

My arrival
Brings about the worst parts of the Bible humanity's last chance at survival
Fails
anarchy prevails
Women scream and babies wail

Because of the excruciating pain
The Earth never to see happiness again
The only ones to survive are those who go insane

It's the grand finale
It's the beginning of the ending
Nothing but evil that I'm spreading evil that I'm sending Prepare for the apocalypse prepare for armageddon
Bring out your dead

All is begun
With the eclipsing of the sun
Some try to run
Some try to hide
But thousands die when the earth opens wide

Engulfing the masses
Millions more are killed by fiery hot flashes
And blasses
Caused by the crashes

Of asteroids and meteorites
Which causes the earth to ignite
Smoke rises blocking out the light
Turning judgement day into judgement night

BRING OUT YOUR DEAD

Marc
