

The Neighbors

By George Clark

"If I didn't have a long bus ride, I'd arrive at the office looking like I was still in bed."

TOOTAL FABRICS

FAMOUS FOR QUALITY THE WORLD OVER Available at better stores everywhere!

Moore & MacLeod Ltd. 119 Queen St. Charlottetown. S. A. McDonald 129 Queen St. Charlottetown. Smallman's Ltd. Summerside

PROFESSIONAL CARDS

Grid of professional cards including Bell, Mathieson & Foster; Palmer & Haslam; Matheson, Peake & Nicholson; MacPhee & Trainor; Allison M. Gillis; Dr. A. L. MacIsaac; Gaudet & Hazzard; H. R. Doane and Company; and Randolph W. Manning, C.A.

Georgetown and Vicinity

Mr. Charles Gardiner was a visitor to the City on March 14th. Mr. Harry Yoston, local merchant, was a recent business visitor to Charlottetown. Mr. Bernard Wood of Mitchell River, was a business visitor to Georgetown on Tuesday, March 18. Mrs. William Murphy was a visitor to the city on Tuesday and Wednesday, March 18 and 19. Mr. John Campbell was a visitor to Montague on Tuesday, March 18. Mr. David Shepherd of Cardigan was a visitor to Georgetown on Wednesday, March 19. Mr. C. H. Llewellyn, who had been in the city on business for several days, returned to his home in Georgetown early this week. Mr. Lorne Stevens, who is a member of the Canadian Army at Halifax, N.S., is visiting his home in Georgetown. Friends of Master Brian Curley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Curley of Brudenell, are pleased to hear he is improving satisfactorily following a recent operation at the King's County Memorial Hospital in Montague. Mr. Malcolm Allen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Allen, arrived in Georgetown on Tuesday, March 18, from Toronto where he has been employed since last August. Malcolm made the trip from Toronto by car, stopping enroute at Montreal and Quebec. Mr. and Mrs. Paul Fitzgerald and two children, James and Sylvia, left Georgetown on Friday, March 14th to return to their home in Grove City, Penn., U.S.A. They were called home by the death of Mr. Fitzgerald's mother, Mrs. (Capt.) J. J. Fitzgerald. Mr. William Hobbs, Sr., returned to his home in Georgetown early in the week after spending the winter with his son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. William Hobbs, Jr., at Greenwood, N.S. He was accompanied home by his son, who is a member of the Royal Canadian Air Force, stationed at Greenwood. Mr. Edward Easton and Mr. Allan Mair have purchased the former United Church Manse, situated adjacent to the church and are at present engaged in tearing down the building. It is understood that a new church hall will be erected in the near future on the site of the building now being dismantled. Mr. Andrew Campbell of Pamure Island crossed the North Beach by horse and sleigh on Monday, March 17th, and proceeded across the harbour to Georgetown. This is perhaps the first crossing, via this route, during this winter and being made at such a late date, is rather an unusual event. The regular meeting of the Women's Missionary Society of St. David's United Church was held at the home of Mrs. Spurgeon Walker on Tuesday, March 18th. The president, Mrs. W. A. Paterson conducted the worship service, the theme of which was "Our Fellow Canadians from Europe." There were four members and two visitors present. A delicious lunch and social hour followed the meeting. The Woman's Association of St. David's United Church met at the home of Mrs. Chester Walker on Thursday, March 13th. Mrs. Spurgeon Walker presided and the meeting opened with the Lord's Prayer. Plans for a Sunshine Bag Social were made for April, to be held at the Manse. Following the business meeting, a delicious lunch was served and a social hour enjoyed. Stillman Mair, who is a member of the Royal Canadian Engineers, stationed at Petawawa, is visiting his grandmother, Mrs. Mary Yoston. On his way to Georgetown he visited his brother, Rev. Nathan Mair and his aunt, Miss Anna Mair, who resides in New Brunswick and his mother, Mrs. Roland Marsh of Five Islands, N.S.

Mr. William Hobbs, Sr., returned to his home in Georgetown early in the week after spending the winter with his son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. William Hobbs, Jr., at Greenwood, N.S. He was accompanied home by his son, who is a member of the Royal Canadian Air Force, stationed at Greenwood.

Mr. Edward Easton and Mr. Allan Mair have purchased the former United Church Manse, situated adjacent to the church and are at present engaged in tearing down the building. It is understood that a new church hall will be erected in the near future on the site of the building now being dismantled.

