THE DAILY EXAMINER. NEWS BY TELEGRAPH.

DECEMBER 13, 1878.

A year and a half have rolled away; and the DAILY EXAMINER still lives.

Indeed it may now be truly said that the DAILY EXAMINER is one of the "institutions" of the Province.

An appetite for a daily paper has been formed; and, judging by the increasing sales of the DAILY EXAMINER in the city, along the line of railway, and in the various towns throughout the Province, it is doubtful if the people could live without their daily paper.

Hard though the times and dark the prospect of the coming winter, it is our intention to continue the publication of the DAILY EXAMINER, so that the popular demand may be supplied.

Throughout the winter we intend to supply to the public, by means of the DAILY EXAMINER, a daily telegram containing news of all the notable events which shall transpire throughout the world in this great crisis of its history.

Through the DAILY EXAMINER the people of the Island shall—from day to day—and, independently of the Northern Light or Muttart and Irving—be informed of what is transpiring in Afghanistan, in Russia, in Germany, in the neighboring Republic, and most important of all—in the mother country.

We shall, if possible, send a special correspondent to report for the DAILY EXAMINER the Parliamentary proceedings at Ottawa, with special reference to those which most directly and most deeply interest the people of this Island.

The local news shall be given through the DAILY EXAMINER promptly, truly and as full as possible.

For the large means required to carry out this work we look to the people whose wants the DAILY EXAMINER will supply, and whose varied interests we shall assiduously endeavor to promote.

The original subscribers of the DAILY EXAMINER will, in the course of a few days, be called upon for a renewal of their favors.

The beginning of another term is a good time to subscribe; and persons who have not hitherto taken the DAILY EXAMINER would do well to subscribe now.

In connection with the DAILY EXAMINER the WEEKLY EXAMINER will be issued, at the unprecedentedly low subscription price of ONE DOLLAR a year—payment to be made in advance.

GILT MIRRORS,

EX "Prince Edward,"—cheap.
J. NEWSON.
Nov. 22—1m

OTTAWA, Dec. 10.

Information received here states that Hon. Mr. Tilley succeeded beyond the expectations of the Government in placing the new Canadian loan.

He sails for home on Thursday, and is expected here about the 22nd inst.

The Governor General, to-day, received addresses of welcome from the County Council of Carleton and the general conference of the Methodist churches.

The conference ceremony took place in the Senate Chamber, and the members of the different deputations were personally presented to His Excellency, who evinced much cordiality in conversing with them.

The winter sitting of the Carleton County Court opened to-day. There being no criminal cases, Judge Daniels, who presides, was presented with the traditional white gloves.

At the Police Court, to-day, two of the pickpocket gang, named Miller, alias P. Guerin, and Petrie, were committed for trial on a charge of stealing $20 from the ticket office at the Opera House, on the night of the St. Andrew's concert.

A third, named McDonald, charged with robbing Senator Wilmut of $60, was liberated, the evidence against him being insufficient.

Others of the party, four in number, have been further remanded.

OTTAWA, Dec. 11.

The Opera House was crowded to-night by the Liberal-Conservatives of the city to witness the presentation of addresses from the workmen of Ottawa to Sir John McDonald, congratulating him on his return to power, and to Mr. C. H. Mackintosh, editor of the "Citizen," acknowledging material assistance rendered by him in the late contest in Ottawa and elsewhere; also the presentation to Hon. Dr. Tupper of his portrait on behalf of several Liberal Conservative members of the last Parliament, who had it painted at the close of the last session, but had had no opportunity for making the presentation.

Eloquent speeches were delivered by Sir John, Dr. Tupper, Mr. Mackintosh, and Messrs. Tasse and Currier, M. P's.

Sir John expressed his firm conviction that the depression under which the country has labored for the past five years would speedily give way to activity and prosperity under the policy of the new Administration.

The meeting was very enthusiastic, and at the close the recipients of the honors of the occasion were escorted home by an immense crowd of people and a band of music.

Members of the County of Ottawa Council will present an address to the Marquis of Lorne to-morrow.

AMHERST, Dec. 11.

A man named McDonald, walking on the track a mile and a half from here, was struck by the Quebec Express this morning. His skull was crushed, both legs broken, and the left arm fractured. He was deaf, and facing a strong wind he did not hear the train, which was emerging from a cutting. He cannot recover.

HALIFAX, Dec. 11.

The storm was very severe last night and to-day. Trees have been uprooted.

The schooner "Hattie E." broke away from Tobin's wharf, run into Commercial wharf and knocked over a number of bbls. of fish.

Between sixty and seventy vessels left port between Saturday and Monday, most of whom have probably been caught in the storm.

Schr. "Trial" is reported a total loss at Big Bras d'Or, C. B.

Black Bros., hardware merchants, have purchased the property at the head of Tobin's wharf from the estate of the late O. J. Knapen.

CANSO, Dec. 11.

The schooner "Glendora," owned by Peter Bosdet, of Arichat, C. B., struck shoals in endeavoring to make the harbor and is a total wreck. She is insured in a Halifax office.

LIVERPOOL, N. S., Dec. 11.

