IN MEMORIAM

BAYNE — In loving memory of our dear father, Wallace Bayne who departed this life October 30th, 1964. We had a wonderful father. To us he was one of the best. Then one morning God called him to the beautiful heaven of rest. It broke our hearts to lose him. But he did not go alone. For part of us went with him. The day God called dad home. Only a cluster of memories. Sprayed with a million tears. Wishing God had spared him. For just a few more years. Always loved and sadly missed by daughter and son-in-law Nevada and George, Bessie and Alder, Edith and David.
DIXON — In loving memory of Frank H. Dixon who passed away Oct. 17th, 1964 always remembered by Frank and Merton.

SHERREN In loving memory of a son and brother, John Louis (Jack) Sherren, who died instantly October 19, 1966. They say time makes a wound heal. Ten years have not changed the way I feel.
 Such a short time God gave you to live. Only nineteen years, then we had to give. We'll always remember those wonderful years.
 Before you left us, filled with tears. Anyone who knew you would realize you can't be forgotten, just because time flies.
 Sadly missed and always remembered by Mom, Dad, sisters and brothers.

MacKENZIE — In fond and loving memory of John R. MacKenzie who was called home on October 13th, 1964. Always a smile, instead of a frown. Always a hand when someone was down. There wasn't a thing too big or too small. That you wouldn't do for us all. Tender memories are all we have left. Of a husband and father we shall never forget.
 Lovingly remembered and sadly missed by wife, family, grand-children and great-grand-daughter Anne.
 Mrs. Robert MacKenzie.

International Food Store Does Well In Washington

By KELLY SMITH WASHINGTON (AP)—In this supermarket there are: —Braised kangaroo tails, reindeer meatballs, and gourd shavings. —200 cheeses, 100 sausages and salami. —Bread flown in from Paris, fresh bread from Iran. Vine leaves go like pork and beans. On a typical morning, a woman fills her gold-colored basket with Canadian moose steaks and a businessman leaves with four cans of quail meat tucked in his briefcase. The cashier rings up orders of $80 or $1,000. Outside, a tourist snaps pictures.
 This is the International Food Store, the city's tastiest multinational tourist haunt. Started two years ago as a novelty, the store has become a way of life in downtown Washington.
 There are 6,000 items imported from 80 countries. Aids signs guide shoppers in English and French.
 Embassies buy here. Ambassadors' wives mingle with housewives and tourists. The store reports 1,000,000 people visited last year.
LOOKS NORMAL
 From the outside, the store seems a typical modern supermarket. Inside, without reading labels, one might assume it was just another grocery store. But you don't find breakfast cereal, bread and eggs.
 Instead, there's a paneled, red-carpeted wine alcove, fancy grocery carts for a touch of luxury and a gourmand eager to help plan menus and unravel foreign recipes.
 Arlette Schmitt, a brown-eyed blonde from Nice, France, speaks four languages and can tell a housewife how to use each item in the store.
 Arlette and store manager Bal Raj Dogra, of New Delhi, India, agree on one point: The shoppers are mostly American—not foreign.
 Two years ago, Dogra says, items were new to most customers. But now he says they've become picky, even over brand names.
 There are $25 roast suckling pigs for instance. "At holiday time, we sell 25 to 30 a day. We can't keep enough of them."

PLAN EXPO EXHIBIT
MONTREAL (CP)—Central Mortgage and Housing Corp. Tuesday signed a $270,000 agreement with Expo 67 to sponsor a major exhibit at the fair—the first federal agency to do so. CMHC will sponsor an "Enchanted City" theatre, containing the work of internationally-known artists and film animators, as part of Expo's "Man in the Community" pavilion.