Mr. Andrew Campbell of Pamure Island crossed the North Beach by horse and sleigh on Monday, March 17th, and proceeded across the harbour to Georgetown. This is perhaps the first crossing, via this route, during this winter and being made at such a late date, is rather an unusual event.

The regular meeting of the Women's Missionary Society of St. David's United Church was held at the home of Mrs. Spurgeon Walker on Tuesday, March 18th. The president, Mrs. W. A. Paterson conducted the worship service, the theme of which was "Our Fellow Canadians from Europe." There were four members and two visitors present. A delicious lunch and social hour followed the meeting.

The Woman's Association of St. David's United Church met at the home of Mrs. Chester Walker on Thursday, March 13th. Mrs. Spurgeon Walker presided and the meeting opened with the Lord's Prayer. Plans for a Sunshine Bag Social were made for April, to be held at the Manse. Following the business meeting, a delicious lunch was served and a social hour enjoyed.

Stillman Mair, who is a member of the Royal Canadian Engineers, stationed at Petawawa, is visiting his grandmother, Mrs. Mary Yoston. On his way to Georgetown he visited his brother, Rev. Nathan Mair and his aunt, Miss Anna Mair, who resides in New Brunswick and his mother, Mrs. Roland Marsh of Five Islands, N.S.

Peakes and Vicinity

Mr. Ernie Grant of St. Patrick's Road was a visitor to Mt. Stewart on Tuesday, March 11. Mr. John MacDonald left for Labrador by plane on Tuesday morning, March 11. Mr. and Mrs. John Trainor of Windon were visitors to St. Patrick's Road on Tuesday, March 11. Miss Marcella Bradley of Charlottetown spent the weekend of March 8 with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Urban Bradley of Peakes. Miss Noreen Mooney of Charlottetown spent the weekend of March 8 with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Mooney of Peakes. Mrs. Alfred Donnelly of St. Patrick's Road was a visitor to Charlottetown on Monday, March 10, on business. Mrs. Reggie MacDonald of Peakes, who was in the Charlottetown Hospital, recently returned to her home at Peakes. Mrs. Carl MacKenna, and son, Robert of Charlottetown, are visiting with Mrs. MacKenna's mother, Mrs. Loretta Devine of Peakes. Many people in this community regret to hear that Mr. Ralph Gil-lan's deer is dead. The deer was ill for some time. Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Donnelly were visitors to Morell on Tuesday, March 11, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jervis Campbell of Martinvale. Mr. Alfred Handrahan has now taken up residence in his newly constructed house at Peakes. Mr. Handrahan, proprietor of a lumber mill, has been working at Peakes for many years as a carpenter. The people in this vicinity are busy cutting lumber in the woods during their spare time. After having the lumber sawed by the two mills at Peakes, they use some for the general repairing purposes on buildings, which usually takes place around this time each year, and the remainder is sold to the mill owners, and dealers in lumber. Due to the closing of the roads, lumber dealers are now shipping their lumber by box car.

Messrs. Merlin Devine, Earl MacDonald, Ernie Devine and Alfred Handrahan, all of Peakes, were visitors to the Charlottetown Forum last week when the Charlottetown Islanders defeated Halifax St. Mary's with a 5-4 score. Friends of Miss Gerlie Gillan of Peakes regret to hear she entered the Charlottetown Hospital on Monday night, March 10. Miss Gillan is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Gillan of Peakes. Mrs. Ethel Duffy of Byrne Road was a visitor to St. Patrick's Road on Monday, March 10. Duffy was the guest of her brother, Mr. Michael Handrahan of St. Patrick's Road. Misses Genevieve Praught and Betty Fraser of Vernon River were visitors to Peakes during the weekend of March 7. Both girls, who were attending the retreat at St. Therese's Convent, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Hughes of Peakes. The writer has been told by some residential people that the wild geese are back again on some of the rivers. These are the first of the wild birds to return to the Island after winter. Friends of Miss Betty Campbell regret to hear she was taken to the Charlottetown Hospital on Sunday night, March 9, due to a ruptured appendix. Miss Campbell

was visiting with Mrs. Daniel Trainor of Peakes, underwent the operation on Sunday night, March 9. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jervis Campbell of Martinvale.

