the town to become a member in the Canadian Federation of Mayors and Municipalities. It was also decided that action will be taken immediately to wipe out the menace presented by dogs running at large through the town. The third decision was to enforce the curfew by-law. Starting on Jan. 1, 1963 the fire boys will sound at 9 p.m. at which time all young people under 16 years of age must be in their homes unless accompanied by a parent. Fire committee chairman, James Brown, reported that the past month was quiet, and that all freighting equipment is in first class condition. The department report, Town Council.

WOOD-TURNED products of all shapes and sizes were on display last night at Central Queens Regional High School Hunter River, as 12 graduates of the province's first government sponsored handicraft course were presented with certificates. The two-week course was held at the school and conducted by Alfred Pringle of New Brunswick. Here Premier Walter R. Shaw examines one of the finished products. Also looking at the display are Carl Reigh Bagnall, Hunter River, a graduate, and Mrs. J.E. Cousin, Hunter River.

First Students Graduate From Woodturning Class

Premier Walter R. Shaw said last night he was amazed at the "instant" amount of material turned out by the first students to complete the first government-sponsored handicraft course in this province. Twelve students were presented with diplomas by Premier Shaw last night as they graduated from the two-week woodturning course at Central Queens Regional High School, Hunter River. They included James Stephen Burns, Ethel Margaret Bagnall, Robert George Andrews, Carl Reigh Bagnall, Hunter River; Reginald Bagdole Simpson, John Eric Simpson, Cameron Robert Craig Montgomery, Harold Waugh Campbell, Bedeque; Harold Cecil Stewart, Sherwood; Urban Joseph Farrell, Summerside; Cornelius Aten, Brookfield; Donald Francis Stewart, Burnaby and Mrs. Roland Schlick, Windsor. Instructor for the course was Alfred Pringle, New Brunswick. Premier Shaw said the government has a "vision of what can be done. We believe the resources development program, stripped of prejudice and politics, will unfold until this province is a land of greater population, greater wealth and greater happiness." Also speaking briefly were Hon. J. David Stewart, minister of tourism; Hon. J. Philip Matheson, minister of highways; Hartwell Dalry, director of research; Lloyd MacPhail, M.L.A.; Mr. Pringle, and Charles MacCounrey, chairman of Central Queens Regional High School, Wendall Mackay, deputy provincial secretary, chaired the meeting. Mr. Pringle was presented with gifts by Mr. Stewart, and representatives of the day and night classes. Mr. Stewart referring to the course as the beginning of a basic home industry in the province.

Grade 6 Selected For Tests In '63

Grade six was selected for a Maritime Province testing project in 1963, it was announced following a meeting yesterday at Amherst, N.S. Last year the provinces tested 6,000 grade six students. The project was discussed by an inter-provincial committee on grade standards. It was revealed last year's test showed some weakness in reading and arithmetic. Pupils in this province compared favorably with those from the mainland. Also attending was the education research council. Malcolm MacKenzie, deputy minister of education for P.E.I.

LATE NOTICES

(Also see announcements in columns adjoining Classified Advertising section.)

McNABB — At the Sacred Heart Home, Dec. 14, 1962, Margaret McKibbin formerly of Boston. Resting at the Henessey Funeral Home from where the funeral will be held Monday morning at 8:45 to St. Dunstan's Basilica for Requiem High Mass at 9 o'clock. Interment will take place in Coran Ban cemetery.

WEBSTER — At the P.E.I. Hospital, Dec. 13, 1962, Everett W. Webster, 41, Hawthorne Avenue in his 85th year. Resting at the Cutcliffe Home until 9 o'clock Saturday, then to Marie Union Church, service commencing at 2:30. Interment in Mount Cemetery. Please omit flowers.

PINEAU — At the Charlottetown Hospital, Dec. 13, 1962, Donald Pineau, New Glasgow Mills, in his 74th year. His remains were forwarded Friday afternoon from the Charlottetown General Home to his late residence from where the funeral will be held Monday morning, leaving the house at 8:45. Requiem High Mass at St. Ann's Church, Holy River, at 9:30. Interment will be in the church cemetery.

WILLIAMS — At his residence 18 Upper Prince Street, Friday, Dec. 13, 1962, J.A. (Bert) Williams in his 81st year. Resting at the MacLean Funeral Home from where a Masonic service will be held Sunday evening at 8:30 o'clock. Funeral Monday, Dec. 17, from St. Peter's Cathedral with service commencing at 10 a.m. Interment will take place in St. Peter's Anglican cemetery. Visitation hours commencing at 2 p.m. today.

MacDONALD — Suddenly at his home in Souris, Friday, Dec. 14, 1962, Chester Donald in his 59th year. His remains are resting at the Ferry Funeral Home from where the funeral will be held Monday morning leaving the funeral home at 8:45 for St. Mary's Church, Souris. Interment will be in the church cemetery.

CNR Party Visits Island

Four Canadian National Railway representatives from Moncton spent Thursday in the province inspecting railway lines and facilities and meeting with government officials. They were Ernest Cook, CNR general manager; Walter Mitchell, operations manager; Stuart G. Smith, assistant superintendent of transportation; and L. P. Lundy, area engineer.

