

GORDIE IN THE PARADE

A noted TV and radio personality, Gordie Tapp is seen here as he is driven through the streets of Charlottetown yesterday in the annual Gold Cup and Saucer parade. Mr. Tapp arrived in Charlottetown earlier this week to take part in Old Home Week festivities.

Summer Festival Concert Acclaimed By Conductor

By NANCY WHITE
The new commissioned work opening Sunday's Summer Festival concert by The Atlantic Orchestra is "the most interesting of them all so far," according to conductor John Fenwick.

Oswald Collings Passes In City

MONTAGUE — The death occurred at the Charlottetown Nursing Home on Thursday morning of Oswald Collings formerly of New Perth and Montague. The late Mr. Collings was in his 88th year. He was born and lived most of his life at New Perth but for a time worked with a survey crew in Quebec and Ontario. He was married to the former Margaret Shaw of New Perth who predeceased him about five years ago.

The funeral will take place today at 2 o'clock from the Montague Funeral Home. Interment will take place in the Union Road cemetery.

Island Delegates Leaving Today

Mrs. W.W. Reid of Charlottetown, director of Red Cross Youth for P.E.I., and Diaae Taylor of Hunter River who has given leadership in high school Red Cross and will be attending Acadia University this fall, leave today to take part in a week-long National Red Cross Training Centre to be held at Albert College in Belleville, Ontario.
Directors of Red Cross Youth from Canada's ten provinces, plus field organizers, and young people who have been active in high school Red Cross, plus a small number of "national" delegates, will take part in this Centre. A grant from the Youth Travel and Exchange Program of the Centennial Commission has made this Centre possible.

DR. GAMBLE
Mary H. Gamble, Doctor of Chiropractic, has been visiting so they will work together as a team at the "Rendezvous '67" Seminar, and possibly other situations; and the making of a preliminary assessment of the requirements of possible future national training centres of a her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Gamble of Albany, P.E.I., prior to opening her office in Charlottetown the latter part of this month.

Dr. Gamble graduated from the Canadian Memorial Chiropractic College in Toronto, May 21, 1965, at which time she was presented with the Dr. Walter Scholarship for General Proficiency; the J.M. Wallace Scholarship in anatomy and the College Clinic Award.
This past year, Dr. Gamble has been assistant supervisor to the Clinic Director in the Canadian Memorial Chiropractic College where internes in their first year treat out-patients. She also conducted her own private practice from the college premises when not supervising in the College Clinic.