Mr. Alfred Handrahan has now taken up residence in his newly constructed house at Peakes. Mr. Handrahan, proprietor of a lumber mill, has been working at Peakes for many years as a carpenter.

Messrs. Merlin Devine, Earl MacDonald, Ernie Devine and Alfred Handrahan, all of Peakes, were visitors to the Charlottetown Forum last week when the Charlottetown Islanders defeated Halifax St. Mary's with a 5-4 score.

Friends of Miss Gerlie Gillan of Peakes regret to hear she entered the Charlottetown Hospital on Monday night, March 10. Miss Gillan is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Gillan of Peakes.

Mrs. Ethel Duffy of Byrne Road was a visitor to St. Patrick's Road on Monday, March 10. Duffy was the guest of her brother, Mr. Michael Handrahan of St. Patrick's Road.

Misses Genevieve Praught and Betty Fraser of Vernon River were visitors to Peakes during the weekend of March 7. Both girls, who were attending the retreat at St. Therese's Convent, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Hughes of Peakes.

The writer has been told by some residential people that the wild geese are back again on some of the rivers. These are the first of the wild birds to return to the Island after winter.

Friends of Miss Betty Campbell regret to hear she was taken to the Charlottetown Hospital on Sunday night, March 9, due to a ruptured appendix. Miss Campbell was visiting with Mrs. Daniel Trainor of Peakes, underwent the operation on Sunday night, March 9. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jervis Campbell of Martinvale.

Mr. Alfred Handrahan has now taken up residence in his newly constructed house at Peakes. Mr. Handrahan, proprietor of a lumber mill, has been working at Peakes for many years as a carpenter.

Messrs. Merlin Devine, Earl MacDonald, Ernie Devine and Alfred Handrahan, all of Peakes, were visitors to the Charlottetown Forum last week when the Charlottetown Islanders defeated Halifax St. Mary's with a 5-4 score.

Friends of Miss Gerlie Gillan of Peakes regret to hear she entered the Charlottetown Hospital on Monday night, March 10. Miss Gillan is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Gillan of Peakes.

Mrs. Ethel Duffy of Byrne Road was a visitor to St. Patrick's Road on Monday, March 10. Duffy was the guest of her brother, Mr. Michael Handrahan of St. Patrick's Road.

Misses Genevieve Praught and Betty Fraser of Vernon River were visitors to Peakes during the weekend of March 7. Both girls, who were attending the retreat at St. Therese's Convent, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Hughes of Peakes.

The writer has been told by some residential people that the wild geese are back again on some of the rivers. These are the first of the wild birds to return to the Island after winter.

Friends of Miss Betty Campbell regret to hear she was taken to the Charlottetown Hospital on Sunday night, March 9, due to a ruptured appendix. Miss Campbell was visiting with Mrs. Daniel Trainor of Peakes, underwent the operation on Sunday night, March 9. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jervis Campbell of Martinvale.

Mr. Alfred Handrahan has now taken up residence in his newly constructed house at Peakes. Mr. Handrahan, proprietor of a lumber mill, has been working at Peakes for many years as a carpenter.

Messrs. Merlin Devine, Earl MacDonald, Ernie Devine and Alfred Handrahan, all of Peakes, were visitors to the Charlottetown Forum last week when the Charlottetown Islanders defeated Halifax St. Mary's with a 5-4 score.

Friends of Miss Gerlie Gillan of Peakes regret to hear she entered the Charlottetown Hospital on Monday night, March 10. Miss Gillan is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Gillan of Peakes.

Mrs. Ethel Duffy of Byrne Road was a visitor to St. Patrick's Road on Monday, March 10. Duffy was the guest of her brother, Mr. Michael Handrahan of St. Patrick's Road.

Misses Genevieve Praught and Betty Fraser of Vernon River were visitors to Peakes during the weekend of March 7. Both girls, who were attending the retreat at St. Therese's Convent, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Hughes of Peakes.

The writer has been told by some residential people that the wild geese are back again on some of the rivers. These are the first of the wild birds to return to the Island after winter.

Friends of Miss Betty Campbell regret to hear she was taken to the Charlottetown Hospital on Sunday night, March 9, due to a ruptured appendix. Miss Campbell was visiting with Mrs. Daniel Trainor of Peakes, underwent the operation on Sunday night, March 9. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jervis Campbell of Martinvale.

