"Old-Timers" Raise $3,000 For Orphans

SAINT JOHN, N. B. (CP)—Pucksters of yesterday flipped open the pages of hockey history before an old time crowd of 3,000 Saturday night and raised nearly $3,000 for orphans.

The old timers led 5-2 in the final period before legs and wind gave out. They held the current edition of Saint John Beavers to a 5-5 tie in 59 minutes of good hockey. In the final minute each team scored as they clowned with each other and the referees.

At times the speedier Beavers couldn't cope with the old master poke-checkers. Jackie Keating centred a line with "Twinkles" Sammy McManus and Pete Kelly.

"Moose" LeBlanc, Walter Kyle, Eddie Price and Gerry Lynch handled blue-line duties for the vets.

Gordie Drillon opened the scoring. The old "Razzle Dazzle" Kids—Walter Butler, Don Garcey and Joe O'Toole—were in top form for two periods. Colin Sheppard and Steve Estabrook were as fast as anyone on the ice.

"Pickles" Macnicol, Mike Fitzgerald and Abbie Colwell gave yeoman service.

As sensational in goal as ever, Kony Macdonald robbed the young Beavers of many a goal. Clem O'Connor helped the flash-back with a refereeing chore.

Olympic Losses Are Nearing $1,000,000

MELBOURNE (AP)—Olympic game losses already total $840,000 and are inching toward the $1,000,000 mark, Sir William Bridgeford said Saturday. He was the executive director of the games held last Nov. 22-Dec. 8.

Remember When

Toronto's Varsity Grands won the Olympic hockey title at St. Moritz 29 years ago today by blanking Switzerland 13-0 in the final. Hugh Paxton and Dave Trotter each scored 12 of the total 38 goals registered by the Canadians in their march to the championship.

Steeplechaser To Make Comeback

LONDON (CP)—Mont Tremblant, one of Britain's great steeplechasers, is coming back to the racing wars at the age of 11.

The golden chestnut jumper, named for the resort in the Laurentians, suffered trouble in a hind leg late in 1955 and has not been on a race course since that time.

Now the trouble has subsided and Mont Tremblant is expected to have his first comeback race late in February. Formerly owned by Dorothy Paget, wealthy owner of a large string of jumpers, he now will race in the colors of Madame K. Hennessey, owner of Grand National entry Armorial III.

Mont Tremblant won the Cheltenham Gold Cup in 1952 and appeared headed for a career rivaling that of the late Golden Miller, but recurrent leg trouble handicapped him. Perhaps his greatest race was in the gruelling Grand National of 1953, when he carried 173 pounds into second place behind Early Mist over the 4-mile course.

WINNIPEG (CP)—The smooth-skating team of Geraldine Fenton of Hamilton and Bill McLachlan of Toronto combined Saturday night to sweep all three senior dance competitions at the wind-up of the three-day Canadian figure skating championships.

The 1957 North American dance champions skated with ease to the senior dance, the waltz and the ten step titles. The results stamped the couple as a major threat for the world dance title at Colorado Springs, Colo., later this month.

The senior women's and men's singles titles both remained with the 1956 champions, Carole Jane Pachi, 19, of Montreal, now skating out of Toronto, cruised through the compulsory figures through the compulsory figures with ease and then increased her victory margin with a dazzling display of free skating. Charles Smelling, 19, of Toronto scored his fourth successive senior men's triumph, despite a determined bid by last year's runner-up, 16-year-old Donald Jackson of Oshawa, Ont., skating for the Ottawa Minto Club.

Tiny Barbara Wagner and Robert Paul of Toronto, had little difficulty adding the senior pairs crown to the North American pairs championships they won the previous weekend at Rochester, N. Y. Their strongest opposition came from Czechoslovakia - born Maria and Otto Jelinek, now of the Oakville, Ont., skating club.

All winners were presented with their trophies at a centre ceremony at the Winnipeg Arena, with Lieutenant-Governor J. S. McDiarmid of Manitoba heading the official presentation party.

Championships won on previous nights included: Junior women's singles - Doreen Lister, 14, of Schumacher, Ont.; junior men's singles—Hugh Ernest Smith, 17, of Toronto; junior pairs - Joan McLeod and Carl Harrison of Toronto; and junior dance—Elaine Protheroe and William Trimble of Winnipeg. The senior fours event was not contested due to lack of entries.

Opposes Closing Of Race Track

BALTIMORE (AP)—Donald C. Lillis, president of Bowie, Md. Lillis strongly opposed a proposal to close Pimlico Race Track and run a joint meeting at Laurel.

"This is the plan of monopoly" by John D. Schapiro, president of Laurel, Lillis said at a hearing before the Maryland Racing Commission.

Lillis said if the commission approved the joint meeting leaving only Laurel and Bowie as major tracks in Maryland "Bowie" could not stand the gaff.

Pimlico and Laurel say their proposal is "sufficiently flexible to permit Bowie's participation."