Last night blew a terrific gale from the south east, and heavy rain continued till noon to-day. The gale is said to have been the most terrific known here for several years. There was a very heavy sea breaking across the harbor. This morning the barque "Linda Abott," Capt. Scobey, master, chartered by parties at Bridgewater and ready to sail, parted her chains and went ashore near Brooklyn. She is a total loss. No other serious damage in the shipping line. The "Linda Abott" was owned by the captain and Douglas Miller of Halifax, and was insured in the Cobsequid of Truro and the Ocean, of Halifax.

LONDON, Dec. 11.

Courtland (Liberal) was yesterday elected to Parliament for Maldon by 141 majority in place of Sandford (Conservative), retired. The Times Berlin correspondent says the confidential communications from Germany which Mr. Bourke, Under Foreign Secretary, recently informed the British House of Commons was received in September, was a proposal that England should assume a protectorate over Constantinople and occupy certain neighboring positions as her price for permitting the unification of Bulgaria and Roumelia. The correspondent asserts that communications on the subject continue.

PRAGUE, Dec. 11.

Archduke Rudolf, Crown Prince of Austria and Hungary, shot himself slightly in the hand with a pistol.

LONDON, Dec. 11.

The Daily News Rome correspondent anticipates that the Italian Government will be defeated in the Chamber of Deputies by about fifty out of 460 votes.

ST. PETERSBURG, Dec. 11.

A semi-official statement asserts that the reconstruction of the Turkish Ministry is an indication of favorable progress in negotiations for a definite treaty. Russia only desires full and complete peace in conformity with the treaty of Berlin.

MADRID, Dec. 11.

The statement that the Spanish Government proposed to Germany collective anti-Socialist measures, is untrue.

COPENHAGEN, Dec. 11.

The Government has telegraphed the Governor of Santa Cruz, empowering him to grant administrative loans, not exceeding 600,000 crowns, for the purpose of restoring the sugar plantations.

It is not likely that the new elections will materially alter the strength of parties in the Danish Parliament.

ROME, Dec. 11.

The Chamber of Deputies rejected an order of the day, expressing confidence in the ability of the Government to maintain order with liberty. The Capitate asserts that the Ministry will ask the King to dissolve Parliament. This, however, is contradicted in parliamentary circles.

DARMSTADT, Dec. 11.

The condition of the Princess Alice of England is more satisfactory to-day.

LONDON, Dec. 11.

Sir William Jeuner, Physician in Ordinary to the Queen, at Her Majesty's request, went to Darmstadt yesterday to attend upon the Duchess of Hesse.

A despatch from Pesth says a temporary block has occurred in the negotiations for a definitive Turko-Russian Convention, Turkey insisting on the insertion of provisions stipulating that Russian evacuation shall proceed simultaneously with the surrender of places ceded to Montenegro.

The Montreal Gamblers.

Montreal has recently been infested with an organized band of gamblers and desperados, called the "Star Club." Their premises were raided by the police a few days ago. A despatch says: "There were thirty, belonging to it, four of whom—the notorious Jack Sheehan, arrested on the charge of shooting Hackett; Jack Elliott, one Phillips and one Cocin—have been arrested. They had rooms on Craig Street, and devoted their time to gambling and pilfering. The plunder was concealed in the room of a house kept by an Italian off Nye's yard. On entering the room a strange sight presented itself. An old iron bedstead held nine overcoats, six pairs of trousers and ten large rolls of tweed, together with $500. On the floor were piled one hundred and sixteen boxes of cigars, worth probably $700. In another corner, stowed away in a basket, were a clock and numerous other articles of fancy goods. The whole lot is worth about $2,000. The cloth was part of the spoils of the robbery at J. Rose and S. Rizerd's, on St. Lawrence Street; and cigars were stolen from the store of Dufresne & Monogorri, on Notre Dame. Fancy goods were in sufficient quantity to connect the occupants of the room with the burglary on J. L. Gurd's store on St. Catherine Street. These, with the recovery of Mr. Bulmer's plate, was a good night's work for the detectives.

Rank Insubordination.—Colonel (who has received a letter from Private Smith, addressing him "Dear Colonel") "What do you mean by addressing me in this familiar manner, sir?" Private Smith—"Beg pardon, sir; I didn't write my name—I got somebody else to, and I didn't mean it out of no respect, sir—Colonel—"What the devil do you mean, sir? Sergeant-Major, get this man a fourth-class certificate, immediately.

NORWICH, Ct., Dec. 7.—Miss Mary Maples, a daughter of a wealthy gentleman, married Edmund F. Chase against her father's wishes. The latter at his death left the property to Mary, to be given to her when she renounced Chase. A divorce was recently granted Mary from her husband, and her estate handed over to her. She has now remarried Chase.

Grip of Saturday contains an excellent cartoon entitled "Clamoring for the Fancy Doll." The cartoon represents the Reform Party as a young girl standing on tip-toe reaching towards Blake, who is perched on a high mantle-piece, and at his feet is a bag labelled "Blake ideas." The features of "Geordie Brown" are recognized, standing in a stooping attitude to the young child, and holding the doll Mackenzie in his hands, saying "Hoot-toot! ye hizzie! be content wif this one! Yon's only for ornament!" Bengough's latest is a very happy hit.

Foster home industries. Professor Foster and Mr. E. C. Freeze, of Fredericton, have patented a new stove, and there will be no longer any need to freeze.