Mr. Alfred Handrahan has now taken up residence in his newly constructed house at Peakes. Mr. Handrahan, proprietor of a lumber mill, has been working at Peakes for many years as a carpenter.

Messrs. Merlin Devine, Earl MacDonald, Ernie Devine and Alfred Handrahan, all of Peakes, were visitors to the Charlottetown Forum last week when the Charlottetown Islanders defeated Halifax St. Mary's with a 5-4 score.

Friends of Miss Gerlie Gillan of Peakes regret to hear she entered the Charlottetown Hospital on Monday night, March 10. Miss Gillan is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Gillan of Peakes.

Mrs. Ethel Duffy of Byrne Road was a visitor to St. Patrick's Road on Monday, March 10. Duffy was the guest of her brother, Mr. Michael Handrahan of St. Patrick's Road.

Misses Genevieve Praught and Betty Fraser of Vernon River were visitors to Peakes during the weekend of March 7. Both girls, who were attending the retreat at St. Therese's Convent, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Hughes of Peakes.

The writer has been told by some residential people that the wild geese are back again on some of the rivers. These are the first of the wild birds to return to the Island after winter.

Friends of Miss Betty Campbell regret to hear she was taken to the Charlottetown Hospital on Sunday night, March 9, due to a ruptured appendix. Miss Campbell was visiting with Mrs. Daniel Trainor of Peakes, underwent the operation on Sunday night, March 9. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jervis Campbell of Martinvale.

Mr. Alfred Handrahan has now taken up residence in his newly constructed house at Peakes. Mr. Handrahan, proprietor of a lumber mill, has been working at Peakes for many years as a carpenter.

was visiting with Mrs. Daniel Trainor of Peakes, underwent the operation on Sunday night, March 9. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jervis Campbell of Martinvale.

Mr. Alfred Handrahan has now taken up residence in his newly constructed house at Peakes. Mr. Handrahan, proprietor of a lumber mill, has been working at Peakes for many years as a carpenter.

Messrs. Merlin Devine, Earl MacDonald, Ernie Devine and Alfred Handrahan, all of Peakes, were visitors to the Charlottetown Forum last week when the Charlottetown Islanders defeated Halifax St. Mary's with a 5-4 score.

Friends of Miss Gerlie Gillan of Peakes regret to hear she entered the Charlottetown Hospital on Monday night, March 10. Miss Gillan is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Gillan of Peakes.

Mrs. Ethel Duffy of Byrne Road was a visitor to St. Patrick's Road on Monday, March 10. Duffy was the guest of her brother, Mr. Michael Handrahan of St. Patrick's Road.

Misses Genevieve Praught and Betty Fraser of Vernon River were visitors to Peakes during the weekend of March 7. Both girls, who were attending the retreat at St. Therese's Convent, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Hughes of Peakes.

The writer has been told by some residential people that the wild geese are back again on some of the rivers. These are the first of the wild birds to return to the Island after winter.

Friends of Miss Betty Campbell regret to hear she was taken to the Charlottetown Hospital on Sunday night, March 9, due to a ruptured appendix. Miss Campbell was visiting with Mrs. Daniel Trainor of Peakes, underwent the operation on Sunday night, March 9. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jervis Campbell of Martinvale.

Mr. Alfred Handrahan has now taken up residence in his newly constructed house at Peakes. Mr. Handrahan, proprietor of a lumber mill, has been working at Peakes for many years as a carpenter.

Messrs. Merlin Devine, Earl MacDonald, Ernie Devine and Alfred Handrahan, all of Peakes, were visitors to the Charlottetown Forum last week when the Charlottetown Islanders defeated Halifax St. Mary's with a 5-4 score.

Friends of Miss Gerlie Gillan of Peakes regret to hear she entered the Charlottetown Hospital on Monday night, March 10. Miss Gillan is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Gillan of Peakes.

Mrs. Ethel Duffy of Byrne Road was a visitor to St. Patrick's Road on Monday, March 10. Duffy was the guest of her brother, Mr. Michael Handrahan of St. Patrick's Road.

Misses Genevieve Praught and Betty Fraser of Vernon River were visitors to Peakes during the weekend of March 7. Both girls, who were attending the retreat at St. Therese's Convent, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Hughes of Peakes.

The writer has been told by some residential people that the wild geese are back again on some of the rivers. These are the first of the wild birds to return to the Island after winter.