Will Study Sea Life And Living

PARIS (Reuters) — Dr. Alain Bombard, the scientist who demonstrated how shipwrecked sailors could live off the sea, will set out on a new ocean-going expedition.

Dr. Bombard floated across the Atlantic in a rubber raft to show that life could be sustained on water and food from the ocean.

He said Friday night when he received the cross of a knight of the Legion of Honor that he will spend five years on his newest project. He will study life saving equipment, maritime diseases and sea life.

He will take a crew of nine men on a 20-ton auxiliary ketch now being built at Quiberon in Brittany. They will voyage to temperate, tropical and polar seas.

The ketch will be called La Coryphene after a fish which Dr.

Bombard found particularly nourishing on his transatlantic raft voyage.

80 Per Cent Of Immigrants In Ontario, Quebec

OTTAWA (CP) — Nearly 80 per cent of the 164,857 immigrants who arrived in Canada in 1956 settled in Ontario and Quebec, the immigration department said Thursday.

Final immigration figures for last year show that 122,056 came to Canada to settle in the two provinces. A total of 90,662 were destined for Ontario and 31,394 for Quebec.

Arrivals during the year represented a gain of 54,911 over 109,946 in 1955. The post-war record was 194,391 in 1951, and compared with 164,000 in 1952; 168,000 in 1953 and 154,000 in 1954.

The third largest group of immigrants — 17,812 — settled in British Columbia. A total of 9,959 went to Alberta, 5,796 to Manitoba, 2,202 to Saskatchewan, 1,639 to Nova Scotia, 852 to New Brunswick, 426 to Newfoundland, 118 to the Yukon and Northwest Territories and 112 to Prince Edward Island.

The destinations of 3,883 were not specified.

The year's total was made up of 91,039 classed as members of the labor force and 30,547 wives, 32,461 children and 4,810 not classified.

Arrivals from the United Kingdom totalled 50,563, compared with 30,195 in 1955. Immigration from Italy rose to 29,532, from 20,077, from Germany to 25,590 from 17,138, from The Netherlands to 7,886 from 6,885, from Greece to 5,104 from 2,907 and from Denmark to 3,605 from 1,379. However, arrivals from the United States declined to 9,059 from 9,597.

Funeral Held Of Veteran Newsman

FORT WILLIAM, Ont. (CP)—Citizens from every walk of life crowded St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church Wednesday for the funeral of Dave Smith, veteran newspaper man and Lakehead pioneer who died Sunday at the age of 84.

Rev. Agnew H. Johnston said in the funeral oration that the gathering was a "mighty tribute" to Mr. Smith, who for more than 40 of his 70 years in the newspaper business was part owner, managing director and secretary-treasurer of the Fort William Times-Journal.

Burial was in Mountain View Cemetery.

Honorary pallbearers were: Frank N. Murphy, Carson Piper, Dr. J. C. Gillie, R. B. Pow, Fred Babe, David Bole, Thomas Tod, Samuel McMullin, E. G. Charneck, David Anderson, Gillis Purcell, Porter Bailey, Joseph Crawford and Richard Dagher.

Active pallbearers were: A. H. Goodman, G. A. Johnston, George Breckman, James Cassidy, Joseph Johnson and Wilson Brown of The Times-Journal.

Mr. Smith was a pioneer supporter of co-operative news-gathering in Canada. A member of The Western Associated Press founded in 1907, he became a member of the nation-wide organization, The Canadian Press, 10 years later.

At the time of his death he was the one charter member of CP still an active member. He was a director of The Canadian Press in 1943-44 and 1947-50.

Price Indexes Go Up In Five Cities

OTTAWA (CP) — Consumer price indexes rose moderately in five of 10 regional cities between December, 1956 and January, 1957, the bureau of statistics said Wednesday. Indexes were unchanged in two of the other five.

Total indexes by cities for January, based on the 1949 prices equalling 100, with December figures in brackets: St. John's 107.7 (107.5); Halifax 118.5 (118.3); Saint John 121.2 (121.1); Montreal 129.4 (129.7); Ottawa 121.4 (12.6); Toronto 123.1 (123.1); Winnipeg 118.8 (118.4); Saskatoon - Regina 117.1 (117.1); Edmonton - Calgary 117.3 (117.4); Vancouver 122.1 (121.7).

NEW CARGO PLANE

WASHINGTON (AP)—The U.S. Air Force has unveiled a gigantic new cargo plane—the Douglas C-124—which will have a speed of more than 460 miles an hour and be capable of carrying a 200,000-pound payload. This maximum load is double the lift of the C-99, a transport version of the B-36 which is the largest American cargo aircraft.

An important announcement from the Kellogg Company

By George M. Johnston
President, Kellogg Company of Canada

BEFORE our founder, W. K. Kellogg, died in 1951, he had a great concept about a new cereal. He believed that valuable properties of other foods could be combined with those of the grains in such a way as to produce a high-quality protein food in a delicious new cereal form.