In a meeting with Premier Walter R. Shaw the group was told that the government would appreciate any action taken to improve the forestal congestion in ferry services during the winter. Also at the meeting were Industry and National Resources Minister Leo Rossiter and Transportation director Graham Roberts.

Borden Reports $18,000 Surplus

BORDEN — At last night's regular meeting of the Borden Town Council, finance chairman, Jack McIsaac, reported that the town for November the financial picture of the town shows a surplus of $18,000. The surplus is due to a healthy situation as it has been in for a long time. The council gave final approval on three major points, one of them being the unanimous decision by the council for the town to become a member in the Canadian Federation of Mayors and Municipalities. It was also decided that action will be taken immediately to wipe out the menace presented by dogs running at large through the town. The third decision was to enforce the curfew by-law. Starting on Jan. 1, 1963 the fire boys will sound at 9 p.m. at which time all young people under 16 years of age must be in their homes unless accompanied by a parent. Fire committee chairman, James Brown, reported that the past month was quiet, and that all freighting equipment is in first class condition. The department report, Town Council.

FOUR-COLOR AD IS PUBLISHED

A milestone in color advertising was reached yesterday with the publication of the first four-color advertisement ever to appear in an Island newspaper. The advertisement for Ben's Bar appeared in The Evening Patriot and appears today in the Guardian on page 1. The ad in red, blue, yellow and black was prepared by the homes sales company, Agency.

End Of Squabble Sought By ECAC

NEW YORK (AP)—The Eastern Amateur Athletic Conference urged emphatically Friday that the squabbling Amateur Athletic Union and National Collegiate Athletic Association submit their differences to binding arbitration by Jan. 1, and warned that it would take action in case they do not. The squabbling test - member conference said if the two groups do not start the arbitration proceedings by Jan. 1, it will "urgently request all its member colleges to allow their undergraduate track and field athletes to engage only in closed collegiate competition and such open competition as 'on school' meets." The NCAA-supported U.S. Track and Field Federation, however, denied it was in attendance for this event and it was much enjoyed.

Horse Trainer Is Suspended For 10 Years

BALTIMORE (AP) — Trainer Alex Pollock of Silver Spring, Md., was suspended for 10 years Friday by the Maryland Racing Commission for participating in an illegal claim during the Timonium Fairgrounds meeting last summer. During a hearing earlier this year, John Speaks of Bethesda, Md., claimed he had given Pollock $1,000 to be used in claiming the filly Southern Flight. Pollock, however, denied he had ever seen Speaks, who was not eligible to take possession of a horse by claim.

United Fund Nears Target

The Prince Edward Island United Fund is 92 per cent of its objective of $227,487, officials announced last night. With requests coming from many country points, the total now stands at $207,215.57 or 91 per cent. The last cards in Charlottetown are being cleaned up and the next meeting will be held Sunday evening at the Charlottetown provincial division over its objective. The division now stands at $8,100 or 102 per cent.

GIFT HIM WARMLY
With Quality CLOTHING
from DOW'S
● Men's Sweaters
● Belts and Jumpsuits
● Billmore HATS
● Tooke SHIRTS
● MacGregor SOX
● SLIPPERS
● UTEK JACKETS 144 Great George St. Charlottetown

ANNOUNCEMENT
We wish to announce that we have added a complete service for domestic and commercial refrigerators in addition to automatic washers and dryers as well as wringer type washers. We have the latest and best test equipment etc., to assure you of speedy, economical service.
HUESTIS TV CENTRE
Summerside Phone 3201

