

Former Islander Dies in Alberta

Word has been received by relatives in Alberta of the sudden death of Ivan Currie at Irma, Alberta, on March 28th. A son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Havel Currie, Irma, he was born their former home in West Cape, P.E.I. sixty-six years ago. Before joining other members of his family in Western Canada, Mr. Currie worked in the United States for some years as a carpenter and in this trade he was a skilled craftsman. He was a veteran of World War I. Besides his wife and three daughters he is survived by three brothers and one sister, Gerald and David of Edmonton, Leigh and Ella (Mrs. A. R. McRoberts) of Irma. Another sister, Lena (Mrs. George W. Hardy), predeceased him some years ago.

Albany Wins Baker Trophy

The Albany St. Pats won the C. C. Baker trophy Saturday night in the Kensington rink by defeating Kensington 9-3 in the second game of a two-game, total goal series. They had taken the first game in Bedeque rink on Friday night 12-3 so they won the found 21-6.

The Albany goals were scored by Bonnie Howatt and Delbert Dawson with three each, Roberts with two and Pat Noonan with a single counter. Clayton Mill scored all three goals for the Kensington team. Following the game, the Hon. C. C. Baker presented the trophy which had been donated by him. The cup is emblematic of the championship of the North and South Shore Leagues. Other teams to win the trophy were Tryon and the Freetown Royals three times.

Referees Fred Semple and Mark Delaney handed out four penalties Saturday.
