Alberton Woman Dies In Ch'town

The death of Mrs. William Hunter occurred in Charlottetown Saturday morning following a brief illness which came at the conclusion of several years of ill health. The former Miss Hope Profit, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. John T. Profit, was born at Alberton June 21, 1877. Following her marriage in 1898, she and Mr. Hunter continued to reside in Alberton for some eleven years, after which they moved to Summerside. Mr. Hunter passed away in 1932. Eight years later Mrs. Hunter returned to her native town. By those who knew her she will be remembered for her kindness, for her hospitality, and for her happy disposition. She is survived by one son, Russell Hunter of Summerside, one granddaughter, a step-daughter, Mrs. W. J. Bussell of Vancouver, and a brother, Charles R. Profit of Alberton. The funeral will be held this (Monday) afternoon from the home of her brother to Alberton United Church for service at 8.30 p.m. Interment will be in Hillcrest Cemetery.

Death Sunday of Emmett Gallant

Mr. Emmett Gallant of Christophers Cross, near Tignish, passed away yesterday morning in the Western Hospital following an illness of several weeks. Besides his wife, the former Winnifred McCue of Palmer Road, he leaves to mourn three children, Frances, 13, Gerard, 11 and Catherine, aged 3; also a brother, Earl, in Norway and three sisters: Mrs. Mrs. Edward Gallant, Skowhegan, Maine; Stella, Mrs. Cyril McCue, Norwood, Mass., and Miss Catherine Gallant, also of Norway. SUGGESTS EXCHANGES WATERLOO, Ont. (CP) - The Chamber of Commerce here was urged to take the lead in promoting more intimate relations between Canada and Australia by exchange of students and ideas. Sir Douglas Copland, Australia's high commissioner to Canada, made the suggestion Thursday at the chamber's 66th annual meeting.
