The Guardian, Charlottetown, Wed., Sept. 28, 1966. 5

Livestock Sale Is Big Success

Sale officials termed the Island Livestock Sale held last night at the Charlottetown Exhibition Grounds a big success. The number attending for this, the first sale, met the expectations of George H. Lacey, Truro, N.S. sales manager and Frank Berkealaar, auctioneer. The high priced standard steer sold for 23 1/2 cents a pound, with other prices ranging from 15 1/2 to 22 cents a pound. The rest of sale, which consisted of calves, cows and breeders was more than satisfactory for producers. Mr. Lacey and Mr. Berkealaar expressed gratification to the N.S., N.B. and Ontario buyers who helped to make the sale a big success. Gratification was also expressed by the sales management to see local farmers attending and supporting the sale by their bidding and purchasing.

TOWN PLANNING
A meeting of the Charlottetown town planning advisory committee took place Monday evening to make final changes in the proposed city by-laws regarding planning before these by-laws are presented to the City Council for passage. The date for the meeting of council to pass the by-laws has not been set yet, but is expected that it will either be at a special meeting called for this purpose, or possibly at the October meeting of the council. The town planning advisory committee is comprised of some members of the city council, including chairman Dr. Douglas MacDonald and several Charlottetown citizens.

TO NEWFOUNDLAND
The Prince Edward Island Centennial Bus has left for Newfoundland to take part in that province's British Fort Night Week. The Centennial bus was operated by Abegweit Sightseeing Tours this summer. The British Fort Night Week, which begins next week, is held in connection with Newfoundland's Come Home Year, and the participation of the centennial bus will inject a bit of "Old England" to Newfoundland recalling the fact most Newfoundlanders are of British extraction.

Trade Board Has Received Official Reply

C.F. Downe, president of the Charlottetown Board of Trade, has recently received a reply to a letter sent by the Charlottetown Board of Trade to Prime Minister Lester B. Pearson in regards to the recent CNR Railway strike requesting that steps be taken to guarantee continuous crossing facilities between P.E.I. and New Brunswick. The reply from the office of the Prime Minister read as follows: "Mr. Pearson appreciates having the views of the board on this matter and noted that copies of your letter have been forwarded to his colleagues most directly concerned." In the letter sent by the board of trade to the Prime Minister, mention was made of the 1959 Railway Strike and of the effects it had on the Island. Then the Prime Minister, Rt. Hon. Louis St. Laurent, was approached on this matter and assured that efforts would be made to reduce the chances of a recurrence, however, 16 years later the same situation repeats itself.

HEARINGS

—How advertising and public relations costs affect final prices.
—How efficient is distribution of goods in Canada.
—Whether consumer demand for better packaging rebounds in higher over-all prices.
—Whether competition or the lack of it affects prices at the consumer level.
—Whether tariff policy keeps out low-price consumer goods that could force down domestic prices.

R. B. Bryce, deputy finance minister, leads off as first witness today with a general statement on the economy. Further technical material will be laid before the committee Thursday and next week by officials of the agriculture department and Dominion Bureau of Statistics. If the menu looks bland, later hearings hold promise of stronger stuff. GROUP IS MIXED
The existing committee composition of 24 MPs and 12 senators includes, by occupation, a dozen lawyers and another dozen men with backgrounds in business, five professional people, three farmers, two public relations men, one retired magistrate and one former construction worker.

After the Commons reconvenes Oct. 5, a week from today, MPs with a special interest in prices are expected to replace some existing committee members. The committee will examine the report of the Economic Council of Canada on wages, costs and prices, now expected to appear at the end of October. Council Chairman J. J. Deutch will be a witness at that time.

John Clarey Passes Away

The death of John Clarey, occurred in the Kings County Memorial Hospital on Saturday, Sept. 24. He was in his 86th year. In his early life he went to Boston and was employed with the Boston and Main railway from which he was retired about 15 years ago. He then moved to Whim Road, where he lived for thirteen years. Since then he resided with his sister at Montague. He was married to the former Sara Ann Chisholm of Boston, who predeceased him twelve years ago. He is survived by one daughter Mary, Mrs. Carl Abel of Addington, Mass., and two sons, John of Addington and Frank of Boston and four grandchildren. Also one sister Teresa of Montague.

Kings County Conservatives Hold Meeting

Melvin McQuaid, MP, for Kings County addressed the district meeting of the 4th District of Kings County PC Association held recently in the public hall, Murray River. Mr. McQuaid dealt with the many serious issues that face this nation today. He expressed hope that the people of Canada wouldn't continue to support the policies and ideas of the Pearson Government as they could only lead into further financial trouble. "Inflation," said Mr. McQuaid "is our number one national problem," and Islanders are becoming aware of this. As the housewife goes to the local store she can see prices increasing day by day. Mr. McQuaid in dealing with the financial situation in this province said that the present provincial government will find it very difficult to come up with sufficient monies to fulfill all their election promises if it continues to get only "skunk bounty" from Ottawa for provincial grants. Other speakers were: Preston McLure, MLA, 3rd Kings and Willard MacLean, candidate for

Home, School Holds Meeting

MONTAGUE - The Montague branch of the Home and School Association held its September meeting at the elementary school Monday evening, Sept. 26, with the president, Al Comeau, in the chair. Only a small group was in attendance. A discussion on the problems of elementary and high school dropouts took place. It was decided to make a thorough study of the situation and any possible remedial project for the next year. It was felt with the many types of careers represented locally, both professionally and non-professionally, the different aspects of various ways of earning a living could be made known to the teen-age group in our schools by local businessmen.

MOSS IS PLENTIFUL

Tons of Irish moss thrown up on the shoreline at Norway on the west shore of the province about four miles from North Cape is being gathered in large quantities by farmers and fishermen in the Tignish area. The recent storm has thrown up the moss. The moss is exceptionally clean thus speeding the processing part of harvesting and marketing. The men are shown here piling and hauling the moss.

4th Kings in the last provincial election.

Both men expressed the importance of good organization at the district and poll levels to ensure victory at an election. The meeting was chaired by John MacGowan, president of 4th Kings PC Association and the secretary was John McNeill. "Inflation," said Mr. McQuaid "is our number one national problem," and Islanders are becoming aware of this. As the housewife goes to the local store she can see prices increasing day by day.