Manslaughter Trial Jury Says Accused Guilty Of Assault Only

SUMMERSIDE — A petit jury returned a verdict of guilty of manslaughter but not of assault in the case of Earl Joseph Brennan of Sea View P.O. which concluded in Supreme Court, Summerside yesterday. Chief Justice Thane A. Campbell presided. On motion of Deputy Attorney-General J. Arthur McLean a stay of proceedings was granted against Donald Joseph Brennan, brother of Earl Joseph Brennan, who was charged with criminal negligence arising from the circumstances that resulted in the death of Roy Hackett. During his summation, defense counsel, J. Watson MacNaught, QC, referred to the affair as a "Bacchanalian Orgy" that was going on. MacNaught said "we have a document in Canada to which some of our pay lip service. It is called the bill of rights." He said that as a result of the evidence given in this case, this document "might as well be thrown in the dust bin. It has no meaning." Mr. MacNaught said he couldn't recall of a case in Canada since he started practicing law where a boy of 18 was held incommunicado for 27 hours. I wonder if we realize where we are drifting in this country. To me it is revolting and shocking that a young boy should be kept in a room for 27 hours and refused permission to phone his sister." He said to the jury "this is not the way a democracy works." He said in countries that have drifted into a police state citizens have felt that "it can't happen to my boy. But, jury returned a verdict of guilty of assault in the case of Earl Joseph Brennan of Sea View P.O. which concluded in Supreme Court, Summerside yesterday. Chief Justice Thane A. Campbell presided. On motion of Deputy Attorney-General J. Arthur McLean a stay of proceedings was granted against Donald Joseph Brennan, brother of Earl Joseph Brennan, who was charged with criminal negligence arising from the circumstances that resulted in the death of Roy Hackett. During his summation, defense counsel, J. Watson MacNaught, QC, referred to the affair as a "Bacchanalian Orgy" that was going on. MacNaught said "we have a document in Canada to which some of our pay lip service. It is called the bill of rights." He said that as a result of the evidence given in this case, this document "might as well be thrown in the dust bin. It has no meaning." Mr. MacNaught said he couldn't recall of a case in Canada since he started practicing law where a boy of 18 was held incommunicado for 27 hours. I wonder if we realize where we are drifting in this country. To me it is revolting and shocking that a young boy should be kept in a room for 27 hours and refused permission to phone his sister." He said to the jury "this is not the way a democracy works." He said in countries that have drifted into a police state citizens have felt that "it can't happen to my boy. But, jury returned a verdict of guilty of assault in the case of Earl Joseph Brennan of Sea View P.O. which concluded in Supreme Court, Summerside yesterday. Chief Justice Thane A. Campbell presided. On motion of Deputy Attorney-General J. Arthur McLean a stay of proceedings was granted against Donald Joseph Brennan, brother of Earl Joseph Brennan, who was charged with criminal negligence arising from the circumstances that resulted in the death of Roy Hackett. During his summation, defense counsel, J. Watson MacNaught, QC, referred to the affair as a "Bacchanalian Orgy" that was going on. MacNaught said "we have a document in Canada to which some of our pay lip service. It is called the bill of rights." He said that as a result of the evidence given in this case, this document "might as well be thrown in the dust bin. It has no meaning." Mr. MacNaught said he couldn't recall of a case in Canada since he started practicing law where a boy of 18 was held incommunicado for 27 hours. I wonder if we realize where we are drifting in this country. To me it is revolting and shocking that a young boy should be kept in a room for 27 hours and refused permission to phone his sister." He said to the jury "this is not the way a democracy works." He said in countries that have drifted into a police state citizens have felt that "it can't happen to my boy. But, jury returned a verdict of guilty of assault in the case of Earl Joseph Brennan of Sea View P.O. which concluded in Supreme Court, Summerside yesterday. Chief Justice Thane A. Campbell presided. On motion of Deputy Attorney-General J. Arthur McLean a stay of proceedings was granted against Donald Joseph Brennan, brother of Earl Joseph Brennan, who was charged with criminal negligence arising from the circumstances that resulted in the death of Roy Hackett. During his summation, defense counsel, J. Watson MacNaught, QC, referred to the affair as a "Bacchanalian Orgy" that was going on. MacNaught said "we have a document in Canada to which some of our pay lip service. It is called the bill of rights." He said that as a result of the evidence given in this case, this document "might as well be thrown in the dust bin. It has no meaning." Mr. MacNaught said he couldn't recall of a case in Canada since he started practicing law where a boy of 18 was held incommunicado for 27 hours. I wonder if we realize where we are drifting in this country. To me it is revolting and shocking that a young boy should be kept in a room for 27 hours and refused permission to phone his sister." He said to the jury "this is not the way a democracy works." He said in countries that have drifted into a police state citizens have felt that "it can't happen to my boy. But, jury returned a verdict of guilty of assault in the case of Earl Joseph Brennan of Sea View P.O. which concluded in Supreme Court, Summerside yesterday. Chief Justice Thane A. Campbell presided. On motion of Deputy Attorney-General J. Arthur McLean a stay of proceedings was granted against Donald Joseph Brennan, brother of Earl Joseph Brennan, who was charged with criminal negligence arising from the circumstances that resulted in the death of Roy Hackett. During his summation, defense counsel, J. Watson MacNaught, QC, referred to the affair as a "Bacchanalian Orgy" that was going on. MacNaught said "we have a document in Canada to which