Sons of Temperance.

THE following is the Address of Welcome presented to the Grand Worthy Patriarch, G. W. Bentley, Esq., at the public temperance meeting, held last Tuesday evening:—

MY DEAR BROTHER,—In behalf of the three Divisions of the Sons of Temperance; and the temperance people of this city generally, it affords me very much pleasure to extend to you a most cordial welcome into our community, as a representative of the Grand Division of the Sons of Temperance of P. E. Island, of which you have the honor to be the worthy head. Many reasons combine in opening our hearts for your cordial reception.

We welcome you because we are painfully conscious of a great and growing evil in the midst of us—an evil more prolific in heart-rending results than any other—an evil that wastes our national resources, peoples our jails, fills our penitentiaries, impoverishes homes, brings sorrow to hearts, disgrace to families, and sends untold millions down to a premature grave, and a drunkard's awful hell; for "no drunkard shall inherit the kingdom of heaven."

We welcome you because we recognize in your noble order a great power directed against this hell-ordained and devil-directed traffic, and we cannot close our eyes upon the work that your order has done in the past, is now doing, and is calculated to do in the future, in checking the fearful current of intemperance, by saving the youth, rescuing the drunkard, and influencing legislation against the curse.

We hail your coming to us at this particular time (the very day that the argument on the vexed question of the constitutionality of the "Scott Act" is begun before the highest tribunal in the realm) as an auspicious omen.
We know that your presence will help to encourage hearts that are growing faint in the conflict, and thus prepare us to enforce more rigidly the existing "Act" which we humbly pray and fondly hope will, at this time, be confirmed as the law that governs us.

We welcome you, brother, and the honorable order which you now represent, and, in the name of all the temperance people of this city, we wish you a hearty God-speed, and pray that your visit may be productive of much good to us—thus making it pleasant to you.

Yours, in Love, Purity and Fidelity, D. G. MACDONALD.
Ch'town, April 18, 1882.

The G. W. Patriarch responded to the above in a very pleasing and well timed address. He said the Grand Division appreciated the kind reception extended to them at this time by the friends in Charlottetown. The Sons of Temperance aim only at the removal of the liquor traffic, the great evil, and the moral good of the community; and by the united action of all the professed friends of temperance, we are soon to win the day.

A Finger as a Nose.

A little over two years ago the medical and surgical world was deeply interested in the experiment of grafting on a nose, says the New York Daily News. The case was that of Thomas O. Colt, who had lost his nose, and the surgeon who had charge of the case was Dr. Thomas T. Sabine, of Bellevue Hospital. The operation consisted of grafting the large finger of the left hand on to the face, to supply the place of the missing nose. In order to do this the finger had to be split open, the nail removed, and it to be held in position for three months when it was amputated.
Later the nostrils were formed. The other day Tommy, as he is called, was taken before the New York Surgical Association, in Sixteenth street, between Fifth and Sixth avenues, where, the sutures having been removed, an examination was made, and the operation pronounced a success.
The bone of the figure forms the bridge of the nose. There was but one place in the nostril where the juncture was not complete, and an operation will shortly be made to remedy this defect. The whole case will be made the subject of a thesis in the journal of the association, and will be illustrated by means of colored plates. Dr.
Fox will prepare the article, and will, in fact, supervise the entire work-plates and all Tommy is feeling particularly happy over the result of his case, and was very much annoyed at the report that it had been a failure.

A huge joke was perpetrated on Mr.
John Charlton the Reform member for North Norfolk, the other evening. He went down to Cornwall on "special invitation" to enlighten the benighted dwellers of that town on the ruinous results of the National Policy and the disastrous consequences of Sir John Macdonald's Pacific Railway policy. He plodded away for an hour and a half, and at the close of his address the following resolution was moved and seconded: "That the meeting thoroughly believes that the policy of the present Government, properly termed the National Policy, has tended to the material prosperity of the Dominion, and that that policy is fully deserving of the support of the people of Canada; and further, they believe that the Government pursued a wise and enlightened policy in arranging with the Canada Pacific Railway Company for the construction and working of the railway, and the consequent opening up of our vast fertile territory in the North-West for the purposes of settlement upon terms that are peculiarly advantageous to the farmers of Ontario and others who desire to take up lands." Mr. Charlton is now of opinion that Cornwall is a bad place to get off his rehash of Sir Richard Carwright's speeches, and to deliver himself of his stale jokes and antiquated funny stories.—Guelph (Ont.) Herald.

The Railway Committee at Ottawa, on the 13th, adopted amendments to the bill respecting railway tickets, fixing the punishment for selling tickets without authority, providing for the redemption of unused tickets, and giving passengers a right to stay over at any station for not longer than two days for every fifty miles of distance travelled.

The April number of "Good Words" contains some contributions of no common interest to Canadian readers. There are a series of admirable illustrations of scenes in His Excellency the Marquis of Lorne.

Fifty thousand bushels of oats are being shipped from Montreal to Manitoba on account of the Canadian Pacific Railway have been purchased in Ontario for the see these oats imported from the United States than sent from the older provinces.

The Allan Line steamers "Sarmatian" and "Phoenician" sailed from Liverpool on the 13th with a large number of passengers destined for Manitoba. Tenants on Lord Derby's estates are coming out to select homes in Ontario and Manitoba, and will be followed by tenants from Lord Sudeley's estates. Mr. Dyke, Canadian Emigration Agent at Liverpool, has gone to the continent with a view to securing a portion of the large emigration from that quarter.

A reporter of the Norfolk (Va.) Virginian, recently referred in that paper to a conversation with Prof. Cromwell, the world-renowned art exhibitor, wherein he states that he had some year or so before suffered excruciating torments from rheumatism, and that he had tried all kinds of medicines and so-called cures—all without effect. He heard, however, of St. Jacobs Oil, and resolved to give it a trial, which he did, and he stated that its effect on him was almost magical. A complete cure was effected, and since then he had never suffered from rheumatism. But in order that he might be at all times prepared for the enemy, he never travelled without carrying in his trunk a bottle or so of St.
Jacobs Oil.