Friends of Miss Betty Campbell regret to hear she was taken to the Charlottetown Hospital on Sunday night, March 9, due to a ruptured appendix. Miss Campbell was visiting with Mrs. Daniel Trainor of Peakes, underwent the operation on Sunday night, March 9. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jervis Campbell of Martinvale.

Mr. Alfred Handrahan has now taken up residence in his newly constructed house at Peakes. Mr. Handrahan, proprietor of a lumber mill, has been working at Peakes for many years as a carpenter.

Messrs. Merlin Devine, Earl MacDonald, Ernie Devine and Alfred Handrahan, all of Peakes, were visitors to the Charlottetown Forum last week when the Charlottetown Islanders defeated Halifax St. Mary's with a 5-4 score.

Friends of Miss Gerlie Gillan of Peakes regret to hear she entered the Charlottetown Hospital on Monday night, March 10. Miss Gillan is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Gillan of Peakes.

Mrs. Ethel Duffy of Byrne Road was a visitor to St. Patrick's Road on Monday, March 10. Duffy was the guest of her brother, Mr. Michael Handrahan of St. Patrick's Road.

Misses Genevieve Praught and Betty Fraser of Vernon River were visitors to Peakes during the weekend of March 7. Both girls, who were attending the retreat at St. Therese's Convent, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Hughes of Peakes.

The writer has been told by some residential people that the wild geese are back again on some of the rivers. These are the first of the wild birds to return to the Island after winter.

Friends of Miss Betty Campbell regret to hear she was taken to the Charlottetown Hospital on Sunday night, March 9, due to a ruptured appendix. Miss Campbell was visiting with Mrs. Daniel Trainor of Peakes, underwent the operation on Sunday night, March 9. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jervis Campbell of Martinvale.

Mr. Alfred Handrahan has now taken up residence in his newly constructed house at Peakes. Mr. Handrahan, proprietor of a lumber mill, has been working at Peakes for many years as a carpenter.

was visiting with Mrs. Daniel Trainor of Peakes, underwent the operation on Sunday night, March 9. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jervis Campbell of Martinvale.

Mr. Alfred Handrahan has now taken up residence in his newly constructed house at Peakes. Mr. Handrahan, proprietor of a lumber mill, has been working at Peakes for many years as a carpenter.

Messrs. Merlin Devine, Earl MacDonald, Ernie Devine and Alfred Handrahan, all of Peakes, were visitors to the Charlottetown Forum last week when the Charlottetown Islanders defeated Halifax St. Mary's with a 5-4 score.

Friends of Miss Gerlie Gillan of Peakes regret to hear she entered the Charlottetown Hospital on Monday night, March 10. Miss Gillan is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Gillan of Peakes.

Mrs. Ethel Duffy of Byrne Road was a visitor to St. Patrick's Road on Monday, March 10. Duffy was the guest of her brother, Mr. Michael Handrahan of St. Patrick's Road.

Misses Genevieve Praught and Betty Fraser of Vernon River were visitors to Peakes during the weekend of March 7. Both girls, who were attending the retreat at St. Therese's Convent, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Hughes of Peakes.

The writer has been told by some residential people that the wild geese are back again on some of the rivers. These are the first of the wild birds to return to the Island after winter.

Friends of Miss Betty Campbell regret to hear she was taken to the Charlottetown Hospital on Sunday night, March 9, due to a ruptured appendix. Miss Campbell was visiting with Mrs. Daniel Trainor of Peakes, underwent the operation on Sunday night, March 9. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jervis Campbell of Martinvale.

Mr. Alfred Handrahan has now taken up residence in his newly constructed house at Peakes. Mr. Handrahan, proprietor of a lumber mill, has been working at Peakes for many years as a carpenter.

Messrs. Merlin Devine, Earl MacDonald, Ernie Devine and Alfred Handrahan, all of Peakes, were visitors to the Charlottetown Forum last week when the Charlottetown Islanders defeated Halifax St. Mary's with a 5-4 score.

Friends of Miss Gerlie Gillan of Peakes regret to hear she entered the Charlottetown Hospital on Monday night, March 10. Miss Gillan is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Gillan of Peakes.

Mrs. Ethel Duffy of Byrne Road was a visitor to St. Patrick's Road on Monday, March 10. Duffy was the guest of her brother, Mr. Michael Handrahan of St. Patrick's Road.