some of our pay lip service. It is called the bill of rights." He said that as a result of the evidence given in this case, this document "might as well be thrown in the dust bin. It has no meaning." Mr. MacNaught said he couldn't recall of a case in Canada since he started practicing law where a boy of 18 was held incommunicado for 27 hours. I wonder if we realize where we are drifting in this country. To me it is revolting and shocking that a young boy should be kept in a room for 27 hours and refused permission to phone his sister." He said to the jury "this is not the way a democracy works." He said in countries that have drifted into a police state citizens have felt that "it can't happen to my boy. But, jury returned a verdict of guilty of assault in the case of Earl Joseph Brennan of Sea View P.O. which concluded in Supreme Court, Summerside yesterday. Chief Justice Thane A. Campbell presided. On motion of Deputy Attorney-General J. Arthur McLean a stay of proceedings was granted against Donald Joseph Brennan, brother of Earl Joseph Brennan, who was charged with criminal negligence arising from the circumstances that resulted in the death of Roy Hackett. During his summation, defense counsel, J. Watson MacNaught, QC, referred to the affair as a "Bacchanalian Orgy" that was going on. MacNaught said "we have a document in Canada to which some of our pay lip service. It is called the bill of rights." He said that as a result of the evidence given in this case, this document "might as well be thrown in the dust bin. It has no meaning." Mr. MacNaught said he couldn't recall of a case in Canada since he started practicing law where a boy of 18 was held incommunicado for 27 hours. I wonder if we realize where we are drifting in this country. To me it is revolting and shocking that a young boy should be kept in a room for 27 hours and refused permission to phone his sister." He said to the jury "this is not the way a democracy works." He said in countries that have drifted into a police state citizens have felt that "it can't happen to my boy. But, jury returned a verdict of guilty of assault in the case of Earl Joseph Brennan of Sea View P.O. which concluded in Supreme Court, Summerside yesterday. Chief Justice Thane A. Campbell presided. On motion of Deputy Attorney-General J. Arthur McLean a stay of proceedings was granted against Donald Joseph Brennan, brother of Earl Joseph Brennan, who was charged with criminal negligence arising from the circumstances that resulted in the death of Roy Hackett. During his summation, defense counsel, J. Watson MacNaught, QC, referred to the affair as a "Bacchanalian Orgy" that was going on. MacNaught said "we have a document in Canada to which some of our pay lip service. It is called the bill of rights." He said that as a result of the evidence given in this case, this document "might as well be thrown in the dust bin. It has no meaning." Mr. MacNaught said he couldn't recall of a case in Canada since he started practicing law where a boy of 18 was held incommunicado for 27 hours. I wonder if we realize where we are drifting in this country. To me it is revolting and shocking that a young boy should be kept in a room for 27 hours and refused permission to phone his sister." He said to the jury "this is not the way a democracy works." He said in countries that have drifted into a police state citizens have felt that "it can't happen to my boy. But, jury returned a verdict of guilty of assault in the case of Earl Joseph Brennan of Sea View P.O. which concluded in Supreme Court, Summerside yesterday. Chief Justice Thane A. Campbell presided. On motion of Deputy Attorney-General J. Arthur McLean a stay of proceedings was granted against Donald Joseph Brennan, brother of Earl Joseph Brennan, who was charged with criminal negligence arising from the circumstances that resulted in the death of Roy Hackett. During his summation, defense counsel, J. Watson MacNaught, QC, referred to the affair as a "Bacchanalian Orgy" that was going on. MacNaught said "we have a document in Canada to which some of our pay lip service. It is called the bill of rights." He said that as a result of the evidence given in this case, this document "might as well be thrown in the dust bin. It has no meaning." Mr. MacNaught said he couldn't recall of a case in Canada since he started practicing law where a boy of 18 was held incommunicado for 27 hours. I wonder if we realize where we are drifting in this country. To me it is revolting and shocking that a young boy should be kept in a room for 27 hours and refused permission to phone his sister." He said to the jury "this is not the way a democracy works." He said in countries that have drifted into a police state citizens have felt that "it can't happen to my boy. But, jury returned a verdict of guilty of assault in the case of Earl Joseph Brennan of Sea View P.O. which concluded in Supreme Court, Summerside yesterday. Chief Justice Thane A. Campbell presided. On motion of Deputy Attorney-General J. Arthur McLean a stay of proceedings was granted against Donald Joseph Brennan, brother of Earl Joseph Brennan, who was charged with criminal negligence arising from the circumstances that resulted in the death of Roy Hackett. During his summation, defense counsel, J. Watson MacNaught, QC, referred to the affair as a "Bacchanalian Orgy" that was going on. MacNaught said "we have a document in Canada to which some of our pay lip service. It is called the bill of rights." He said that as a result of the evidence given in this case, this document "might as well be thrown in the dust bin. It has no meaning." Mr. MacNaught said he couldn't recall of a case in Canada since he started practicing law where a boy of 18 was held incommunicado for 27 hours. I wonder if we realize where we are drifting in this country. To me it is revolting and shocking that a young boy should be kept in a room for 27 hours and refused permission to phone his sister." He said to the jury "this is not the way a democracy works." He said in countries that have drifted into a police state citizens have felt that "it can't happen to my boy. But, jury returned a verdict of