

GARTH HERRING, Beryl MacLean and Murray Mayhew are three of the 40 representatives of Canada Packers who joined their special Cavalcade, arranged by Mr. James Coles, to attend the Red Cross Blood Donor Clinic at five o'clock yesterday afternoon. Other employees of Canada Packers who were unable to join in yesterday's cavalcade, because they had to return to work last evening, will be attending one of today's Red Cross Clinics.

Charlottetown Achieved Half Blood Donor Objective

The registration of 612 donors at yesterday's Red Cross Blood Donor Clinics - 50 per cent of the objective set for the two days in Charlottetown - set a new attendance record for the province. The achievement of this wonderful result can be attributed in a large measure to the outstanding response at St. Dunstan's College, where 209 attended the session held there yesterday morning in the University's spacious gymnasium. This was the largest number ever to turn out at St. Dunstan's. Excellent assistance for the Mobile Red Cross Blood Donor Team was provided by members of the student body who carried out the many different tasks in a most efficient manner.

From the official opening of the first session of the Charlotte-town Clinics at the Clover Club at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon by Mayor Edwin C. Johnston and members of the City Council, until closing time last evening 402 donors attended - 190 in the afternoon, and 212 in the evening. The arrival of some 40 members of the "Life Saver Club" in a Calvacade from Canada Packers at 5 o'clock, which was heralded by much horn-blowing, established an all-time high for an afternoon Clinic.

Former Resident Of Lower Montague Dies In Ch'town

The death of 92-year-old William Coulson occurred near his residence on Elm Ave. yesterday afternoon. He had emerged from his home with his niece, Mrs. Jean Jeffreys and was walking south on Elm Ave., when he collapsed suddenly on the sidewalk. Two Red Cross nurses travelling in on the Ave., were on the scene shortly after Mr. Coulson suffered the seizure, and offered their services, but the aged man passed away before a doctor had arrived.

Mount Stewart U. C. Men Hold Final Meeting

On April 23rd., 1958, at Mt. Stewart Memorial Hall the Mt. Stewart Men's Association held their last supper meeting for the season 57-58 with more than 120 members and wives and friends enjoying a splendid supper prepared by Mt. Stewart Missionary Society.

Woodvale Man Dies In U. S.

Heavy Rain Threat Brings New N.B. Flood Threat

FREDERICTON (CP) - Flood waters receded along the swollen St. John River in central New Brunswick Monday. At the same time a forecast of rain for today raised fears the river may rise again.

The Halifax weather office predicted up to an inch of rain over New Brunswick as a storm moves across the Maritime provinces from the eastern United States.

The river was high all along its 485-mile length but the worst flooding continued to be in the section just downstream from Fredericton. Homes, farmlands and highways were under water. The water level rose an inch at Sheffield, about 18 miles south of here, but at Fredericton it dropped 1 1/2 feet from the peak reached late last week.

The city pumping station reported the river stood at 23.4 feet above summer low level. At the peak it touched 25.9 feet.

LEAVE HOMES

Farm families in the Sheffield district had to leave their homes or move to the second floor.

Wells were polluted, hay storage washed away and fences knocked down, leaving livestock in peril. Farmers worked night and day to ferry their animals on scows to higher ground across the river.

At Burton in the same area farmers stabled their stock in the barns of more fortunate neighbours or put them in pastures on higher levels.

At Sheffield the water reached the highest point since floods of 1934.

The home of Hubert Harvey at Maudville was reported to have toppled over after the flood washed out part of the foundation.

City Resident Taken To Court In Rubbish Case

A city resident became the first person summoned to City Police Court this year on charges of allowing rubbish to gather in his back yard. The move was the beginning of the city's cleaning up program.

The accused was ordered to pay court costs.

A 25-year-old Kinkora man was fined $100 and costs or 20 days in jail when he appeared in court on a drunk and incapable charge. Another drunk and incapable charge on a Queen Street resident, adjourned from April 25th, was further adjourned when the accused was unable to appear. A further adjournment was given to a Water Street resident when he was unable to make an appearance. Both men are in hospital.

IN MEMORIAM

MRS. MARY MacINNIS

One of the most respected northern citizens of Winsloe North passed on recently in the person of Mrs. Mary Cavada (Laird) Macinnis. Born in North Rustico over 80 years ago, she came a bride to Winsloe, and soon became one of the community's busy and helpful members.

Her husband, John Macinnis, passed away in February, 1931, and one daughter, Edna (Mrs. Honeywell Spence) in June, 1930. During her last days she was looked after by her son, Gordon, and his wife, also her daughter, Maud (Mrs. J. W. Folland), who hurried home from Watertown, Mass., to her mother's bedside.

Also surviving, are a sister Edna, (Mrs. Harry Inman, Augustine Cove), and three grandchildren.

Friends from far and near crowded the Winsloe North United Church on the occasion of her funeral, which was conducted by her minister, Rev. Dr. E. Arthur Betts. Interment was in the nearby cemetery.

