Two of the best games of the 'Golden Ball' hoop tournament were played at Saint Dunstan's gym and the first game saw the Pirates suffer their first setback, the Saints being the victors by a 64-57 score.

In the second contest the Senior BYC team, coached by Roy McGonnell had to come from behind to garner a 41-31 tie with RCAP.

With only a few minutes remaining the BYC five was trailing by six points with the score reading 37-31 and they only managed to sink the equalizing basket with less than seconds remaining.

The second half with the score reading 20-27 but the Saints outscored the Bucs 37-25 in the final session.

Lenny Sirois and Larry Farrell once again were the big guns for the Malpeque Road students, each scoring 21 points.

The second game saw the air men jump into a 9-17 first half lead and retain the lead till the flying seconds: Devana headed the RCAP effort with 16 points followed by Urquhart with eleven.

The weather office ventured the opinion that the temperature might be about 30, with no major snowstorms before or during the game.

For each team, the injury problem was a matter of being "done on one side." All the Calgary injuries were suffered by offensive players and the Bomber injuries hit their defensive players.

The selection of injuries was understandable, since these two units spent most of the time in the field as the Stampede held command. The Cowboys ran all offensive plays to 42 for the Bombers.

The weather outlook for Wednesday night was promising.

Huskies Try Hard

M. Mary's University Huskies went down fighting in their battle for the Purdy Cup Saturday afternoon at Halifax.

The underdog Saint Francis team, which had a real good try and with a bit of luck going their way, could have given the Xaverians a really good scare.

Of course, sentiment is usually with the underdog and this was certainly true for this Atlantic Football Conference classic.

For the Antigonish college, it's old stuff winning the Purdy Cup and the thrill must surely be going out of it for the perennial champions. If somebody else triumphed, you would expect a wild celebration but St. F.'s X was conquered year after year as getting monotonous.

The Xaverians seem to be able to collect much stronger aggregation than any of the other AFC squads. The other universities in the conference can't enter the stars in a manner similar to the Antigonishers.

We readily admit the excellence of St. F.'s X's educational facilities but we hasten to add that all Maritime universities competing in the AFC also have fine records as educational institutions. Nevertheless they cannot come close to assembling squads comparable to the X-Men.

We have our own idea on how to assemble great football squads at other Maritime colleges, including St. Dunstan's, but we need a lot of rich alumni to put our plan into operation.

However, we are doubtful, if somebody was willing to back our plan, that we would like to see it in operation. It could really be a bitter battle but we think the best squad they could assemble in the conference can't enter the stars in a manner similar to the Antigonishers.

Let us make it clear that we intend no offense to good old St. F. They take what comes and make the best squad they can in a great effort of football. Neither team got in the first division in AFC standings but they had a whole of a good time.

Meanwhile, the Xaverians are preparing for the Atlantic Bowl game this Saturday against Toronto University. It's likely to be a bitter battle but we think the AFC champions can cope the verdict. They gave McGill quite a fright earlier this season and we'd bet on them to send Toronto in Halifax on November 24.

Halifax, Amherst Ends In Draw

AMHERST — CP — Halifax Tartans and Amherst Ramblers fought to a 2-2 tie Monday in one of the season's fastest moving Nova Scotia Senior Hockey League contests here.

The game, played before 700 fans, boosted the 1st year's champion Ramblers to second place and gave the cellar-dwelling Tartans their first point in league standings.

However, playing coach Bob Brown says he will protest the game. Referee Jim Mitchell ordered the clubs to play over-time but Halifax refused to do so.

In an earlier tie game here on November 14, Amherst defeated Halifax.

After a scoreless first period, Brian Graver fired two goals less than five minutes apart.