guilty of assault in the case of Earl Joseph Brennan of Sea View P.O. which concluded in Supreme Court, Summerside yesterday. Chief Justice Thane A. Campbell presided. On motion of Deputy Attorney-General J. Arthur McLean a stay of proceedings was granted against Donald Joseph Brennan, brother of Earl Joseph Brennan, who was charged with criminal negligence arising from the circumstances that resulted in the death of Roy Hackett. During his summation, defense counsel, J. Watson MacNaught, QC, referred to the affair as a "Bacchanalian Orgy" that was going on. MacNaught said "we have a document in Canada to which some of our pay lip service. It is called the bill of rights." He said that as a result of the evidence given in this case, this document "might as well be thrown in the dust bin. It has no meaning." Mr. MacNaught said he couldn't recall of a case in Canada since he started practicing law where a boy of 18 was held incommunicado for 27 hours. I wonder if we realize where we are drifting in this country. To me it is revolting and shocking that a young boy should be kept in a room for 27 hours and refused permission to phone his sister." He said to the jury "this is not the way a democracy works." He said in countries that have drifted into a police state citizens have felt that "it can't happen to my boy. But, jury returned a verdict of guilty of assault in the case of Earl Joseph Brennan of Sea View P.O. which concluded in Supreme Court, Summerside yesterday. Chief Justice Thane A. Campbell presided. On motion of Deputy Attorney-General J. Arthur McLean a stay of proceedings was granted against Donald Joseph Brennan, brother of Earl Joseph Brennan, who was charged with criminal negligence arising from the circumstances that resulted in the death of Roy Hackett. During his summation, defense counsel, J. Watson MacNaught, QC, referred to the affair as a "Bacchanalian Orgy" that was going on. MacNaught said "we have a document in Canada to which some of our pay lip service. It is called the bill of rights." He said that as a result of the evidence given in this case, this document "might as well be thrown in the dust bin. It has no meaning." Mr. MacNaught said he couldn't recall of a case in Canada since he started practicing law where a boy of 18 was held incommunicado for 27 hours. I wonder if we realize where we are drifting in this country. To me it is revolting and shocking that a young boy should be kept in a room for 27 hours and refused permission to phone his sister." He said to the jury "this is not the way a democracy works." He said in countries that have drifted into a police state citizens have felt that "it can't happen to my boy. But, jury returned a verdict of guilty of assault in the case of Earl Joseph Brennan of Sea View P.O. which concluded in Supreme Court, Summerside yesterday. Chief Justice Thane A. Campbell presided. On motion of Deputy Attorney-General J. Arthur McLean a stay of proceedings was granted against Donald Joseph Brennan, brother of Earl Joseph Brennan, who was charged with criminal negligence arising from the circumstances that resulted in the death of Roy Hackett. During his summation, defense counsel, J. Watson MacNaught, QC, referred to the affair as a "Bacchanalian Orgy" that was going on. MacNaught said "we have a document in Canada to which some of our pay lip service. It is called the bill of rights." He said that as a result of the evidence given in this case, this document "might as well be thrown in the dust bin. It has no meaning." Mr. MacNaught said he couldn't recall of a case in Canada since he started practicing law where a boy of 18 was held incommunicado for 27 hours. I wonder if we realize where we are drifting in this country. To me it is revolting and shocking that a young boy should be kept in a room for 27 hours and refused permission to phone his sister." He said to the jury "this is not the way a democracy works." He said in countries that have drifted into a police state citizens have felt that "it can't happen to my boy. But, jury returned a verdict of guilty of assault in the case of Earl Joseph Brennan of Sea View P.O. which concluded in Supreme Court, Summerside yesterday. Chief Justice Thane A. Campbell presided. On motion of Deputy Attorney-General J. Arthur McLean a stay of proceedings was granted against Donald Joseph Brennan, brother of Earl Joseph Brennan, who was charged with criminal negligence arising from the circumstances that resulted in the death of Roy Hackett. During his summation, defense counsel, J. Watson MacNaught, QC, referred to the affair as a "Bacchanalian Orgy" that was going on. MacNaught said "we have a document in Canada to which some of our pay lip service. It is called the bill of rights." He said that as a result of the evidence given in this case, this document "might as well be thrown in the dust bin. It has no meaning." Mr. MacNaught said he couldn't recall of a case in Canada since he started practicing law where a boy of 18 was held incommunicado for 27 hours. I wonder if we realize where we are drifting in this country. To me it is revolting and shocking that a young boy should be kept in a room for 27 hours and refused permission to phone his sister." He said to the jury "this is not the way a democracy works." He said in countries that have drifted into a police state citizens have felt that "it can't happen to my boy. But, jury returned a verdict of guilty of assault in the case of Earl Joseph Brennan of Sea View P.O. which concluded in Supreme Court, Summerside yesterday. Chief Justice Thane A. Campbell presided. On motion of Deputy Attorney-General J. Arthur McLean a stay of proceedings was granted against Donald Joseph Brennan, brother of Earl Joseph Brennan, who was charged with criminal negligence arising from the circumstances that resulted in the death of Roy Hackett. During his summation, defense counsel, J. Watson MacNaught, QC, referred to the affair as a "Bacchanalian Orgy" that was going on. MacNaught said "we have a document in Canada to which some of our pay lip service. It is called the bill of rights." He said that as a result of the evidence given in this case, this