Misses Genevieve Praught and Betty Fraser of Vernon River were visitors to Peakes during the weekend of March 7. Both girls, who were attending the retreat at St. Therese's Convent, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Hughes of Peakes.

The writer has been told by some residential people that the wild geese are back again on some of the rivers. These are the first of the wild birds to return to the Island after winter.

Friends of Miss Betty Campbell regret to hear she was taken to the Charlottetown Hospital on Sunday night, March 9, due to a ruptured appendix. Miss Campbell was visiting with Mrs. Daniel Trainor of Peakes, underwent the operation on Sunday night, March 9. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jervis Campbell of Martinvale.

Mr. Alfred Handrahan has now taken up residence in his newly constructed house at Peakes. Mr. Handrahan, proprietor of a lumber mill, has been working at Peakes for many years as a carpenter.

Messrs. Merlin Devine, Earl MacDonald, Ernie Devine and Alfred Handrahan, all of Peakes, were visitors to the Charlottetown Forum last week when the Charlottetown Islanders defeated Halifax St. Mary's with a 5-4 score.

Friends of Miss Gerlie Gillan of Peakes regret to hear she entered the Charlottetown Hospital on Monday night, March 10. Miss Gillan is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Gillan of Peakes.

Mrs. Ethel Duffy of Byrne Road was a visitor to St. Patrick's Road on Monday, March 10. Duffy was the guest of her brother, Mr. Michael Handrahan of St. Patrick's Road.

Misses Genevieve Praught and Betty Fraser of Vernon River were visitors to Peakes during the weekend of March 7. Both girls, who were attending the retreat at St. Therese's Convent, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Hughes of Peakes.

The writer has been told by some residential people that the wild geese are back again on some of the rivers. These are the first of the wild birds to return to the Island after winter.

Friends of Miss Betty Campbell regret to hear she was taken to the Charlottetown Hospital on Sunday night, March 9, due to a ruptured appendix. Miss Campbell was visiting with Mrs. Daniel Trainor of Peakes, underwent the operation on Sunday night, March 9. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jervis Campbell of Martinvale.

Mr. Alfred Handrahan has now taken up residence in his newly constructed house at Peakes. Mr. Handrahan, proprietor of a lumber mill, has been working at Peakes for many years as a carpenter.

was visiting with Mrs. Daniel Trainor of Peakes, underwent the operation on Sunday night, March 9. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jervis Campbell of Martinvale.

Mr. Alfred Handrahan has now taken up residence in his newly constructed house at Peakes. Mr. Handrahan, proprietor of a lumber mill, has been working at Peakes for many years as a carpenter.

Messrs. Merlin Devine, Earl MacDonald, Ernie Devine and Alfred Handrahan, all of Peakes, were visitors to the Charlottetown Forum last week when the Charlottetown Islanders defeated Halifax St. Mary's with a 5-4 score.

Friends of Miss Gerlie Gillan of Peakes regret to hear she entered the Charlottetown Hospital on Monday night, March 10. Miss Gillan is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Gillan of Peakes.

Mrs. Ethel Duffy of Byrne Road was a visitor to St. Patrick's Road on Monday, March 10. Duffy was the guest of her brother, Mr. Michael Handrahan of St. Patrick's Road.

Misses Genevieve Praught and Betty Fraser of Vernon River were visitors to Peakes during the weekend of March 7. Both girls, who were attending the retreat at St. Therese's Convent, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Hughes of Peakes.

The writer has been told by some residential people that the wild geese are back again on some of the rivers. These are the first of the wild birds to return to the Island after winter.

Friends of Miss Betty Campbell regret to hear she was taken to the Charlottetown Hospital on Sunday night, March 9, due to a ruptured appendix. Miss Campbell was visiting with Mrs. Daniel Trainor of Peakes, underwent the operation on Sunday night, March 9. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jervis Campbell of Martinvale.

Mr. Alfred Handrahan has now taken up residence in his newly constructed house at Peakes. Mr. Handrahan, proprietor of a lumber mill, has been working at Peakes for many years as a carpenter.

Messrs. Merlin Devine, Earl MacDonald, Ernie Devine and Alfred Handrahan, all of Peakes, were visitors to the Charlottetown Forum last week when the Charlottetown Islanders defeated Halifax St. Mary's with a 5-4 score.

