SPECIAL DESPATCHES TO THE EXAMINER

DOMINION PARLIAMENT

Debates and Proceedings.

OTTAWA, April 30.

The House met at 1.30 o'clock, and after brief routine plunged into an exciting debate over Sir John's motion to receive the report of the committee of the whole on the resolution providing for the construction of a railway between a point of junction on the New Brunswick railway at or near Harvey, N. B., and a point of junction with the Intercolonial railway at or near Salisbury, N. B., or somewhere between Salisbury and Moncton. The party lines were strictly drawn, and local interests were delegated to back seats.

Mr. Weldon (St. John) moved the following amendment seconded by Mr. Ellis, "that the report be not concurred in, but that it be resolved that no action be taken by this House authorizing the construction by the Government of Canada of another line of railway between Harvey and Salisbury or Moncton until the proper surveys of the proposed line and reliable estimates of its probable cost are laid before Parliament, and until time has established that the existing lines of railway between the points named is not sufficient to meet the demands of the passenger and freight traffic.

Mr. Ellis briefly supported the amendment.

The debate which followed lasted two and a half hours, and on division Weldon's amendment was rejected, 34 to 70.

The resolution was then adopted and the Short Line bill was rushed through its final stage.

The House, after some debate, accepted the Senate's amendment to the Anti-Combines Bill.

The Senate's Act relating to bills of lading was agreed to without amendment.

The House will meet again at 10.30 o'clock this (Wednesday) morning.

NOTES.

The House will prorogue Thursday afternoon if the Short Line Bill goes through the Senate in time. The measure will meet with much opposition in that Chamber.

Nomination May 9th, in Compton, to fill the vacancy caused by Hon. J. H. Pope's death. Election, 16th.

'Twas all a Joke.

MONTREAL, April 30.

It now turns out that Miss Mulcahey, who, two months ago, it was reported had been married to a dying lover named Husson, was victimized. The joke was perpetrated by medical students. The mock marriage took place in covered sleighs, with wigged medicos as parson and "father from England," but the most ghastly part of the performance was that a corpse was stolen from the dissecting room, covered from head to foot, and passed off as the girl's lover.

The New Minister.

MONTREAL, April 30.

A private despatch from Ottawa says that it is certain that Hon. J. J. C. Abbot will become Minister of Railways and Canals, that he will contest his old constituency, Argentuil, the present member, Wilson, to be elected to the Senate.