document "might as well be thrown in the dust bin. It has no meaning." Mr. MacNaught said he couldn't recall of a case in Canada since he started practicing law where a boy of 18 was held incommunicado for 27 hours. I wonder if we realize where we are drifting in this country. To me it is revolting and shocking that a young boy should be kept in a room for 27 hours and refused permission to phone his sister." He said to the jury "this is not the way a democracy works." He said in countries that have drifted into a police state citizens have felt that "it can't happen to my boy. But, jury returned a verdict of guilty of assault in the case of Earl Joseph Brennan of Sea View P.O. which concluded in Supreme Court, Summerside yesterday. Chief Justice Thane A. Campbell presided. On motion of Deputy Attorney-General J. Arthur McLean a stay of proceedings was granted against Donald Joseph Brennan, brother of Earl Joseph Brennan, who was charged with criminal negligence arising from the circumstances that resulted in the death of Roy Hackett. During his summation, defense counsel, J. Watson MacNaught, QC, referred to the affair as a "Bacchanalian Orgy" that was going on. MacNaught said "we have a document in Canada to which some of our pay lip service. It is called the bill of rights." He said that as a result of the evidence given in this case, this document "might as well be thrown in the dust bin. It has no meaning." Mr. MacNaught said he couldn't recall of a case in Canada since he started practicing law where a boy of 18 was held incommunicado for 27 hours. I wonder if we realize where we are drifting in this country. To me it is revolting and shocking that a young boy should be kept in a room for 27 hours and refused permission to phone his sister." He said to the jury "this is not the way a democracy works." He said in countries that have drifted into a police state citizens have felt that "it can't happen to my boy. But, jury returned a verdict of guilty of assault in the case of Earl Joseph Brennan of Sea View P.O. which concluded in Supreme Court, Summerside yesterday. Chief Justice Thane A. Campbell presided. On motion of Deputy Attorney-General J. Arthur McLean a stay of proceedings was granted against Donald Joseph Brennan, brother of Earl Joseph Brennan, who was charged with criminal negligence arising from the circumstances that resulted in the death of Roy Hackett. During his summation, defense counsel, J. Watson MacNaught, QC, referred to the affair as a "Bacchanalian Orgy" that was going on. MacNaught said "we have a document in Canada to which some of our pay lip service. It is called the bill of rights." He said that as a result of the evidence given in this case, this document "might as well be thrown in the dust bin. It has no meaning." Mr. MacNaught said he couldn't recall of a case in Canada since he started practicing law where a boy of 18 was held incommunicado for 27 hours. I wonder if we realize where we are drifting in this country. To me it is revolting and shocking that a young boy should be kept in a room for 27 hours and refused permission to phone his sister." He said to the jury "this is not the way a democracy works." He said in countries that have drifted into a police state citizens have felt that "it can't happen to my boy. But, jury returned a verdict of guilty of assault in the case of Earl Joseph Brennan of Sea View P.O. which concluded in Supreme Court, Summerside yesterday. Chief Justice Thane A. Campbell presided. On motion of Deputy Attorney-General J. Arthur McLean a stay of proceedings was granted against Donald Joseph Brennan, brother of Earl Joseph Brennan, who was charged with criminal negligence arising from the circumstances that resulted in the death of Roy Hackett. During his summation, defense counsel, J. Watson MacNaught, QC, referred to the affair as a "Bacchanalian Orgy" that was going on. MacNaught said "we have a document in Canada to which some of our pay lip service. It is called the bill of rights." He said that as a result of the evidence given in this case, this document "might as well be thrown in the dust bin. It has no meaning." Mr. MacNaught said he couldn't recall of a case in Canada since he started practicing law where a boy of 18 was held incommunicado for 27 hours. I wonder if we realize where we are drifting in this country. To me it is revolting and shocking that a young boy should be kept in a room for 27 hours and refused permission to phone his sister." He said to the jury "this is not the way a democracy works." He said in countries that have drifted into a police state citizens have felt that "it can't happen to my boy. But, jury returned a verdict of guilty of assault in the case of Earl Joseph Brennan of Sea View P.O. which concluded in Supreme Court, Summerside yesterday. Chief Justice Thane A. Campbell presided. On motion of Deputy Attorney-General J. Arthur McLean a stay of proceedings was granted against Donald Joseph Brennan, brother of Earl Joseph Brennan, who was charged with criminal negligence arising from the circumstances that resulted in the death of Roy Hackett. During his summation, defense counsel, J. Watson MacNaught, QC, referred to the affair as a "Bacchanalian Orgy" that was going on. MacNaught said "we have a document in Canada to which some of our pay lip service. It is called the bill of rights." He said that as a result of the evidence given in this case, this document "might as well be thrown in the dust bin. It has no meaning." Mr. MacNaught said he couldn't recall of a case in Canada since he started practicing law where a boy of 18 was held incommunicado for 27 hours. I wonder if we realize where we are drifting in this country. To me it is revolting and shocking that a young boy should be kept in a room for 27 hours and refused permission to phone his sister." He said to the jury "this is not the way a democracy works." He said in countries that have drifted into a police state citizens have felt that "it can't happen to my boy. But, jury returned a verdict of guilty of assault in the case of Earl Joseph Brennan of Sea View P.O. which concluded in Supreme Court, Summerside yesterday. Chief