A strong Churchwoman, Mrs. Macinnis held many offices in the Winsloe North congregation. When the Women's Missionary Society was organized late in 1919, she was elected its first president, and continued to fill the office for 38 years. She was also prominent in the life and work of the Sunday School, and taught for some years. She was ever a thoughtful neighbour, and in case of sickness, could be counted on to help in any way possible.

Active, within a few days of her passing, she enjoyed life to the full, and sought to serve her Lord and Master with the best she could command.

Y. P. U. Conduct Special Service

A very impressive and inspiring Sunrise Service was held in St. David's United Church Hall. The service was conducted by Georgetown Y.P.U. who chose as their theme Mary Magdalene. The president Jordan Stewart was chairman. Barbara Llewellyn read the Scripture. Marie Larsen read a commentary. Ruth LeLachour led in prayer. The Y.P.U. Girls Choir sang.

Rev. W. A. Paterson pronounced the Benediction. Mrs. H. Larsen was organist.

SAVED BY PHONE CALL

COBOURG (CP) - A telephone call saved mechanic Douglas Blakeman from death or injury Friday when a mysterious explosion shattered the interior of a garage. Moments after Mr. Blakeman went to answer the telephone the blast blew out the windows and doors. Glass and splinters flew 200 feet out in the street.

CARDS OF THANKS

The family of the late Mrs. John Macinnis wish to thank the many friends and neighbours who kindly helped in various ways during her last illness and following her passing.

WOODVALE MAN DIES IN U. S.

James Albert Gavin, son of the late Michael Gavin of Woodvale, P.E.I., passed away in St. Peter's Hospital, Minnesota, on April 13th, 1958. He was in his seventieth year.

He first left his P.E.I. home, at the early age of sixteen years, on the then "Harvesting Excursion" to the Canadian West, returning subsequently. But the next couple of years later found him in Alhambra, Montana and in Helena, Montana, where he learned the trade of machinist with the Northern U.S. Railway shops. This trade he followed for the most of his life.

During the First World War, he enlisted in the United States Air Force as a Motor machinist, early in 1916. His skill and precision at this important work was soon recognized by his officers and he was raised to the rank of Sergeant. After serving in France till the close of the war, he was finally returned with his unit, to U.S.A. late in 1919.

Then began the difficult task, all World War soldiers faced, when returned to civilian life. He again began work as a Railway Machinist and served in Chicago, and in Minneapolis, Minn., until his retirement a few years ago.

During his last illness, he was visited many times by his sister, Sr. Prudentia and his three nieces, Sr. Agnes Mary, Sr. Francis Rita and Sr. Philomena, all of St. Paul, Minn. His nephew Rev. Father Justin Gavin visited

Orphanage Aid Annual Meeting

The St. Elizabeth's Aid Society held its annual meeting at St. Vincent's Orphanage, April 27, 1958. Sr. Mary Peter opened the meeting with prayer. Reports by the treasurer and the corresponding secretary were read.

The president, Mrs. Coyle reviewed the year's work. A tag day and envelope collection were the chief projects. Books were given at Christmas, treat provided at St. Valentine's, and prizes for the school term. Some of the members helped with mending.

A concert by the children at Christmas was much enjoyed. Members helped the Red Cross at the Blood Donor Clinics, envelope collections and as donors.

MEET CHILDREN

Sr. Superior extended a welcome to the members at any time and told them she thought they were performing their special mission in the lay apostolate well by helping the orphans, a true apostolate of Christian Charity. She suggested that little personal interest in a particular child would assist the children. If anyone felt so inclined she could invite a child out for a weekend, to supper or to a movie.

Mrs. Coyle presented her with a cheque. The officers elected for the coming year are: president, Mrs. F. A. Coyle, 1st vice - president, Mrs. Annie Stewart, 2nd vice-president, Mrs. J. J. Trainor, secretary, Mrs. Eugene Wynne, correspondence secretary, Mrs. A. F. Gormley, treasurer, Mrs. Ella Connolly.

The Sisters served lunch, and the children entertained the members.

Appeal In Excise Case Is Dismissed

An appeal by a city resident, Mrs. Margaret MacDonald, was dismissed yesterday when it came up for Supreme Court before Mr. Justice M. R. MacGuigan. G. R. Foster appeared for the crown.

Mrs. MacDonald was convicted, along with two others on a charge of possession of liquor under the Excise Act. The incident occurred last September. The accused was convicted in December.

Evidence was heard for the crown in Monday morning's sitting. In the afternoon session defence counsel J. A. MacDonald, Q.C., told the court that evidence given by the prosecution left some doubt as to whether the accused actually knew that the exhibits actually contained "moonshine."

Mr. Justice MacGuigan however, referred to statements made by Cpl. Raymond Lively, R.C.M.P., officer investigating the incident. Cpl. Lively was asked by Mrs. MacDonald if she might claim the "shine".

He said that even if she didn't know what was going on at the time, the sight of the tin cans in the burlap bag would naturally have aroused her interest.

"I am quite confident," he said, "in my own mind that Mrs. MacDonald knew what was going on at the time."

The appeal was thrown out and the original fine of $100
