MONCTON, Aug. 4. The excitement over the murder of Policeman Steadman is still at fever heat here. The escaped suspect has not yet been captured. The prisoner has become more communicative. He gave his name as Robert Olsen, a Norwegian by birth, and said that his family emigrated to the States about 20 years ago. Marshal Foster is in receipt of a despatch from Detective Grosse of Montreal, saying that from the description he believes that the prisoner is Buck Whelan, and that his escaped pal is Jim Christie—two of the most notorious characters known to the Montreal police.

Mr. Crisp, Methodist, of this town, makes a most emphatic and distinct denial of the immoral conduct specified. The feeling in this village is that Mr. Crisp has been cruelly wronged and there is a general belief that if charges are formulated he will be fully vindicated.

The Star

THE BEAUTIFUL STAR

Has vindicated her right to be called Beautiful from the universal admiration of our patrons for the Beautiful in Art. This is evidenced by the good taste they display in patronizing the Star Tailoring Establishment when they want something particularly nice and artistic. Our success in filling the bill has passed into a proverb, namely, when you fail to get suited at the Star Tailoring Establishment you are too fastidious for this yere world.