Justice Thane A. Campbell presided. On motion of Deputy Attorney-General J. Arthur McLean a stay of proceedings was granted against Donald Joseph Brennan, brother of Earl Joseph Brennan, who was charged with criminal negligence arising from the circumstances that resulted in the death of Roy Hackett. During his summation, defense counsel, J. Watson MacNaught, QC, referred to the affair as a "Bacchanalian Orgy" that was going on. MacNaught said "we have a document in Canada to which some of our pay lip service. It is called the bill of rights." He said that as a result of the evidence given in this case, this document "might as well be thrown in the dust bin. It has no meaning." Mr. MacNaught said he couldn't recall of a case in Canada since he started practicing law where a boy of 18 was held incommunicado for 27 hours. I wonder if we realize where we are drifting in this country. To me it is revolting and shocking that a young boy should be kept in a room for 27 hours and refused permission to phone his sister." He said to the jury "this is not the way a democracy works." He said in countries that have drifted into a police state citizens have felt that "it can't happen to my boy. But, jury returned a verdict of guilty of assault in the case of Earl Joseph Brennan of Sea View P.O. which concluded in Supreme Court, Summerside yesterday. Chief Justice Thane A. Campbell presided. On motion of Deputy Attorney-General J. Arthur McLean a stay of proceedings was granted against Donald Joseph Brennan, brother of Earl Joseph Brennan, who was charged with criminal negligence arising from the circumstances that resulted in the death of Roy Hackett. During his summation, defense counsel, J. Watson MacNaught, QC, referred to the affair as a "Bacchanalian Orgy" that was going on. MacNaught said "we have a document in Canada to which some of our pay lip service. It is called the bill of rights." He said that as a result of the evidence given in this case, this document "might as well be thrown in the dust bin. It has no meaning." Mr. MacNaught said he couldn't recall of a case in Canada since he started practicing law where a boy of 18 was held incommunicado for 27 hours. I wonder if we realize where we are drifting in this country. To me it is revolting and shocking that a young boy should be kept in a room for 27 hours and refused permission to phone his sister." He said to the jury "this is not the way a democracy works." He said in countries that have drifted into a police state citizens have felt that "it can't happen to my boy. But, jury returned a verdict of guilty of assault in the case of Earl Joseph Brennan of Sea View P.O. which concluded in Supreme Court, Summerside yesterday. Chief Justice Thane A. Campbell presided. On motion of Deputy Attorney-General J. Arthur McLean a stay of proceedings was granted against Donald Joseph Brennan, brother of Earl Joseph Brennan, who was charged with criminal negligence arising from the circumstances that resulted in the death of Roy Hackett. During his summation, defense counsel, J. Watson MacNaught, QC, referred to the affair as a "Bacchanalian Orgy" that was going on. MacNaught said "we have a document in Canada to which some of our pay lip service. It is called the bill of rights." He said that as a result of the evidence given in this case, this document "might as well be thrown in the dust bin. It has no meaning." Mr. MacNaught said he couldn't recall of a case in Canada since he started practicing law where a boy of 18 was held incommunicado for 27 hours. I wonder if we realize where we are drifting in this country. To me it is revolting and shocking that a young boy should be kept in a room for 27 hours and refused permission to phone his sister." He said to the jury "this is not the way a democracy works." He said in countries that have drifted into a police state citizens have felt that "it can't happen to my boy. But, jury returned a verdict of guilty of assault in the case of Earl Joseph Brennan of Sea View P.O. which concluded in Supreme Court, Summerside yesterday. Chief Justice Thane A. Campbell presided. On motion of Deputy Attorney-General J. Arthur McLean a stay of proceedings was granted against Donald Joseph Brennan, brother of Earl Joseph Brennan, who was charged with criminal negligence arising from the circumstances that resulted in the death of Roy Hackett. During his summation, defense counsel, J. Watson MacNaught, QC, referred to the affair as a "Bacchanalian Orgy" that was going on. MacNaught said "we have a document in Canada to which some of our pay lip service. It is called the bill of rights." He said that as a result of the evidence given in this case, this document "might as well be thrown in the dust bin. It has no meaning." Mr. MacNaught said he couldn't recall of a case in Canada since he started practicing law where a boy of 18 was held incommunicado for 27 hours. I wonder if we realize where we are drifting in this country. To me it is revolting and shocking that a young boy should be kept in a room for 27 hours and refused permission to phone his sister." He said to the jury "this is not the way a democracy works." He said in countries that have drifted into a police state citizens have felt that "it can't happen to my boy. But, jury returned a verdict of guilty of assault in the case of Earl Joseph Brennan of Sea View P.O. which concluded in Supreme Court, Summerside yesterday. Chief Justice Thane A. Campbell presided. On motion of Deputy Attorney-General J. Arthur McLean a stay of proceedings was granted against Donald Joseph Brennan, brother of Earl Joseph Brennan, who was charged with criminal negligence arising from the circumstances that resulted in the death of Roy Hackett. During his summation, defense counsel, J. Watson MacNaught, QC, referred to the affair as a "Bacchanalian Orgy" that was going on. MacNaught said "we have a document in Canada to which some of our pay lip service. It is called the bill of rights." He said that as a result of the evidence given in this case, this document "might as well be thrown in the dust bin. It has no meaning." Mr. MacNaught said he couldn't recall of a case in Canada since he