Friends of Miss Gerlie Gillan of Peakes regret to hear she entered the Charlottetown Hospital on Monday night, March 10. Miss Gillan is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Gillan of Peakes.

Mrs. Ethel Duffy of Byrne Road was a visitor to St. Patrick's Road on Monday, March 10. Duffy was the guest of her brother, Mr. Michael Handrahan of St. Patrick's Road.

Misses Genevieve Praught and Betty Fraser of Vernon River were visitors to Peakes during the weekend of March 7. Both girls, who were attending the retreat at St. Therese's Convent, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Hughes of Peakes.

The writer has been told by some residential people that the wild geese are back again on some of the rivers. These are the first of the wild birds to return to the Island after winter.

Friends of Miss Betty Campbell regret to hear she was taken to the Charlottetown Hospital on Sunday night, March 9, due to a ruptured appendix. Miss Campbell was visiting with Mrs. Daniel Trainor of Peakes, underwent the operation on Sunday night, March 9. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jervis Campbell of Martinvale.

Mr. Alfred Handrahan has now taken up residence in his newly constructed house at Peakes. Mr. Handrahan, proprietor of a lumber mill, has been working at Peakes for many years as a carpenter.

Messrs. Merlin Devine, Earl MacDonald, Ernie Devine and Alfred Handrahan, all of Peakes, were visitors to the Charlottetown Forum last week when the Charlottetown Islanders defeated Halifax St. Mary's with a 5-4 score.

Friends of Miss Gerlie Gillan of Peakes regret to hear she entered the Charlottetown Hospital on Monday night, March 10. Miss Gillan is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Gillan of Peakes.

Mrs. Ethel Duffy of Byrne Road was a visitor to St. Patrick's Road on Monday, March 10. Duffy was the guest of her brother, Mr. Michael Handrahan of St. Patrick's Road.

Misses Genevieve Praught and Betty Fraser of Vernon River were visitors to Peakes during the weekend of March 7. Both girls, who were attending the retreat at St. Therese's Convent, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Hughes of Peakes.

The writer has been told by some residential people that the wild geese are back again on some of the rivers. These are the first of the wild birds to return to the Island after winter.

Friends of Miss Betty Campbell regret to hear she was taken to the Charlottetown Hospital on Sunday night, March 9, due to a ruptured appendix. Miss Campbell was visiting with Mrs. Daniel Trainor of Peakes, underwent the operation on Sunday night, March 9. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jervis Campbell of Martinvale.

Mr. Alfred Handrahan has now taken up residence in his newly constructed house at Peakes. Mr. Handrahan, proprietor of a lumber mill, has been working at Peakes for many years as a carpenter.

Rollo Bay and Vicinity

Chester McLaugh of Bear River, was a recent visitor to Rollo Bay. Messrs James McInnis and Artie McKinnon of St. Peters were recent visitors to Souris. Miss Kaye Peters, student at St. Mary's Convent, Souris, spent a recent weekend at her home in Rollo Bay, the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Peters. Leonard McCormac of St. Margarets, spent a recent weekend in Rollo Bay, the guest of his sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Burke. Miss Mary A. Chaisson, returned to her home in Rollo Bay on Saturday, March 8th after spending a few days in Charlottetown. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Peters and Angus spent a recent weekend at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph McCormac, Souris. Floyd Jay of St. Peters is visiting in Rollo Bay, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Coffin. Miss Ramona Peters has returned to Charlottetown after spending her vacation at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Peters, Rollo Bay. Ramona is on the staff of the Royal Bank. The snowplough operators, Fencie Peters and Artie Burke have done a good job of opening the road between Rollo Bay and Souris. Norbert Hughes, Martin McLaugh, Michael McLaugh and Gerard Gallant, all of Bear River were recent visitors to Rollo Bay. Miss Mary A. Keayes, teacher of Rollo Bay East School, spent the weekend of March 1, at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lorne Keayes, Souris Line Road. Alfred Fraser of Souris spent a recent weekend in Rollo Bay, the guest of his uncle, Elmer Peters. Miss Gertrude Peters has returned to Rivers, Manitoba, after spending her furlough in Rollo Bay, the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Peters. G. U. CANADIAN LEGION L. A. The president, Mrs. Atwood MacDonald, presided at the regular monthly meeting of the Ladies Auxiliary