

RIPLEY'S BELIEVE IT OR NO!

Sir George Wynne of Leeswood, Wales, bribed King George VI to make him a baronet by giving the monarch 100 black oxen in 1731.

The Stone Arch of South Uist, Hebrides, Scotland, is a natural rock formation.

In the majority of hands the dealer has a choice of several possible lines of play to follow. Where any one of these methods may succeed or fail, depending upon how the opposing cards are divided, the declarer can do his try to select the line of play which probably has the best chance to succeed.

There are some hands where declarer becomes committed to one course of play because it is the only one that has a real chance to win. When this is the case there is nothing for declarer to do but follow the indicated

Springhill's Mayor Looks For Rebuilding 'Miracle'

TORONTO (CP) — Springhill's Mayor Ralph Gilroy spoke here Thursday night of the yet-to-come "fourth miracle of Springhill—the rebuilding."

The stricken mining town's chief executive, here to accept donations to the Springhill disaster fund, appealed to manufacturers to help his community with what it needs most: New, secondary industries.

He told a $100-a-plate dinner organized by the Canadian Furniture Manufacturers' Association: "Our people in Springhill are a proud people. They have not asked their mayor to come here to ask any special favours. However, we will desperately need the help of this whole great country."

Mrs. Rockefeller Not Sure Of Role As Governor's Wife

NEW YORK (AP) — Mrs. Nelson Rockefeller isn't too sure about what awaits her as the wife of the governor of New York State, but she is positive about one thing.

It doesn't give her any feeling that, in time, she may also be the wife of the president of the United States.

Mrs. Rockefeller opened her 32-room Fifth Avenue apartment to the press Thursday and, with candor, humor and apparent enjoyment of it all, answered a variety of questions.

She made these comments: "Nelson and I haven't given any thought at all to being governor and Mrs. Governor, or whatever you call me."

"I don't know how we're going to conduct ourselves until we find out what it's all about. Just what my role as the governor's wife is, I'm not sure."

"I prefer ready-made clothes."

Pearson Goes After Gov't.

BEAUSEJOUR, Man. (CP)—Liberal Leader Pearson said Wednesday night the federal government's $1-an-acre grant to farmers is "a salve to keep them quiet" and is not based on any sound agricultural principle.

He told a meeting opening the Liberal campaign for a forthcoming byelection in the Springfield riding that Canadians are beginning to realize after 1 1/2 years of Conservative government that the former Liberal administration had made great strides in the post-war period.

He said the Conservatives while in opposition had complained about the Liberals' tight money policy but now the government had created an even tighter money situation with its conversion loan scheme.

The present administration likely would show a deficit of about $1,000,000,000 in its next budget. And the deficit was a hit-and-miss affair—not "signed to put Canadians back to work."

The byelection, Dec. 15, is to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Conservative member Val Yacula.