started practicing law where a boy of 18 was held incommunicado for 27 hours. I wonder if we realize where we are drifting in this country. To me it is revolting and shocking that a young boy should be kept in a room for 27 hours and refused permission to phone his sister." He said to the jury "this is not the way a democracy works." He said in countries that have drifted into a police state citizens have felt that "it can't happen to my boy. But, jury returned a verdict of guilty of assault in the case of Earl Joseph Brennan of Sea View P.O. which concluded in Supreme Court, Summerside yesterday. Chief Justice Thane A. Campbell presided. On motion of Deputy Attorney-General J. Arthur McLean a stay of proceedings was granted against Donald Joseph Brennan, brother of Earl Joseph Brennan, who was charged with criminal negligence arising from the circumstances that resulted in the death of Roy Hackett. During his summation, defense counsel, J. Watson MacNaught, QC, referred to the affair as a "Bacchanalian Orgy" that was going on. MacNaught said "we have a document in Canada to which some of our pay lip service. It is called the bill of rights." He said that as a result of the evidence given in this case, this document "might as well be thrown in the dust bin. It has no meaning." Mr. MacNaught said he couldn't recall of a case in Canada since he started practicing law where a boy of 18 was held incommunicado for 27 hours. I wonder if we realize where we are drifting in this country. To me it is revolting and shocking that a young boy should be kept in a room for 27 hours and refused permission to phone his sister." He said to the jury "this is not the way a democracy works." He said in countries that have drifted into a police state citizens have felt that "it can't happen to my boy. But, jury returned a verdict of guilty of assault in the case of Earl Joseph Brennan of Sea View P.O. which concluded in Supreme Court, Summerside yesterday. Chief Justice Thane A. Campbell presided. On motion of Deputy Attorney-General J. Arthur McLean a stay of proceedings was granted against Donald Joseph Brennan, brother of Earl Joseph Brennan, who was charged with criminal negligence arising from the circumstances that resulted in the death of Roy Hackett. During his summation, defense counsel, J. Watson MacNaught, QC, referred to the affair as a "Bacchanalian Orgy" that was going on. MacNaught said "we have a document in Canada to which some of our pay lip service. It is called the bill of rights." He said that as a result of the evidence given in this case, this document "might as well be thrown in the dust bin. It has no meaning." Mr. MacNaught said he couldn't recall of a case in Canada since he started practicing law where a boy of 18 was held incommunicado for 27 hours. I wonder if we realize where we are drifting in this country. To me it is revolting and shocking that a young boy should be kept in a room for 27 hours and refused permission to phone his sister." He said to the jury "this is not the way a democracy works." He said in countries that have drifted into a police state citizens have felt that "it can't happen to my boy. But, jury returned a verdict of guilty of assault in the case of Earl Joseph Brennan of Sea View P.O. which concluded in Supreme Court, Summerside yesterday. Chief Justice Thane A. Campbell presided. On motion of Deputy Attorney-General J. Arthur McLean a stay of proceedings was granted against Donald Joseph Brennan, brother of Earl Joseph Brennan, who was charged with criminal negligence arising from the circumstances that resulted in the death of Roy Hackett. During his summation, defense counsel, J. Watson MacNaught, QC, referred to the affair as a "Bacchanalian Orgy" that was going on. MacNaught said "we have a document in Canada to which some of our pay lip service. It is called the bill of rights." He said that as a result of the evidence given in this case, this document "might as well be thrown in the dust bin. It has no meaning." Mr. MacNaught said he couldn't recall of a case in Canada since he started practicing law where a boy of 18 was held incommunicado for 27 hours. I wonder if we realize where we are drifting in this country. To me it is revolting and shocking that a young boy should be kept in a room for 27 hours and refused permission to phone his sister." He said to the jury "this is not the way a democracy works." He said in countries that have drifted into a police state citizens have felt that "it can't happen to my boy. But, jury returned a verdict of guilty of assault in the case of Earl Joseph Brennan of Sea View P.O. which concluded in Supreme Court, Summerside yesterday. Chief Justice Thane A. Campbell presided. On motion of Deputy Attorney-General J. Arthur McLean a stay of proceedings was granted against Donald Joseph Brennan, brother of Earl Joseph Brennan, who was charged with criminal negligence arising from the circumstances that resulted in the death of Roy Hackett. During his summation, defense counsel, J. Watson MacNaught, QC, referred to the affair as a "Bacchanalian Orgy" that was going on. MacNaught said "we have a document in Canada to which some of our pay lip service. It is called the bill of rights." He said that as a result of the evidence given in this case, this document "might as well be thrown in the dust bin. It has no meaning." Mr. MacNaught said he couldn't recall of a case in Canada since he started practicing law where a boy of 18 was held incommunicado for 27 hours. I wonder if we realize where we are drifting in this country. To me it is revolting and shocking that a young boy should be kept in a room for 27 hours and refused permission to phone his sister." He said to the jury "this is not the way a democracy works." He said in countries that have drifted into a police state citizens have felt that "it can't happen to my boy. But, jury returned a verdict of guilty of assault in the case of Earl Joseph Brennan of Sea View P.O. which concluded in Supreme Court, Summerside yesterday. Chief Justice Thane A. Campbell presided. On motion of Deputy Attorney-General J. Arthur McLean a stay of proceedings was granted against Donald